Narrative Description of Incident(s), Failure(s), Crash(es), and Injury(ies)

My mazda 626 [2000] has defective locking problem. The rear passenger door [right] will not unlock at key entry. Nor if you try to open it manually it will not open. There is some resistance when trying to open it manual. I believe this is a manufacturing problem. I've talked to many other owners who have the identical problem.
