Dear Mr. Rosekind,

If you had purchased a 2016 Hyundai Tucson for your spouse or one of your children, I am positive that your organization would be investigating Hyundai for releasing and selling this vehicle before it was fully tested.

I send you this note based on information provided by my dealer. Hyundai was aware of problems with the engine/transmission (7-speed dual clutch) and was already working on a recall/fix before and immediately after release.

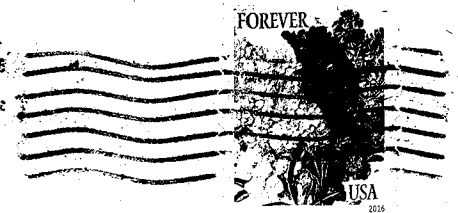

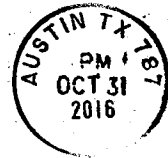

I challenge your organization to address the issues with this vehicle in a manner similar to the Samsung Galaxy Note 7.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]
