5 Year 50,000 Mile Limited Structural Warranty

As a supplement to Rexhall's Limited Warranty but with no intent to alter the provisions and/or limitations of the Rexhall Limited Warranty including those provision and/or limitations provided by law, Rexhall also extends a 5 year 50,000 mile Limited Structural Warranty on the steel cage of the Motorhome. The "steel cage structure" specifically refers to the structural steel members of each of the following major components: floor substructure, sidewalls, and roof, specifically excluding the floor structure, sidewalls, and roof of any slide out room the motorhome may have. If any of the aforementioned components of the steel cage structure has failed due to material or manufacturing defect over the first five years or fifty thousand miles they will be repaired at no cost to the original owner.

The term of this warranty specifically excludes any damage, discoloration, cracks or leakage of any fiberglass components. Any damage from accidents, improper use, negligence or failure to follow the operating and service instructions, lack of proper maintenance, unauthorized repairs, unauthorized modifications, overloading, normal wear and tear and/or normal deterioration from use and exposure to the elements. We do not assume any responsibility for loss of vehicle usage, loss of time, any inconvenience or expense due to equipment failure or warranty repair, including, but not limited to the following expenses: fuel, food, motels, rental vehicles, loss of work, loss of work benefits, loss of pleasure time or vacation, or any other miscellaneous expenses. If the owner lives in the vehicle, it is expected that the owner will make other living arrangements if warranty repairs are necessary that would prevent the use of the vehicle for a temporary period of time. This warranty is non-transferable and is voided in its entirety if the warranted vehicle is used for any commercial purpose.

Any provisions not specifically addressed here, or contradictions in performance by Rexhall or exclusions or limitations provided by law, will revert to the terms and conditions of the basic Rexhall Limited Warranty.

The 5 year 50 thousand mile warranty is available to original owners of model year 1999 or later year model products manufactured after October 31, 1998.
