Dear Sir

I am inquiring about a possible RECALL on my 2007 TOYOTA CAMRY XLE - (V6) purchased new.

I complained about tire noise about 46,000 miles. Toyota serviced car at about 50,000 miles.

Right FRONT AXLE replaced and all 4 original MICHELIN tires replaced.

Is this normal wear?

DID KIA recently announce recall on rear axles?

I appreciate any information you can give me.

Sincerely

Long Beach, CA
