white. Has I entered on the freeway I was trying to pick up speed as other cars was in back of me I start to notice that my car wouldn't go any faster, the vehicle wouldn't go no more than 35 miles to almost 40 miles speed limite, after a few seconds my car shuts off on me (on the Freeway) lucky I was close to the emergency lane because I was able to pull over.

I went to go get my car checked out and they told me that my Engine is bad and I need a new engine and my check engine light in my car never came on.
