Dear Ms. Nason:

Enclosed is correspondence I received from my constituent, Mr. [REDACTED], regarding his request for the U.S. Department of Transportation, National Highway Safety Bureau.

In his letter, Mr. [REDACTED] indicates questions about possible motor vehicles' recalls.

Your assistance in responding to Mr. [REDACTED] concerns, in accordance with all applicable laws and regulations, is greatly appreciated.

Thank you in advance for your time and attention to this matter. Please direct a final response and any intermittent questions to Linda Long in my district office at 513.791.0381.

Sincerely,

Rob Portman

USA/ Department of Transportation..National Highway Safety Bureau..

I request you contact them on my behalf about possible suggestions for motor vehicles and recalls. On a 1998 Plymouth Voyager Mini-van, the horn often fails and malfunctions. In the last two years it has been repaired at least twice as I recall but still only works off and on. Not a good thing at all.

The cruise control often does not work at all. It will jam on in the on position and one cannot turn it off or disconnect it.
