I would like to add my name to the list of complainers.

I purchased a new 99 Accord EX V-6 (ID #IHGCG1658XA [REDACTED]) and had to have the transmission replaced at 32,000 miles in 2001. Two years later I started having problems again and now at 96,000 miles after only 64,000 on the second transmission this one has failed. This past weekend as I pulled out on to a highway the transmission failed to shift into gear for several seconds and then finally engaged with only minimum power, barely allowing me to get off the highway. The check engine light came on at the same time the transmission failed to respond. Honda definitely has had a problem for some time, has know about it, and has failed to take appropriate corrective action.

My car has 68,000 miles and the transmission is slipping. I contacted American Honda Motor Company. They offered to pay for the transmission but not the labor. I will end up spending about $450 rather than $4,600. I am without a car for a week. ??What a deal?? It is good that Honda will front the cost for the transmission parts. However, this situation influences my opinion of the Honda brandname.Add a message posted: 2004-05-18 12:58:48

The Honda Dealership has told me that I need to have my transmission replaced with a rebuilt one. The bill: close to $4,000. This is insane given that I have religiously performed the required maintenance with the dealer year after year. Isn't Honda's claim to fame its long lasting reliability provided the car is maintained properly? After following 6 years of conscientious but very expensive maintenance, I am faced with whopping repair bill. I think Honda should pick up the tab. I still am uncertain what my direction of repair is. I have a 98 Accord V-6 automatic transmission. The slipping and changing into a down gear started @ 53,000. I thought it was normal. So my husband said. Now if I am in stop and go traffic and it get hot, it is sluggish taking off. I have owned 5 hondas and have never had any problems. I thought I might be stuck with a lemon and would have to ride it out. Any chance mine might make it under the wire. It has 74,880 miles. I have tried to contact Honda this morning but they are on pacific time and have an appointment with the dealership tomorrow. Any advice as far as leverage I can use? from: AutomotiveTalk.net Honda Accord 2001 V6 LX Transmission problem.

My Honda transmission shown some kinds of sluggish during acceleration and felt like sandy grinded in its gears as well some drops of oil leaked from its housing. Not much but very annoyed. It was 78,000 miles on it.

I took it in to the Fladeboe Honda Dealer in Irvine, CA and they ran a VIN check and told me that the extended warranty for 100K miles had applied to this transmission. Free of charge.

If you have any doubt about your transmission, please take it to the dealer right away before 100K miles used up. Cost only about $40.00 for initial diagnostic checks rather than spent a huge amount later on. Add a message posted: 2004-12-17 01:17:15

My tranny was slipping only when cold when you pull up to a stop and hit the gas. I brought it in for its second tranny leak in 3 months. This time they said it had a bad differential. Last time it was the drivers side axel seal. I am getting a new one but I have the Honda Care warranty. In my opinion it is a POS tranny. They do not have filters in them. What a joke. Some companies make a filter kit for them. Add a message posted: 2004-12-27 12:47:37

First the Odessey went at 48K miles now the 99 accord at 80K miles. If anyone knows of a class action lawsuit about the 99 Accord transmission, we'd all love to know... I started having trouble at 70,000 miles, and was told by Honda my vin # was not affected; I was on my own. I now have 217,000 miles on the car, trans. has stayed the same; I've just suffered through it because I'm not giving Honda anymore of my money. '00, '01, and '02 got replacement transmissions, but not the '99's even though it's the same problem. No more Hondas for me; I'm going back to Toyota. Add a message posted: 2005-01-04 16:00:34

I just had mt trans replaced at 105k. The took the car to the honda dealer and they could only offer me a rebuilt trans. They said honda corp is saving what they have for their recall campaign. Fortunately, I had extended coverage thru Geico and they paid 4800.00 for parts and labor. Geico shipped the dealer a transmission that was 1400.00 cheaper than what honda quoted. I can tell you that I will tell everyone not to buy a Jap car. If you do, keep the car under the full manufacture's warranty regardless of the mileage, if you know what I mean. I am trying to find information on a class action lawsuit on the transmission issue we are facing with these Jap Honda's. They are better off making sushi.

I am the third owner of a 1998 Accord EX V6 and have been having slippage problems with the tranny when it is cold since I bought in July 2004. I just took it to the dealer who says it needs a new tranny, which seems to be everybody else's problem also. Based on what I read in this forum, I called Honda Canada (I am in Vancouver, British Columbia), and they were great. With very little effort on my part, they immediately agreed to pay for the tranny parts, I just pay for the labour, which will cost me about CDN$800. I can live with that, especially given that the car has 129,000 kms on it (about 80,000 miles). I looked through the service records and found that the previous owners both had tranny problems (as early as 50,000 miles) and both sold the car after discovering the problems. I give credit to Honda - they built a lemon (which is rare for them) and they know it. They are standing behind their vehicles, and treating their customers right.

To anyone else with these problems at early mileage, CALL HONDA, THEY WILL HELP. Add a message posted: 2005-01-09 22:34:11

I have a 2000 Accord EX V6 with serious transmission issues, specifically the torque converter. We called Honda on a whim. They had us take it to a dealership for the evaluation and got back with us the next day. They offered to sell us a new transmission and labor for the installation for $1,600. We have been loyal Honda owners and I think they appreciate and respect that. And considering we have 140,000 miles on the car, I think that's pretty good. If you have problems, even if you are way beyond the mileage, CALL HONDA. They seem to want to help. Add a message posted: 2005-01-14 08:55:19

The car has been well-maintained. Oil has been changed every 3000 miles since it was new. No use! Our car technician told us, after the routine service, that the transmission oil was leaking. (red color oil) The dealer charged us over $100 diagnosis fee and told us there was no transmission leakage and the warranty was expired after 36K miles even there was a transmission problem. Honda corp should look at the automotivetalk website to see all these problem and consider to give a much longer transmission warranty regardless what year the car was built. Same issue. Car slipped from 1st to 2nd only when cold. Let it go a couple weeks, until I found a pool of trans fluid on the garage floor. Took it to a Firestone as an emergency fix (they said they'd look at it but only some things could they fix), they put in diagnostic dye and could find no leak. Talked to a mechanical brother who thought maybe it was the trans filter. Guessing that'd be a one hours job my husband took it into the dealership where we bought it today and needless to say, Wa La, same bearing problem as everyone else. We're just short of 60,000 miles. They're ordering us a new transmission and should be replaced by the middle of next week for FREE! I guessed the cost at 1500-2000. They said it's $3000. So no complaints on our part. Also said we could drive it another 30,000 miles and wouldn't hurt anything. I found that strange. How couldn't it hurt anything? Add a message posted: 2005-02-12 14:57:33

39,000 miles!!!! Transmsion going out on me!!!

Your English is fine :-). The problem is Honda has NOT officially acknowledged a problem with the the transmissions in 1998, 1999, and 2002 model years. After the service manager at my dealer "implied" there have been problems with these trannys, I have spent hours searching the Internet for others who have experienced them. I have found a disturbing number of similar problems.

Honda has issued a "silent" warranty extension on 2000 and 2001 models. Why not the others? As far as I know, these transmissions are all the same, and many owners have experienced similar problems. It seems Honda will neither confirm nor deny this. Why not? This is unacceptable for a company that was built upon customer satisfaction. I bought my first new Honda in 1982 when I was 25 years old. I still have it. I have owned Hondas ever since and intended to always do so. How they respond to this will determine whether I do or not.

You may or may not have a problem with your transmission. Have you had it serviced lately? If not, I suggest you do so, and have it done by your Honda dealer so you have a paper trail in case it begins to fail on you. And following Honda's "Normal" service interval of 144k is a bad idea. The torque converter is "tiny" and doesn't hold much fluid. Better to use the "Severe" service interval of 48k. 40 bucks(US) for a drain and fill every couple of years is much better than 5 grand hit after 80 to 100k.

I haven't heard of any catastrophic failures on these. Mine, for example, doesn't even feel like a transmission problem. It is intermittent and feels more like a fuel system problem. It's parked for now (until this is resolved), but I'm sure with continued driving the clutches would begin to slip until eventually I would be calling a tow truck.

I'll keep you posted,

Some people do not believe that there is a problem with the Accord V6 automatic transmission. Honda needs to redesign this unit! We purchased a 2003 Accord with a 4 cylinder engine, because we read about the problems with the V6 Accord on the "net". We have 41,000+ miles on the clock, and no problems with the entire vehicle. (The automatic trans fluid has been drained twice. We requested this service from the dealer as part of our own preventive maintenance program.) We will stay with the 4 cylinder model. Yes, Honda does build a quality product, but this transmission issue needs to be corrected in the manufacturing process. This whole issue is an embarrassment for Honda!

Hi All! My daughter's 98 Accord EX V6 transmission is acting up. On the first start of the day, and only then, the transmission acts like it is in neutral and then catches. I have the transmission fluid replaced, an additive added, and the transmission filter replaced. Any ideas?

Re: 98 Accord EX transmission - Honda - Miniman2003-09-05 01:06:22.0

There isn't much beyond what you've done that can be done with the transmission in the car. I didn't realize that there was a replaceable filter on the V6 transmission. The high RPM with a cold engine could be making it jerk into gear on the first start of the day but in any event this doesn't happen with a normal transmission unless the RPM's are unusually high.

Unfortunately the transmissions are flawed on the '98-'02 V6 Accords and yours might be showing early signs of trouble. I just had a rebuild done for $1300 with Honda parts at a local shop. My advice: Get a fixed price for a worst case scenario before even getting a diagnosis - there are many crooks out there that can sweet-talk you out of your cash. $2000 should be the highest that any shop charges for a rebuild with OEM components. If you can't get a price like that, get the $1800 Autozone rebuilt unit and have a car repair shop (not transmission expert) install it for $500 (tops).

My Accord made a grinding noise in neutral and park for a long time before I had any clutch problems but I have heard of many different symptoms of failure on this poorly designed transmission.

*changing the fluid was done about a year ago, and now the shift jerk along with loss of power in accelerating means that is most likely a mechanical problem...it's broke. no flushing or changing of fluids is going to do anything. sucks. I actually saw some info that honda V6's of 1998-2000 had transmission issues.....no recalls, but a lot complaints. some where honda paid 75% of the costs. of course that was for cars that only had $50K or less on them. mine already has 112K.

"Your supporter," not Honda's.

I own Yellow Cab in Hamet and purchased 3 98 Honda Accords, all had numerous problems, especially its 20,000 mile hub bearings and lousy brakes.

All the transmissions failed between 60-80 miles. The cars are now on their 3rd transmission and counting.

I made them aware of this problem early as we put approximately 10,000 miles a month on a car.

If I wasn't stuck making payments I'd consider junking the cars. I would find it morally wrong to do little more than give these lemons away.

If you are aware of any class action lawsuit I'd appreciate it if you post that info.

Re: N032005-03-1700299

I am sending this letter to dispute your assessment of my 1998 Honda Accord's transmission failure. After doing research on issues related to the Honda Accord's V6 model, I have found several issues which are very similar to the issues I am currently experiencing. I have followed the recommended maintenance schedule. I did not expect my transmission to have a major issue which will require a replacement.

After speaking with your representative, Kevin Brown, he stated he would not be accepting any more of my phone calls. He vehemently denied my claim. He stated Honda manufactures millions of vehicles so some problems can be expected. I was forced to find information on my own. I have also contacted the Better Business Bureau, The Federal Trade commission, and the State of NJ Attorney General Office. I have submitted my findings and comment to these governing offices. I am requesting a replacement transmission. Honda has replaced transmissions free of charge for similar issues. I expect the same courtesy to be extended to me.

I am enclosing a list of some of the problems and solutions, I have found in various forums. I am in the process of creating a message board so other unsatisfied Honda owners can post additional information related to faulty 1998 Honda V6 transmissions and other car related issues.

Should you have any questions or concerns, you can contact me at the number I have listed above. I am thanking you in advance for your cooperation in settling this issue.

Thank you,

NOTICED LURCHING AND TRANSMISSION SLIPPING. THE CAR WAS HAVING DIFFICULTY CHANGING GEARS. NEXT DAY I HAD CAR CHECKED OUT WAS ADVISED THAT TRANSMISSION FLUID WAS BLACK(BURNT) AND THE MOTOR MOUNT WAS ALSO WEAK. THE FOLLOWING DAY I TOOK THE CAR TO ED VOYLES HONDA FOR MY 45,000 MILE/3 YR SERVICE. I WAS THEN ADVISED BY SERVICE ADVISOR, JIM VARTIAK, THAT LARGE METAL PIECES CAME OUT WHEN THE TRANSMISSION FLUID WAS BEING DRIANED AND WAS A SIGN OF DETERIORATION OF THE TRANSMISSION. AFTER MY SERVICE ON 10-28-02 I WENT TO WORK. ON MY COMMUTE BACK, I HEARD A LOUD NOISE AND THEN THE CHECK ENGINE LIGHT CAME ON WHILE I WAS ON THE EXPRESSWAY. THE VEHICLE WAS NOT ACCELERATING WELL, THE GEARS WERE NOT SHIFTING. WHEN I GOT TO MY DESTINATION I NOTICED THAT I WAS PARKED . WHEN I PUT THE CAR IN REVERSE THE ENGINE HAD TO BE REVED UP TO MAKE THE SLIGHTEST MOVE. IT TOOK SEVERAL MINUTES TO MOVE THREE FEET. THE NEXT MORNING, 10-30-02, THE CAR WAS DRIVING ABOUT 40 MPH THEN SUDDENLY DROPPED TO 10 MPH DURING A BUSY HOUR APPROX. 7:30 AM. AT TIMES THE HONDA ACCORD WOULD NOT EVEN MOVE AT ALL AND THEN IT WOULD SUDDENLY JOT OUT. I MADE IT HOME, BUT THE CAR IS COMPLETELY IMMOBLE THE TRANSMISSION IS GONE. Summary:

TODAY I HAVE 88000 MILES ON MY 1999 HONDA ACCORD V6 COUPE. I AM CURRENTLY ON

MY THIRD TRANSMISSION. THE FIRST TIME, MY CAR WAS DRIVING VERY ROUGH AT AROUND 23000 MI. EVERY TIME I WOULD ACCELERATE, WHEN MY CAR SHIFTED FROM FIRST TO SECOND GEAR, THE CAR WOULD GIVE A STRONG JERK, ONE THAT WAS STRONG ENOUGH TO SHAKE THE COINS IN THE COIN HOLDER. I TOOK THE CAR TO HONDA AND THEY TOLD ME IT WAS OK, AND THEY COULD NOT DIAGNOSE ANY PROBLEMS. AROUND 30000 MILES, MY TRANSMISSION WOULD NOT SHIFT OUT OF SECOND GEAR. I TOOK IT BACK TO HONDA AND THEY REPLACED IT WITH OUT ANY PROBLEM. LATER, AROUND 60000 MILES, MY TRANSMISSION LOST ALL FORWARD DRIVING GEARS. KEEP IN MIND THIS IS THE SECOND TRANSMISSION. I HAD IT TOWED TO A GAS STATION, AND CALLED HONDA, ONLY TO HEAR, THE CAR IS OUT OF WARRANTY. THE DECISION WAS MADE TO GET THE WORK DONE AT THE GAS STATION. THEY ACQUIRED A NEW TRANSMISSION FROM HONDA TO BE PLACED INTO MY CAR. TONIGHT, THAT TRANSMISSION IS NOW WITHOUT FIRST AND THIRD GEARS. THE CAR WONT SHIFT EITHER. THE CAR NEEDS TO BE PLACED IN SECOND GEAR, AND SHIFTED TO THIRD MANUALLY FOR IT TO FUNCTION. IF IT IS STARTED IN 1,D3,OR D4 IT WILL START IN SECOND GEAR AND STAY IN IT. I HAVE 90000 MI ON MY CAR TODAY. THIS SEEMS TO OCCUR EVERY 30000 MI OR SO.*JB

Summary:
TRANSMISSION FAILED IN MY HONDA ACCORD 99. WITH RESEARCH I FOUND ALOT OF CONSUMERS THAT HAD THE TRANSMISSIONS FAIL IN THEIR ACCORD 99/2000/2001'S. THE 200+ TRANSMISSION WERE UNDER RECALL. I DIRECTLY ASKED HONDA IF THE PART (AUTO TRANSMISSION) WAS THE SAME IN THE 99 ACCORD AS THE 2000 / 2001 WHICH IS UNDER RECALL. THOUGH SEVERAL HONDA DEALERSHIPS I FOUND OUT THAT THE PART (AUTO TRANSMISSION) IS EXACTLY THE SAME IN A 99, 2000 OR 2001 HONDA ACCORD. THE HONDA WARRANTY TEAM WOULD NOT ADMIT (AGAIN I DIRECTLY ASKED) THAT THE PART WAS THE SAME. THUS, I AM LEFT WITH HONDA KNOWING THAT 99 ACCORD'S HAVE

KNOWN DEFECTIVE AUTOMATIC TRANSMISSIONS THAT FAIL AT ROAD SPEED (ERRATIC SHIFTING). MY TRANSMISSION FAILED ON AN INTERSTATE AT 60 MPH ROAD SPEED BY SHIFTING FROM DRIVE TO REVERSE. I ALMOST GOT HIT BY AN 18 WHEELER THAT HAD TO GO OFF ROAD TO AVOID MY CAR. I GUESS WHEN THE FATALITIES GROW BIG ENOUGH TO WARRANT A CLASS ACTION SUIT HONDA WILL BE FORCED TO RECALL. *NLM

I PURCHASED MY 1999 HONDA ACCORD EX-VL 3.0L V6... MAY 1999, THERE HAS BEEN A SLIGHT JERK WHEN THE TRANSMISSION SHIFTED GEARS FROM DAY ONE. HONDA SAYS

THIS IS NORMAL. WELL SEVERAL MONTHS AGO IT STARTED TO GET WORSE AND THE TRANSMISSION STARTED LEAKING FLUID AT THE LEFT CV BOOT. I TOOK IT INTO THE HONDA DEALER AND I WAS TOLD THAT THERE IS A ROLLER BEARING THAT IS WEARING OUT PREMATURELY CAUSING A SLIGHT VIBRATION THAT CAUSES THE SEAL TO LEAK. THEY SAID I NEEDED A NEW TRANSMISSION AND IT WOULD COST $5,500 ++ TO REPLACE BECAUSE IT WAS NO LONGER UNDER WARRANTY. (3 YEARS OR 30K MILES) I HAVE OWNED A HONDA FOR 17 YEARS. I HAVE A 1986 WITH OVER 250,000 MILES AND STILL GOING STRONG. I PURCHASED THIS 1999 BASED ON THE HONDAS PAST HISTORY OF QUALITY. THIS MAY BE THE END OF HONDA OWNERSHIP FOR ME IF THEY DON'T REPLACE THIS DEFECTIVE TRANSMISSION. I HAVE SEARCHED THE INTERNET AND WAS OVERWHELMED AT SO MANY 1999 HONDA ACCORDS THAT HAVE THE SAME PROBLEM. I THINK HONDA SHOULD REPLACE ALL OF THEIR DEFECTIVE TRANSMISSION AND SAVE THERE GOOD NAME. HONDA SHOULD EXTEND THE 1999 HONDA ACCORD WARRANTY TO 7 YEARS OR 100K TO COVER THERE DEFECTIVE PRODUCT. THEY DID EXTENDED THE 2000-2001... BUT NOT THE 1999 ??? WHY... IT'S THE VERY SAME TRANSMISSION! *AK

1999 HONDA ACCORD, TRANSMISSION FAILED AFTER ONLY 59,000 MILES! ENGINE LIGHT CAME ON ONLY 5 MILES BEFORE I TOOK IT TO AUTHORIZED HONDA DEALER WHO DEEMED IT UNSAFE TO DRIVE! I DO NOT HAVE ALL THE SERVICE RECORDS BUT I KNOW I DID TAKE IT FOR EVERY SINGLE SERVICE SUGGESTED IN THE MANUAL. NOT ONLY DOES HONDA KNOW ABOUT THIS PROBLEM (IT EXTENDED THE WARRANTY ON 2000 AND 2001 MODELS, WHICH ARE IDENTICAL TO THE 1999) BUT JUST IN MY SMALL TOWN ALONE I PERSONALLY KNOW OF 2 OTHER PEOPLE WHO HAD THE SAME PROBLEM! AFTER MUCH PRESSING, HONDA AGREED TO PAY FOR LESS THAN A THIRD OF THE $5000.00 COST OF NEW TRANSMISSION BIG DEAL! ALSO THEY REFUSED TO PAY FOR MY RENTAL (NOW GOING ON 2 WEEKS)....IT TOOK THEM OVER WEEK TO RESPOND TO MY COMPLAINT LEAVING ME EITHER DRIVING AN UNSAFE (IN THEIR WORDS) CAR OR RENTING 11 *LA

I HAVE A 1999 HONDA ACCORD V6 EX SEDAN. IT CURRENTLY HAS APPROXIMATELY 56,000 MILES ON IT, AND MUCH TO MY SURPRISE THE VEHICLE HAS REQUIRED A NEW TRANSMISSION @ 55,000. APPARENTLY THIS IS A COMMON PROBLEM WITH THIS VEHICLE AND IS MENTIONED ON MANY INTERNET FORUMS. THE COST OF REPLACING THIS TRANSMISSION IS RATHER SUBSTANTIAL. THE 00-01 MODELS HAVE AN EXTENDED WARRANTY FROM HONDA ON THE TRANSMISSION FOR 7 YEARS AND 100,000 MILES, BUT FOR SOME REASON THE 1998-1999 MODELS WERE LEFT OUT EVEN THOUGH THEY WERE THE SAME GENERATION VEHICLES. I ALMOST GOT REAR ENDED A FEW TIMES DUE TO TRANSMISSION SLIPPAGE. I HOPE SOME ACTION CAN BE TAKEN TO HAVE THE WARRANTY EXTENDED TO INCLUDE THE 1998 TO 1999 HONDA ALSO.

Summary:

I FIRST NOTICED A DIFFERENCE IN MY 99 ACCORD COUPE V6 TRANSMISSION WHEN IT WAS COLD OUT. THE CAR JERKED BETWEEN 1ST AND 2ND GEAR. IT RAN FINE ONCE THE CAR WARMED UP. WHEN I CALLED HONDA TO ASK ABOUT THE ISSUE, I WAS TOLD OLDER CARS DO THAT AND IT WAS NOTHING TO WORRY ABOUT. ABOUT A MONTH AND A HALF LATER THE TRANSMISSION STARTED JERKING BETWEEN 3RD AND 4TH WHEN BELOW 40 MPH. MY CAR THEN WOULD NOT LEAVE A STOPPED POSITION UNTIL HITTING AT LEAST 2500 RPM'S THEN IT KICKED INTO GEAR. I TOOK MY CAR TO MY LOCAL HONDA DEALERSHIP - THEY FLUSHED THE TRANSMISSION FLUID - CHARGED ME $85 AND ON A SIDE NOTE ON THE BILL THEY STATED "TRANSMISSION NEEDS REPLACEMENT - INTERNAL DAMAGE". THEY DID NOT TALK TO ME ABOUT THIS NOR DID THEY OFFER TO REPAIR THIS AT A CHARGE. WHEN I PURCHASED MY CAR I BOUGHT THE 100,000 MILE EXTENDED WARRANTY, WHICH I PAID CLOSE TO $1500 FOR. HONDA REALIZED THERE WAS AN ISSUE AND EXTENDED THE 100,000 MILE WARRANTY AUTOMATICALLY FOR THE 2000-2002 MODELS. I HAD APPROXIMATELY 108,000 MILES ON MY CAR WHEN I TOOK IT TO HONDA FOR THIS ISSUE. AFTER DEALING WITH HONDA CUSTOMER CARE FOR OVER 3 WEEKS I GOT NOTHING BUT A RUN AROUND FROM THEM. I WAS TOLD TO CALL THE COMPANY THAT HANDLES THE EXTENDED WARRANTY SERVICE, THIS COMPANY TOLD ME THEY WERE NOT SURE WHY HCC REFERRED ME TO THEM B/C IT WAS HCC DECISION OF HOW THEY WANTED TO HANDLE MY CASE. IN THE END HONDA DID NOTHING FOR ME. I TOOK MY CAR TO A TRANSMISSION SHOP; AFTER THEY TORE DOWN THE TRANSMISSION THEY FOUND EXTENSIVE DAMAGE. I WAS TOLD THAT THE 2ND GEAR THRUSTER BARRING HAD FALLEN INTO THE PUMP WHICH DESTROYED IT, 2ND GEAR WAS COMPLETELY DESTROYED, THE ELECTRICAL CYLINDER WAS DAMAGED BEYOND REPAIR, AND THE REMAINING 3 GEAR

THRUSTER BEARINGS HAD ALSO FALLEN OUT. IN THE END IT COST ME OVER $3000 ($2000 IN PARTS ALONE) AND ALMOST 2 MONTHS TO REPAIR THE DAMAGE TO MY TRANSMISSION.

WHILE PULLING OUT INTO A ROADWAY AT A HURRIED PACE TO AVOID ONCOMING TRAFFIC, MY '99 ACCORD WOULD NOT ACCELERATE AND THE RPM'S JUST INCREASED. AN ONCOMING VEHICLE NOTICED THAT I WAS NOT GETTING OUT OF THE WAY AND SLAMMED ON HIS BRAKES. FORTUNATELY, BEFORE AN IMPACT OCCURED, MY HONDA VIOLENTLY SLAMMED INTO GEAR AND I GOT OUT OF THE WAY OF THE OTHER VEHICLE, BUT THE ACCELERATION WAS SO SUDDEN I WAS NOT ABLE TO TURN. THE ACCORD IMPACTED THE CURB, CAUSING TIRE AND RIM DAMAGE. THE TRANSMISSION IS PROGRESSIVELY GETTING WORSE AND I AM DISMAYED TO FIND THAT HONDA KNOWS THE TRANSMISSION IS DEFECTIVE, YET WILL DO NOTHING TO HELP '99 OWNERS. HONDA NEEDS TO RECALL ALL THESE TRANSMISSIONS, NOT JUST THE 2000/01 BECAUSE THEY ARE A THREAT TO DRIVER SAFETY (AS I HAVE EXPERIENCED). WHEN BACKING OUT OF MY DRIVEWAY, WHICH IS SLIGHTLY INCLINED, THE TRANSMISSION IN MY 1999 ACCORD V6 WILL SLIP AS IF THE GEARS ARE NOT MESHING

AND IT VIOLENTLY POPS. IT ALSO REQUIRES ME TO PRESS HARD ON THE ACCELERATOR FOR THE CAR TO EVEN BACK OUT OF THE DRIVEWAY. THE TRANSMISSION ALSO DOES NOT SHIFT SMOOTHLY WHEN DRIVING AND SOMETIMES DOWNSHIFTS ERRATICALLY, SUCH AS AFTER I'VE ALREADY STOPPED. I BOUGHT THIS CAR USED WITH 72,000 MILES AFTER TAKING IT TO THE NEAREST HONDA DEALERSHIP FOR A THOROUGH CHECKOUT PRIOR TO THE PURCHASE. I WAS NOT TOLD OF A TRANSMISSION PROBLEM WITH THIS MODEL BY THE DEALER, AND EVERYTHING CHECKED OUT OK EXCEPT THEY SAID THE TRANSMISSION FLUID NEEDED TO BE CHANGED, WHICH I DID. AFTER APPROXIMATELY 1 WEEK, THE TRANSMISSION SLIPPED FOR THE FIRST TIME WITH ME. I CARRIED IT TO THE DEALER AGAIN AND WAS TOLD THIS WAS "NORMAL" FOR A HONDA. WELL, IT'S NOT NORMAL FOR MY OTHER TWO HONDA ACCORDS (91 AND 92). IT NOW SLIPS EVERY DAY THAT I DRIVE IT AND I BELIEVE IT WILL COMPLETELY FAIL PRETTY SOON. I SUSPECT THE PREVIOUS OWNER PROBABLY HAD THE TRANSMISSION FIXED AND THEN SOLD IT TO ME. I ALSO HAVE A 2002 ODYSSEY, WHICH IRONICALLY, IS IN THE SHOP TODAY FOR A RECALL TO CHECK THE 2ND GEAR IN THE TRANSMISSION FOR OVER-HEATING AND TO INSTALL A "OIL JET" WHATEVER THE HELL THAT IS. I AM VERY ANGRY AT HONDA AND WILL PROBABLY NEVER BUY ANOTHER HONDA OF ANY KIND IF A RECALL IS NOT ISSUED ON THESE OBVIOUSLY CHEAPLY DESIGNED AND DANGEROUS TRANSMISSIONS. WHY CAN'T YOU PUT SOME PRESSURE ON HONDA TO INCLUDE THE 1999 MODEL ACCORD WITH THE 2000+ MODELS FOR THE TRANS RECALL? IT'S OBVIOUS THAT THERE IS A SIGNIFICANT PROBLEM.*AK

TRANSMISSION ON MY 1999 HONDA ACCORD LX HAS BEEN SLIPPING FOR QUITE SOME TIMES. I AM THE SECOND OWNER, HAVING BOUGHT THE CAR FROM THE COMPANY I WORKED FOR. PERFECTLY MAINTAINED, WITH MAINLY HIGHWAY MILES. MY TRANSMISSION IS NOW OUT COMPLETELY; WHEN IT WENT OUT, MY 4 YEAR OLD SON AND I HAD TO DRIVE BACK HOME, IN REVERSE. NOW I AM STRANDED AT MY HOME IN THE COUNTRY, 20 MILES FROM TOWN. I AM A SINGLE FATHER AND I NOW HAVE TO RELY ON MY PARENTS TO TAKE ME PLACES AS I CURRENTLY CANNOT AFFORD TO PAY $4-$5K TO REPLACE MY TRANSMISSION. I DON'T UNDERSTAND WHY THE RECALL WAS ONLY DONE TO THE YEAR 2000 VEHICLES WHEN IT IS VERY OBVIOUS THAT THE PROBLEM WAS PREVELANT IN THE 1999 MODELS AS WELL. *AK

I REPEATEDLY EXPRESSED CONCERNS TO THE DEALERSHIP THAT THERE WAS SOMETHING WITH MY TRANSMISSION. IT WOULD THUMP AND LURCH THE CAR FORWARD OR HESITATE BETWEEN GEARS. REPEATEDLY THEY ASSURED ME THIS WAS NORMAL. LIKE EVERYONE WHO BUYS A HONDA, I THOUGHT HONDAS ARE BUILT TO LAST SO MAYBE THIS IS NORMAL. THE FIX-IT WAS TO FLUSH MY SYSTEMS ON NUMEROUS OCCASSIONS. WORSE. I HAD TO MANUALLY SHIFT AN AUTOMATIC. SUCH IRONY. NOW THE VEHICLE ONLY ENGAGES 2ND GEAR. I HAVE BEEN FIGHTING HONDA WITH THIS FOR 9 MONTHS NOW.*AK

I NOTICED TRANSMISSION LEAKING FROM MY 1999 HONDA ACCORD EX AT ABOUT 78,000 MILES. I ALSO NOTICED THAT MY TRANSMISSION WAS SLIPPING AND NOT CHANGING GEARS AT THE PROPER TIMES. THUS, I TOOK MY CAR TO A TRANSMISSION REPAIR SHOP AND WAS ADVISED THAT MY SEALS AND AXELS HAD TO BE REPLACED. TO GET A SECOND OPINION, I TOOK IT TO A MEINEKE SHOP WHO ADVISED THAT MY AXELS WERE FINE AND THAT I NEEDED A TRANSMISSION TECHNICIAN BECAUSE MY PROBLEM WAS GREATER THAN I IMAGINE. I CONTACTED A TECHNICIAN IN THE AREA AND HE ASSESSED THE SITUATION. THE TECHNICIAN ADVISED THAT THE PROBLEM WAS THAT THE BEHRINGS ON THE VEHICLE WERE POORLY MANUFACTURED AND THUS WERE CAUSING LEAKAGE AND SLIPPAGE. HE OFFERED LITERATURE ON THIS PARTICULAR PROBLEM WHICH HELPED ME UNDERSTAND. HIS SOLUTION WAS TO COMPLETELY REBUILD THE ENTIRE TRANSMISSION BUT THAT WAS A COST THAT I COULD NOT EVEN FATHOM TO BEAR. THIS LED ME TO CONTACT A TRANSMISSION REPAIR TECHNICIAN THAT I HAD PREVIOUSLY CONSULTED WITH WHEN I WAS FACED WITH TRANSMISSION ISSUES WITH MY 1988 HONDA ACCORD. THIS TECHNICIAN DIAGNOSED THE CAR WITH THE SAME PROBLEM AS THE PREVIOUS TRANSMISSION TECHNICIAN. HE CAUTIONED THAT HONDA ACCORDS BUILT IN BETWEEN 1998 AND AFTER HAD THOSE FAULTY PARTS IN THE TRANSMISSION, THUS CAUSING THE SAME PROBLEMS I WAS DESCRIBING. I HAD TO OTHER ALTERNATIVE THAN TO TRUST THIS TECHNICIAN WITH THE REPAIR OF MY TRANSMISSION SINCE I HAD PREVIOUSLY DEALT WITH HIM. HE WAS HONEST AND STRAIGHTFORWARD FROM THE START. AS A RESULT, I HAVE HAD TO PAY FOR THE REPAIR OF THE TRANSMISSION, INCLUDING NEW PARTS; I HAVE HAD TO RENT A CAR IN THE INTERIM; AND I HAVE NOT BEEN ABLE TO OBTAIN ANY TYPE OF ANSWERS AS TO WHY THIS HAPPENS OR WHY THERE HAS NOT BEEN A RECALL. THE TECHNICIAN HAS GRANTED ME THE FAVOR OF KEEPING THE OLD PARTS AND WILL PROVIDE ME WITH AN ITEMIZED BILL FOR HIS SERVICES, INCLUDING ANY PARTS ORDERED FOR THE REPAIR/REFURBISHING OF THE TRANSMISSION.

I WAS DRIVING MY MOM'S 1999 HONDA ACCORD EX V6 HOME LAST NIGHT AROUND 11:00 PM. AS I WAS APPROACHING THE EXIT AND PROCEEDED TO DECELERATE FROM 65MPH, THE CAR VIOLENTLY DOWNSHIFTED SEVERAL TIMES CAUSING ME TO LOSE CONTROL OF THE CAR. A LARGE TRACTOR-TRAILER WHICH WAS BEHIND ME WAS NARROWLY ABLE TO AVOID REAR-ENDING (OR RUNNING ME OVER!) BY SWITCHING LANES. MY LIFE FLASHED BEFORE ME AS I THOUGHT THIS WAS THE END OF MY LIFE. FORTUNATELY, I SURVIVED, HOWEVER, I HAVE A NASTY CASE OF WHIPLASH. AFTER DOING MY RESEARCH, I'VE FOUND THAT THE TRANSMISSIONS USED IN THE 98-2002 ACCORDS V6 HAVE A FAULTY CARRIER BEARING WHICH BRAKES AND RUINS THE INNERDS OF THE WHOLE TRANSMISSION. AFTER CALLING HONDA USA, I WAS TOLD TOUGH LUCK, AND WAS SARCASTICALLY TOLD THAT IF I EXPECTED THEM TO PAY FOR REPLACEMENT, I SHOULDN'T HOLD MY BREATH. REGARDLESS OF THE EXTRORDINARY INFLATED REPLACEMENT COST OF $4800.00, THE NHTSA MUST OPEN A DEFECT INVESTIGATION. ALTHOUGH THE 2001-2002'S WERE "RECALLED," THE 98-99'S WITH THE EXACT SAME TRANSMISSIONS HAVE NOT. I FEAR FOR THE LIVES OF ALL THOSE INDIVIDUALS WITH THESE CARS - ESPECIALLY IF THEY CANNOT AFFORD THE OUTRAGEOUS COST TO REPLACE HONDA'S FAULTY TRANSMISSIONS. THIS IS TRULY AN INJUSTICE!*AK

NOTICED LURCHING AND TRANSMISSION SLIPPING. THE CAR WAS HAVING DIFFICULTY CHANGING GEARS. NEXT DAY I HAD CAR CHECKED OUT WAS ADVISED THAT TRANSMISSION FLUID WAS BLACK(BURNT) AND THE MOTOR MOUNT WAS ALSO WEAK. THE FOLLOWING DAY I TOOK THE CAR TO ED VOYLES HONDA FOR MY 45,000 MILE/3 YR SERVICE. I WAS THEN ADVISED BY SERVICE ADVISOR, JIM VARTIAK, THAT LARGE METAL PIECES CAME OUT WHEN THE TRANSMISSION FLUID WAS BEING DRIANED AND WAS A SIGN OF DETERIORATION OF THE TRANSMISSION. AFTER MY SERVICE ON 10-28-02 I WENT TO WORK. ON MY COMMUTE BACK, I HEARD A LOUD NOISE AND THEN THE CHECK ENGINE LIGHT CAME ON WHILE I WAS ON THE EXPRESSWAY. THE VEHICLE WAS NOT ACCELERATING WELL, THE GEARS WERE NOT SHIFTING. WHEN I GOT TO MY DESTINATION I NOTICED THAT I WAS PARKED . WHEN I PUT THE CAR IN REVERSE THE ENGINE HAD TO BE REVED UP TO MAKE THE SLIGHTEST MOVE. IT TOOK SEVERAL MINUTES TO MOVE THREE FEET. THE NEXT MORNING, 10-30-02, THE CAR WAS DRIVING ABOUT 40 MPH THEN SUDDDENLY DROPPED TO 10 MPH DURING A BUSY HOUR APPROX. 7:30 AM. AT TIMES THE HONDA ACCORD WOULD NOT EVEN MOVE AT ALL AND THEN IT WOULD SUDDENLY JOT OUT. I MADE IT HOME, BUT THE CAR IS COMPLETELY IMMOBLE THE TRANSMISSION IS GONE. THE WORST PART IS THERE WAS NO HELP OFFERED FOR A RESOLUTION. I HAVE MADE CALLS AND ALSO WRITTEN TO AMERICA HONDA MOTOR CO., INC, BUT I HAVE NOT YET RECIEVED ANY RESPONSE FROM MY. CORRESPONDENCE. DT

Summary:

TODAY I HAVE 88000 MILES ON MY 1999 HONDA ACCORD V6 COUPE. I AM CURRENTLY ON

MY THIRD TRANSMISSION. THE FIRST TIME, MY CAR WAS DRIVING VERY ROUGH AT AROUND 23000 MI. EVERY TIME I WOULD ACCELERATE, WHEN MY CAR SHIFTED FROM FIRST TO SECOND GEAR, THE CAR WOULD GIVE A STRONG JERK, ONE THAT WAS STRONG ENOUGH TO SHAKE THE COINS IN THE COIN HOLDER. I TOOK THE CAR TO HONDA AND THEY TOLD ME IT WAS OK, AND THEY COULD NOT DIAGNOSE ANY PROBLEMS. AROUND 30000 MILES, MY TRANSMISSION WOULD NOT SHIFT OUT OF SECOND GEAR. I TOOK IT BACK TO HONDA AND THEY REPLACED IT WITH OUT ANY PROBLEM. LATER, AROUND 60000 MILES, MY TRANSMISSION LOST ALL FORWARD DRIVING GEARS. KEEP IN MIND THIS IS THE SECOND TRANSMISSION. I HAD IT TOWED TO A GAS STATION, AND CALLED HONDA, ONLY TO HEAR, THE CAR IS OUT OF WARRANTY. THE DECISION WAS MADE TO GET THE WORK DONE AT THE GAS STATION. THEY ACQUIRED A NEW TRANSMISSION FROM HONDA TO BE PLACED INTO MY CAR. TONIGHT, THAT TRANSMISSION IS NOW WITHOUT FIRST AND THIRD GEARS. THE CAR WONT SHIFT EITHER. THE CAR NEEDS TO BE PLACED IN SECOND GEAR, AND SHIFTED TO THIRD MANUALLY FOR IT TO FUNCTION. IF IT IS STARTED IN 1,D3,OR D4 IT WILL START IN SECOND GEAR AND STAY IN IT. I HAVE 90000 MI ON MY CAR TODAY. THIS SEEMS TO OCCUR EVERY 30000 MI OR SO.*JB

TRANSMISSION FAILED IN MY HONDA ACCORD 99. WITH RESEARCH I FOUND ALOT OF CONSUMERS THAT HAD THE TRANSMISSIONS FAIL IN THEIR ACCORD 99/2000/2001'S. THE 200+ TRANSMISSION WERE UNDER RECALL. I DIRECTLY ASKED HONDA IF THE PART (AUTO TRANSMISSION) WAS THE SAME IN THE 99 ACCORD AS THE 2000 / 2001 WHICH IS UNDER RECALL. THOUGH SEVERAL HONDA DEALERSHIPS I FOUND OUT THAT THE PART (AUTO TRANSMISSION) IS EXACTLY THE SAME IN A 99, 2000 OR 2001 HONDA ACCORD. THE HONDA WARRANTY TEAM WOULD NOT ADMIT (AGAIN I DIRECTLY ASKED) THAT THE PART WAS THE SAME. THUS, I AM LEFT WITH HONDA KNOWING THAT 99 ACCORD'S HAVE

KNOWN DEFECTIVE AUTOMATIC TRANSMISSIONS THAT FAIL AT ROAD SPEED (ERRATIC SHIFTING). MY TRANSMISSION FAILED ON AN INTERSTATE AT 60 MPH ROAD SPEED BY SHIFTING FROM DRIVE TO REVERSE. I ALMOST GOT HIT BY AN 18 WHEELER THAT HAD TO GO OFF ROAD TO AVOID MY CAR. I GUESS WHEN THE FATALITIES GROW BIG ENOUGH TO WARRANT A CLASS ACTION SUIT HONDA WILL BE FORCED TO RECALL. *NLM

Summary:

I PURCHASED MY 1999 HONDA ACCORD EX-VL 3.0L V6... MAY 1999. THERE HAS BEEN A SLIGHT JERK WHEN THE TRANSMISSION SHIFTED GEARS FROM DAY ONE. HONDA SAYS

THIS IS NORMAL. WELL SEVERAL MONTHS AGO IT STARTED TO GET WORSE AND THE TRANSMISSION STARTED LEAKING FLUID AT THE LEFT CV BOOT. I TOOK IT INTO THE HONDA DEALER AND I WAS TOLD THAT THERE IS A ROLLER BEARING THAT IS WEARING OUT PREMATURELY CAUSING A SLIGHT VIBRATION THAT CAUSES THE SEAL TO LEAK. THEY SAID I NEEDED A NEW TRANSMISSION AND IT WOULD COST $5,500 ++ TO REPLACE BECAUSE IT WAS NO LONGER UNDER WARRANTY. (3 YEARS OR 30K MILES) I HAVE OWNED A HONDA FOR 17 YEARS. I HAVE A 1986 WITH OVER 250,000 MILES AND STILL GOING STRONG. I PURCHASED THIS 1999 BASED ON THE HONDAS PAST HISTORY OF QUALITY. THIS MAY BE THE END OF HONDA OWNERSHIP FOR ME IF THEY DON'T REPLACE THIS DEFECTIVE TRANSMISSION. I HAVE SEARCHED THE INTERNET AND WAS OVERWHELMED AT SO MANY 1999 HONDA ACCORDS THAT HAVE THE SAME PROBLEM. I THINK HONDA SHOULD REPLACE ALL OF THEIR DEFECTIVE TRANSMISSION AND SAVE THERE GOOD NAME. HONDA SHOULD EXTEND THE 1999 HONDA ACCORD WARRANTY TO 7 YEARS OR 100K TO COVER THERE DEFECTIVE PRODUCT! THEY DID EXTENDED THE 2000-2001... BUT NOT THE 1999 ??? WHY... IT'S THE VERY SAME TRANSMISSION! *AK

ENGINE LIGHT COMES ON EVERY 500-600 MILES. SCHOMP HONDA IN DENVER SAID FLUSH TRANSMISSION. IF THAT DIDN'T WORK, THERE WAS A VALVE TO REPLACE IN THE TRANSMISSION. IF THAT DIDN'T WORK, TRANSMISSION REPLACEMENT NEEDED AT $50,000. TRANSMISSION HAS BEEN FLUSHED, AND THE VALVE REPLACED (BY KOOL HONDA, MCCOOK, NE). THIS TIME THE LIGHT CAME ON ABOUT 1000 MILES. THIS STARTED BEFORE MILEAGE WAS 47,000 MILES. WE BOUGHT THE CAR USED, AND SUSPECT THE PROBLEM WAS APPARENT WHEN THE PRIOR OWNER TRADED IT IN. NOT ONLY DOES HONDA KNOW ABOUT THIS PROBLEM (IT EXTENDED THE WARRANTY ON 2000 AND 2001 MODELS, WHICH ARE IDENTICAL TO THE 1999) BUT JUST IN MY SMALL TOWN ALONE I PERSONALLY KNOW OF 2 OTHER PEOPLE WHO HAD THE SAME PROBLEM! I FIRST NOTICED A DIFFERENCE IN MY 99 ACCORD COUPE V6 TRANSMISSION WHEN IT WAS COLD OUT. THE CAR JERKED BETWEEN 1ST AND 2ND GEAR. IT RAN FINE ONCE THE CAR WARMED UP. WHEN I CALLED HONDA TO ASK ABOUT THE ISSUE, I WAS TOLD OLDER CARS DO THAT AND IT WAS NOTHING TO WORRY ABOUT. ABOUT A MONTH AND A HALF LATER THE TRANSMISSION STARTED JERKING BETWEEN 3RD AND 4TH WHEN BELOW 40 MPH. MY CAR THEN WOULD NOT LEAVE A STOPPED POSITION UNTIL HITTING AT LEAST 2500 RPM'S THEN IT KICKED INTO GEAR. I TOOK MY CAR TO MY LOCAL HONDA DEALERSHIP - THEY FLUSHED THE TRANSMISSION FLUID - CHARGED ME $85 AND ON A SIDE NOTE ON THE BILL THEY STATED "TRANSMISSION NEEDS REPLACEMENT - INTERNAL DAMAGE". THEY DID NOT TALK TO ME ABOUT THIS NOR DID THEY OFFER TO REPAIR THIS AT A CHARGE. WHEN I PURCHASED MY CAR I BOUGHT THE 100,000 MILE EXTENDED WARRANTY, WHICH I PAID CLOSE TO $1500 FOR. HONDA REALIZED THERE WAS AN ISSUE AND EXTENDED THE 100,000 MILE WARRANTY AUTOMATICALLY FOR THE 2000-2002 MODELS. I HAD APPROXIMATELY 108,000 MILES ON MY CAR WHEN I TOOK IT TO HONDA FOR THIS ISSUE. AFTER DEALING WITH HONDA CUSTOMER CARE FOR OVER 3 WEEKS I GOT NOTHING BUT A RUN AROUND FROM THEM. I WAS TOLD TO CALL THE COMPANY THAT HANDLES THE EXTENDED WARRANTY SERVICE, THIS COMPANY TOLD ME THEY WERE NOT SURE WHY HCC REFERRED ME TO THEM B/C IT WAS HCC DECISION OF HOW THEY WANTED TO HANDLE MY CASE. IN THE END HONDA DID NOTHING FOR ME. I TOOK MY CAR TO A TRANSMISSION SHOP; AFTER THEY TORE DOWN THE TRANSMISSION THEY FOUND EXTENSIVE DAMAGE. I WAS TOLD THAT THE 2ND GEAR THRUSTER BARRING HAD FALLEN INTO THE PUMP WHICH DESTROYED IT, 2ND GEAR WAS COMPLETELY DESTROYED, THE ELECTRICAL CYLINDER WAS DAMAGED BEYOND REPAIR, AND THE REMAINING 3 GEAR

THRUSTER BEARINGS HAD ALSO FALLEN OUT. IN THE END IT COST ME OVER $3000 ($2000 IN PARTS ALONE) AND ALMOST 2 MONTHS TO REPAIR THE DAMAGE TO MY TRANSMISSION.

I HAVE NOTICED A FEW WET SPOTS ON MY FLOOR OF MY GARAGE SO I CRAWLED UNDER CAR TO LOOK. I NOTICED FLUID COMING OUT FROM THE TRANSMISSION ON THE DRIVER'S SIDE WHERE THE AXLE GOES THROUGH THE AXLE SEAL INTO THE TRANSMISSION. I TOOK THE CAR TO EXCLUSIVE HONDA /ACURA IN OMAHA NE. THEY CHECKED THE CAR OVER AND FOUND EXCESSIVE PLAY IN THE DRIVER'S SIDE OUTPUT SHAFT (AXEL). THEY ADVISED ME I WOULD NEED A NEW TRANSMISSION. THE CAR IS A 1999 ACCORD THAT HAS BEEN MAINTAINED ACCORDING TO MANUAL AND ONLY HAS 58000 MILES. I HAVE ALSO NOTICED AND ERRATIC SHIFT THAT IS VERY UNSAFE WHILE DRIVING.*AK

WHILE PULLING OUT INTO A ROADWAY AT A HURRIED PACE TO AVOID ONCOMING TRAFFIC, MY '99 ACCORD WOULD NOT ACCELERATE AND THE RPM'S JUST INCREASED. AN ONCOMING VEHICLE NOTICED THAT I WAS NOT GETTING OUT OF THE WAY AND SLAMMED ON HIS BRAKES. FORTUNATELY, BEFORE AN IMPACT OCCURED, MY HONDA VIOLENTLY SLAMMED INTO GEAR AND I GOT OUT OF THE WAY OF THE OTHER VEHICLE, BUT THE ACCELERATION WAS SO SUDDEN I WAS NOT ABLE TO TURN. THE ACCORD IMPACTED THE CURB, CAUSING TIRE AND RIM DAMAGE. THE TRANSMISSION IS PROGRESSIVELY GETTING WORSE AND I AM DISMAYED TO FIND THAT HONDA KNOWS THE TRANSMISSION IS DEFECTIVE, YET WILL DO NOTHING TO HELP '99 OWNERS. HONDA NEEDS TO RECALL ALL THESE TRANSMISSIONS, NOT JUST THE 2000/01 BECAUSE THEY ARE A THREAT TO DRIVER SAFETY (AS I HAVE EXPERIENCED). I HAVE ALWAYS LIKED HONDA'S CARS BUT MAY CONSIDER ANOTHER VEHICLE IF HONDA ALLOWS THEIR BOTTOM LINE TO ENDANGER CUSTOMER SAFETY. *LA

Summary:

WHEN BACKING OUT OF MY DRIVEWAY, WHICH IS SLIGHTLY INCLINED, THE TRANSMISSION IN MY 1999 ACCORD V6 WILL SLIP AS IF THE GEARS ARE NOT MESHING

AND IT VIOLENTLY POPS. IT ALSO REQUIRES ME TO PRESS HARD ON THE ACCELERATOR FOR THE CAR TO EVEN BACK OUT OF THE DRIVEWAY. THE TRANSMISSION ALSO DOES NOT SHIFT SMOOTHLY WHEN DRIVING AND SOMETIMES DOWNSHIFTS ERRATICALLY, SUCH AS AFTER I'VE ALREADY STOPPED. I BOUGHT THIS CAR USED WITH 72,000 MILES AFTER TAKING IT TO THE NEAREST HONDA DEALERSHIP FOR A THOROUGH CHECKOUT PRIOR TO THE PURCHASE. I WAS NOT TOLD OF A TRANSMISSION PROBLEM WITH THIS MODEL BY THE DEALER, AND EVERYTHING CHECKED OUT OK EXCEPT THEY SAID THE TRANSMISSION FLUID NEEDED TO BE CHANGED, WHICH I DID. AFTER APPROXIMATELY 1 WEEK, THE TRANSMISSION SLIPPED FOR THE FIRST TIME WITH ME. I CARRIED IT TO THE DEALER AGAIN AND WAS TOLD THIS WAS "NORMAL" FOR A HONDA. WELL, IT'S NOT NORMAL FOR MY OTHER TWO HONDA ACCORDS (91 AND 92). IT NOW SLIPS EVERY DAY THAT I DRIVE IT AND I BELIEVE IT WILL COMPLETELY FAIL PRETTY SOON. I SUSPECT THE PREVIOUS OWNER PROBABLY HAD THE TRANSMISSION FIXED AND THEN SOLD IT TO ME. I ALSO HAVE A 2002 ODYSSEY, WHICH IRONICALLY, IS IN THE SHOP TODAY FOR A RECALL TO CHECK THE 2ND GEAR IN THE TRANMISSION FOR OVER-HEATING AND TO INSTALL A "OIL JET" WHATEVER THE HELL THAT IS. I AM VERY ANGRY AT HONDA AND WILL PROBABLY NEVER BUY ANOTHER HONDA OF ANY KIND IF A RECALL IS NOT ISSUED ON THESE OBVIOUSLY CHEAPLY DESIGNED AND DANGEROUS TRANSMISSIONS. WHY CAN'T YOU PUT SOME PRESSURE ON HONDA TO INCLUDE THE 1999 MODEL ACCORD WITH THE 2000+ MODELS FOR THE TRANS RECALL? IT'S OBVIOUS THAT THERE IS A SIGNIFICANT PROBLEM.*AK

TRANSMISSION ON MY 1999 HONDA ACCORD LX HAS BEEN SLIPPING FOR QUITE SOME TIMES. I AM THE SECOND OWNER, HAVING BOUGHT THE CAR FROM THE COMPANY I WORKED FOR. I NOTICED TRANSMISSION LEAKING FROM MY 1999 HONDA ACCORD EX AT ABOUT 78,000 MILES. I ALSO NOTICED THAT MY TRANSMISSION WAS SLIPPING AND NOT CHANGING GEARS AT THE PROPER TIMES. THUS, I TOOK MY CAR TO A TRANSMISSION REPAIR SHOP AND WAS ADVISED THAT MY SEALS AND AXELS HAD TO BE REPLACED. TO GET A SECOND OPINION, I TOOK IT TO A MEINEKE SHOP WHO ADVISED THAT MY AXELS WERE FINE AND THAT I NEEDED A TRANSMISSION TECHNICIAN BECAUSE MY PROBLEM WAS GREATER THAN I IMAGINE. I CONTACTED A TECHNICIAN IN THE AREA AND HE ASSESSED THE SITUATION. THE TECHNICIAN ADVISED THAT THE PROBLEM WAS THAT THE BEHRINGS ON THE VEHICLE WERE POORLY MANUFACTURED AND THUS WERE CAUSING LEAKAGE AND SLIPPAGE. HE OFFERED LITERATURE ON THIS PARTICULAR PROBLEM WHICH HELPED ME UNDERSTAND. HIS SOLUTION WAS TO COMPLETELY REBUILD THE ENTIRE TRANSMISSION BUT THAT WAS A COST THAT I COULD NOT EVEN FATHOM TO BEAR. THIS LED ME TO CONTACT A TRANSMISSION REPAIR TECHNICIAN THAT I HAD PREVIOUSLY CONSULTED WITH WHEN I WAS FACED WITH TRANSMISSION ISSUES WITH MY 1988 HONDA ACCORD. THIS TECHNICIAN DIAGNOSED THE CAR WITH THE SAME PROBLEM AS THE PREVIOUS TRANSMISSION TECHNICIAN. HE CAUTIONED THAT HONDA ACCORDS BUILT IN BETWEEN 1998 AND AFTER HAD THOSE FAULTY PARTS IN THE TRANSMISSION, THUS CAUSING THE SAME PROBLEMS I WAS DESCRIBING. I HAD TO OTHER ALTERNATIVE THAN TO TRUST THIS TECHNICIAN WITH THE REPAIR OF MY TRANSMISSION SINCE I HAD PREVIOUSLY DEALT WITH HIM. HE WAS HONEST AND STRAIGHTFORWARD FROM THE START. AS A RESULT, I HAVE HAD TO PAY FOR THE REPAIR OF THE TRANSMISSION, INCLUDING NEW PARTS; I HAVE HAD TO RENT A CAR IN THE INTERIM; AND I HAVE NOT BEEN ABLE TO OBTAIN ANY TYPE OF ANSWERS AS TO WHY THIS HAPPENS OR WHY THERE HAS NOT BEEN A RECALL. THE TECHNICIAN HAS GRANTED ME THE FAVOR OF KEEPING THE OLD PARTS AND WILL PROVIDE ME WITH AN ITEMIZED BILL FOR HIS SERVICES, INCLUDING ANY PARTS ORDERED FOR THE REPAIR/REFURBISHING OF THE TRANSMISSION.

I WAS DRIVING MY MOM'S 1999 HONDA ACCORD EX V6 HOME LAST NIGHT AROUND 11:00 PM. AS I WAS APPROACHING THE EXIT AND PROCEEDED TO DECELERATE FROM 65MPH, THE CAR VIOLENTLY DOWNSHIFTED SEVERAL TIMES CAUSING ME TO LOSE CONTROL OF THE CAR. A LARGE TRACTOR-TRAILER WHICH WAS BEHIND ME WAS NARROWLY ABLE TO AVOID REAR-ENDING (OR RUNNING ME OVER) BY SWITCHING LANES. MY LIFE FLASHED BEFORE ME AS I THOUGHT THIS WAS THE END OF MY LIFE. FORTUNATELY, I SURVIVED, HOWEVER, I HAVE A NASTY CASE OF WHIPLASH. AFTER DOING MY RESEARCH, I'VE FOUND THAT THE TRANSMISSIONS USED IN THE 98-2002 ACCORDS V6 HAVE A FAULTY CARRIER BEARING WHICH BRAKES AND RUINS THE INNERDS OF THE WHOLE TRANSMISSION. AFTER CALLING HONDA USA, I WAS TOLD TOUGH LUCK, AND WAS SARCASTICALLY TOLD THAT IF I EXPECTED THEM TO PAY FOR REPLACEMENT, I SHOULDN'T HOLD MY BREATH. REGARDLESS OF THE EXTRORDINARY INFLATED REPLACEMENT COST OF $4800.00, THE NHTSA MUST OPEN A DEFECT INVESTIGATION. ALTHOUGH THE 2001-2002'S WERE "RECALLED," THE 98-99'S WITH THE EXACT SAME TRANSMISSIONS HAVE NOT. I FEAR FOR THE LIVES OF ALL THOSE INDIVIDUALS WITH THESE CARS - ESPECIALLY IF THEY CANNOT AFFORD THE OUTRAGEOUS COST TO REPLACE HONDA'S FAULTY TRANSMISSIONS. THIS IS TRULY AN INJUSTICE!*AK

Summary:

AUTO TRANSMISSION STARTED SHIFTING HARD WITHIN THE FIRST YEAR AND NOW JERKS ABRUPTLY BETWEEN FIRST & SECOND GEAR. REDDELL HONDA (MURFREESBORO, TN) HAS EXAMINED THE CAR AND RECOMMENDED A NEW TRANSMISSION. THE SERVICE ADVISOR ALSO DID NOT RECOMMEND TRAVELING DUE TO THE RISK OF BEING STRANDED. ACCURATE AUTOMOTIVE'S (LAVERGNE, TN) GARY GRAY, SERVICE ADVISOR, STATED THAT HE HAS SEEN THIS PROBLEM ALOT WITH THIS CAR. I HAVE AN ACQUAINTANCE WITH THE SAME CAR (1998), WHO REPLACED THE TRANSMISSION YEAR AGO, ONLY TO HAVE THE BEGINNINGS OF THE PROBLEM AGAIN. *NM

Summary:

TRANSMISSION FAILURE - 1999 ACCORD EX IN MINT CONDITION, PERFECT MAINTENANCE RECORDS AND THE TRANSMISSION BEGINS TO FAIL ,OUT OF THE BLUE, AT 71,000 MILES. THE CAR SHIFTS AND LURCHES IN 1ST, 2ND AND THIRD GEAR. ALSO, NOTICABLE LOSS OF OVERALL POWER OR TORQUE IN THE CARS PERFORMANCE. THIS IS MY THIRD ACCORD AND FIRST AUTOMATIC. HONDA WILL ONLY PAY FOR PART OF THE REPAIR. I HOPE BY WRITING THIS I HELP OTHERS WITH THE SAME PROBLEM. I AM BEING FORCED TO NEGOTIATE THE REPAIR COST WITH THE LOCAL HONDA DEALERSHIP. I AM ASKING FREE PARTS, FREE LABOR AND FREE RENTAL CAR. THEY CAME BACK WITH A REDUCED COST OF $1200 DOLLARS AND NO MENTION OF THE RENTAL CAR. I AM REALLY DISAPPOINTED IN HONDA, I AM A LOYAL CUSTOMER AND PROMOTER OF THE BRAND NAME. I EXPECT RESTUTION IF THEY FINALLY RECALL THIS POSITION. *AK
