Our Need For Contact Information
W/RE. To: Takata Corporation &
Honda Motors, Inc. (USA)

Dear Senator Cornyn:

Once again we plead for your help. We own a 1994 Model Honda Prelude automobile. This vehicle was involved in a broadside collision with a local driver. The collision was not our fault. The other driver hit us, not the other way around. I am enclosing one or more pictures of the salvaged Honda, post-collision. I was personally injured in the two-vehicle collision. My neck, back, shoulders and head. My claims for damages, injuries, losses, etc....are still pending and unresolved. All the glass was shattered by the collision...There was a vast amount of body damages, as the photos do reveal and show. The air bags did not deploy, at all. If they had, I would not have been damaged, and seriously hurt. I feel that Takata Corporation is to blame for non-deploying air bags. I want to make a claim against Takata Corp....relative to non-deploying air bags. I have tried to get our local Honda dealer (Waco, Texas) to furnish me with contact information for HONDA MOTORS, USA, relative to where, how, when and so forth to perfect our claims against Honda and against Takata Corporation. Honda has told me (rather the local dealership has told me) that they are not allowed by Honda's attorneys & those of Takata Corporation to give us this vitally needed information....and, accordingly, so far no such information has been made available to us because we are advocating a claim against Honda & Takata and everyone concerned knows that. We realize that every day that goes by makes our case (claims) weaker for "failure to prosecute". It is a known fact in legal cases that claims grow weaker as time passes. Expiration of time always works for the defendant.

Please excuse my poor work product on my typewriter. Help us if you can, please. If you cannot just tell us that. All we expect from you, if anything, is information as to how we can meet with TAKATA CORPORATION AND HONDA MOTORS, USA. Thanks, so very much indeed, for your aid & assistance, in advance.

Very cordially,
