Dear Sir or Madam:

Explorer Van Company is in receipt of your correspondence dated July 10, 2014 regarding the Early Warning Reporting of Deaths and Injuries. During the prior five (5) calendar years, Explorer Van received only one (1) notice of an incident involving a death or injury. This incident was reported to us by Scott Paxton of General Motors' legal staff on July 2, 2014 that a lawsuit had previously been filed on June 6, 2013 by [REDACTED] v. General Motors LLC alleging that on February 23, 2012 the Plaintiff, [REDACTED] was driving a 2004 GMC Savannah on Interstate 75 outside of Gainesville, Florida when it was involved in an accident which resulted in alleged serious and permanent injuries to the Plaintiff. To the best of Explorer Van's knowledge, this is the only claim or notice of an incident that Explorer Van Company has received in the prior five (5) calendar years. Explorer Van is not a party to this litigation.

If you need any additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Very truly yours,

EXPLORER VAN COMPANY
