[REDACTED], El Paso Texas [REDACTED]

Sir or Madame, I write you this letter in order to present a complaint against TOYOTA Motor Company and their Vehicle Dealerships. In May 2008 I buy a 2007 TOYOTA Corolla LE, VIN-S/N 1NXBR32E07Z [REDACTED]; I buy this car from HOY-FOX TOYOTA here in EL Paso Texas. when I purchase this car, the TOYOTA FOX-Dealer sales manager told me that the 2007 Corolla was under 60000 TOYOTA Factory Warranty and it will cover mechanical, as well Electrical components parts at no cost to my self.

For a few months My 2007 Corolla was Running Fine; But on April 2009, I notice my car's Engine began to speed up by it self while driving on the Road. Every time I had to stop at a Red Light, while applying the car's brakes., the Engine speed up - pulling the vehicle to the front. For 3 Days I drove the car under those conditions and The Engine Light was on and off while driving my car.

②

Unfortunately on April 16-2009; I was involve in a car Accident: At the Time while been waiting for the green light to come on., Once it show up, I release the brake pedal, the car immediately speed up and quickly catch-up with the front car., I apply my car's brakes to slow down: Suddenly Traffic slow down, brakes were apply, I hit-bump the front vehicle; then another driver HIT-crash my car's rear part. 3 weeks later I took my car to Hoy-Fox Toyota to be Fix at their shop. IT TOOK HOY FOX 4 weeks to Fix my car and they Charge my former Travelers Auto Insurance $ 3700.00 and I have to pay a $ 500.00 deductible money. Once I got my car back, Hoy-Fox Toyota told me that my vehicle will be working better than before and NOT to worry about it's driving conditions.

A few months later, on December 18-2009, the Engine light show up and while driving in a cool weather with the heater on: My car's Engine Heat up and stop working completely. I have to wait for 2 hours for my car-engine to cool down; then I drive it to Dick Poe Toyota-Dealership, so they could fix it.

There at the dealership, I let them know about my car's 60,000 Factory warranty and my car's Dash board screen show 42,033 miles. The Dick-Poe Toyota Clerk call me and let me know that Toyota factory will cover all the Fixing money expenses. Dick Poe Toyota took 4 days to fix my car and the customer service clerk told me that my car's ECU was malfunction, it need to be Replace and Had to order IT from Factory.

10 months later, my Toyota Corolla Engine light and Air bag light show up on my car's Dash board screen; The Engine started to create a knocking noise which increases when I speed up the car's engine. Once again I have to take my 2007 Toyota Corolla to Dick Poe Dealership to be fix. There I ask the Toyota Customer Service Clerk to see if my car's 60,000 miles warranty will cover the fixing expenses. I left my car at Dick Poe Toyota on November 1-2010 and later on the Toyota Clerk call me to let me know that Toyota 60,000 miles Factory warranty will NOT cover the car's Fixing Expenses.

So I ask the Dick Poe -Toyota clerk to Run a Diagnostic test on my car's Engine and Electrical

④

Components, that I need it to know what was wrong with my car. At the time the Diagnostic Test was done, my car's dash board ~~Screen~~ show 51051 miles in the Engine.

The Vehicle Diagnostic Report shows Air bag ECU malfunction and Occupant Classification System malfunction. The Engine Light still is on and the motor is creating a knocking noise which increases every time I step on the gas pedal.

There at Dick Poe Toyota, I ask the Toyota clerk how much money will cost me to fix my car: The man said, the Air bag ECU along with the sensors will be around $2000 to $2500 Dollars including labor. The Engine noise in order to be fix, we need to open the engine and find out what the problem is; which parts are bad or affected and how much money you will paid for parts and labor.

Once my conversation was over with the Toyota Clerk, He said "You need to Pray to God in order to avoid a crash-car accident because if you are involve in a vehicle accident, God only knows what will happen to you or some one else".

See what gets me upset is the fact that every 3500 or 4500 miles, I use to take my 2007 Corolla for oil and filter service at Dick Poe Toyota and they never were able to notice my car's mechanical and electrical problems.

Now at this time, I don't have money to spend on my car's fixing mechanical and electrical components problems; Right now I am surviving to make a living, paying house bills, car bill and buying food for my self have become hard to accomplish in a weekly basis.

Finally, when my car's Dash Board Screen was showing the Engine light problem, I thought it was time to change the spark plugs, engine oil and filter; so I did perform this process myself on November 24-2010 and at the time my car's showed a 50640 miles in the motor; But engine light continues to be on, as well the air bag light. What worries me is the fact that I am driving a car that is about to stop working or worst, I might be involve in a fatal car crash accident and innocent people could get hurt.

At this moment, I really believe that Hoy-Fox

TOYOTA sold me what is call here in Texas -
"a lemon vehicle" which looks great and nice, but it has a lot mechanical and Electrical Problems. Also, what up set me is the fact that I still have 3 more years in order to pay this lemon 2007 Corolla car; what makes things even worst is that I found a Document in the Car's Trunk which Proves the car was a Hertz-Rental Vehicle and as you know, Rental cars take a lot of abuse by people who rent cars.

Well, Sir or Madame, hope you can help me and contact the Toyota Factory, to see if Toyota Recalls the car in order to be Fix and Completely Check-inspect my 2007 Toyota Corolla; OR For Toyota to Recall-Keep and Cancel my monthly car payments; then to get another opportunity from Toyota in order to buy a new Vehicle with a low interest rate.

NOTE: ON APRIL 16-2009, MY COROLLA'S AIRBAGS NEVER DEPLOY
WHEN THE ACCIDENT HAPPEN.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]
