Dear Sirs;

I am writing about the recall on my 2002 jeep grand cherokee this is the third one I have received, both times in the past I called Mick's North hills in Pittsburgh, Pa. about this recall. I was told they would call me as soon as the parts were in. As you can tell, I'm still waiting for that phone call. What else can I do?

I think I even wrote to Chrysler once about this and nothing was ever done. If someone gets hurt who do I go after Chrysler or Mick's? Please Help

Sincerely:
