To Whom It May Concern,

I bought in the year 1999 a new Chrysler Concorde, Identification Number 2C3HD46R9WH  in Fort Myers, FLORIDA. Because of work, I got transferred to Germany on July, 2003. So, I brought my Chrysler with me to Germany.

On April, 2005 my kept saying " Check Engine", so I brought it to a US Chrysler Car-Dealership in Mainz. After, they looked at it, they told me that my bord/tash computer is not working any more and they would have to order a new one, which would take about two weeks.

After, two weeks I went back to the dealership and they told me that Chrysler in the US wouldn't get this part to Germany for another 2 month, and they have to wait and couldn't do anything. So, I ask Daimler Chrysler Germany to give me a rental car, because of work I travel a lot. They told me that because I have a American Chrysler in Germany they couldn't give me a rental car. Therefore, I would have to pay for a rental car myself and I would have to send the bill to Daimler Chrysler in States, and you would give me the money back for the rental.

I am really upset, because first my car was in the shop from 04/29/05 until 07/19/05 and I had to pay for a rental car for all this time. Also, customer service really doesn't mean anything for Chrysler in

NAX

Germany. I think, Chrysler is Chrysler, where ever I go. And they make me pay for all the bills, etc. and send me back to clarify everything with Chrysler in the States. This is not customer service at all!

So, I am asking you to put the amount of $ 2139,25 back into the following account:

*Bank of America

Sincerely,
