Dear Sir or Madame,

I received a response to my letter on my AUDI A4 – File Number:08-10-11g0000069906. Ms. Paula Dow referred the investigation on the claims that are not satisfied as a result of several class actions lawsuits that was mailed to me from the lawyers and AUDI Corporation. I am still uncertain that this investigation involves the inspection of my vehicle or if the information is available to explain the unfair, predisposed, and biased decisions of the attorneys, insurance company, and the AUDI dealership.

I am following the suggestion of Paula T. Dow, NJ Attorney General, Paula D. Pate, NJ Supervisor, Consumer Service Center to find out the status of the investigation.

I can still be contacted in Washington, DC at the address above. The gross expense of maintaining an unused vehicle and the need to expense and purchase other vehicle as a major requirement for personal and professional life are the choices that I continue to face. The vehicle is still registered and is stored in the state of Virginia.

The actions here have a destructive impact on my business and personal rental cars and owning of vehicle. The decisions made will be passed on in my local and federal taxes, toll fees, unjustified parking tickets and related expenses that deal with driving. I have not filed lawsuit against a car manufacturer but was invited to join class actions lawsuits over the last several years with vehicle I owned and those I have rented.

I look forward to hearing from your department. If you need additional information from me please do not hesitate to make that request.
