Dear [REDACTED]:

Thank you for your correspondence dated March 27, 2008, concerning your model year (MY) 2001 GMC Yukon. Your correspondence was received by the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration's (NHTSA) Office of Defects Investigation on April 16, 2008.

NHTSA is the Federal agency responsible for improving safety on our Nation's highways. We are authorized to order manufacturers to recall and repair vehicles or items of motor vehicle equipment when our investigations indicate that they contain serious safety defects in their design, construction, or performance. However, we cannot act on isolated problems or resolve disputes between individual owners, dealers, or manufacturers.

We appreciate the report you provided. Reports from motorists are a very important source of information for us. We sympathize with you concerning your request for assistance in resolving your problem with GMC; however, this type of request does not fall under our jurisdiction. Please be advised, Chapter 301 of Title 49 of the United States Code (U.S.C.) requires a manufacturer of motor vehicles or items of motor vehicle equipment that contain a defect relating to motor vehicle safety or fail to comply with a Federal Motor Vehicle Safety Standard to remedy the defect or noncompliance without charge. However, our statute does not require manufacturers to reimburse owners for costs associated with repair or corrective action performed prior to initiating a recall or for any additional costs associated with a safety recall (e.g., lost wages while the vehicle is being repaired, car rentals, repairs not performed by an authorized dealership, damage caused by the defect, etc.). Nor does the statute authorize the Federal government to reimburse vehicle owners for any costs associated with safety recalls or assist vehicle owners in obtaining reimbursements for costs associated with an alleged defect. We regret that we cannot assist you further in this matter.

Should you encounter a safety-related problem with a motor vehicle or item of motor vehicle equipment in the future, you can complete an electronic Vehicle Owner's Questionnaire online at
