Thank you again for speaking with me today [REDACTED] I enjoyed our conversation. You mentioned you had a repair order that you could fax or mail to me, my contact details are below. Also you mentioned that you still had the failed accelerator pedal that was removed from your vehicle last year. The agency might be interested in looking at the failed part, and you indicated you would consider letting us do that - I will let you know if we would like to pursue this.

Drive safely,
Scott

Would you be available to speak with me regarding the report you filed with our agency in February of this year? If so, please let me know the best time and number to contact you on. It will probably take 15 minutes or so.

Drive safely,
Scott
