To whom it may concern;

My Mother before she died bought 4 Toyotas in 2006 I recieved a toyota 2005 Toyota Corolla Le Automatic Brand New!!!
I've been a Excellent Driver for 44 yrs.

I had the Gold Warranty
I took it in every 3 mos for servicing.

In June of 2009 I had to drop my Insurance to just PL, PL.

One Morning I was headed to Miles away. I was coming upon upon a vehicle that was on the Highway with no Brake Lights, at 600ft I realized there was no way to go around her so I hit the Brakes... My Car just shut off. I Couldn't Control the Car no Brakes no Steering. I hit her.. But You knows if my Vehicle was such a Solid Car, I could of avoided the Accident.

Then just a month later I Received a Notice

I now have 5 of those,
My Car doesn't have a Salvage on it Cuz we drove it home from the wrecking yard. Yes it's been 4 yrs & I don't know how I've tried to Get this Matter Settled, but no one will Check my Cars ECM.
The Letters state if not fixed; the Car could shut off because of the ECM Module.

I've talked with everyone but ~~the Toyota People Themselves.~~

Can't Someone Come here & look @ my Car its on a Non-op.

It's Exactly the way it was the Day of the Accident.

Sincerely,

Ridge Crest, Ca.
