Attention Daniel Walker, Shiena Walker and Kevin Rahn:

On October 19th I contacted your place of business in regards to a cylinder head you had listed on the Internet. Subsequently I called and spoke to someone and was told that the cylinder head was good and ready to be installed. After receiving the cylinder head and installing it we noticed the vehicle ran rough. I contacted your business at that time. I was told by the person claiming to be the owner which I now know to be Daniel Walker that the valves needed to be adjusted. We have since found that the head is bad. On today I spoke with you concerning this matter and your unprofessional and unethical response was to tell me to go myself.

You have a legal obligation under the Uniform Commercial Code (UCC) to be ethical in business practice. Your conduct displayed via telephone shows that you either are unaware of your duty in business or you could care less.

I will be notifying the Washington Licensing Bureau, the Dealer and Manufacturing Services Department and the Attorney General of what I consider to be a fraudulent misrepresentation regarding the condition of the part shipped to me. Furthermore, this will serve as a demand letter for return of monies paid . If I have not received payment within ten days I will pursue all options , including legal options. I hope that this matter can be resolved amicably.

Cordially,

cc: Washington Licensing Bureau (via fax: 360-705-6699)
Dealer and Manufacturing Services Department (via fax: 360-705-6699)
Attorney General Washington State
