Dear [REDACTED]:

Thank you for your e-mail dated May 13, 2008, concerning your model year (MY) 1996 Dodge Grand Caravan vehicle. Your correspondence was received by the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration's (NHTSA) Office of Defects Investigation on May 15, 2008.

NHTSA is the Federal agency responsible for improving safety on our Nation's highways. We are authorized to order manufacturers to recall and repair vehicles or items of motor vehicle equipment when our investigations indicate that they contain serious safety defects in their design, construction, or performance. However, we cannot act on isolated problems or resolve disputes between individual owners, dealers, or manufacturers.

Our database has revealed that there are several safety-related defect recalls on MY 1996 Dodge Grand Caravan vehicles that may be of interest to you. We have enclosed copies of the recall summaries for your information. Please contact your local dealership or DaimlerChrysler for further details and have your make, model, model year, and vehicle identification number available for their information.

Should you encounter a safety-related problem with a motor vehicle or item of motor vehicle equipment in the future, you can complete an electronic Vehicle Owner's Questionnaire online at <http://www.nhtsa.dot.gov/ivoq>. Also, a summary listing of vehicle owners' complaints, safety recalls, manufacturers' service bulletins, etc. can be obtained at <http://www.nhtsa.dot.gov/cars/problems>.

Sincerely,

Frank S. Borris II, Acting Chief
