Narrative Description of Incident(s), Failure(s), Crash(es), and Injury(ies)

Two days before I brought the car in I got a letter from Dayco about the recall on the sensors. I brought the car in two other people in for the same problem. They were what charged.
I was charged $77.61 for the same problem. Asked for the old part back they wouldn't give it to me. I wanted to buy the sensor and install it myself. They said no because there is a recall and it could start a fire. At first they wanted to charge $112. I said no way. While going on they were pulling the part anyway and it was what supposed to cost me anything is what I told them. I still do not know if the part was replaced or disconnected. I cannot get to it to check it out.
