to whom it may concern:

my son [REDACTED] was in a horrible car accident on 5-13-16. he was driving a dodge Stratus 2006. he hit a power pole at 85mph head on spun around hit at driver door. yes he was going to fast But air Bags Never Deployed. he was in hospital with massive head Trauma.
I don't no if you no what it is like to be met at the hospital entrance by a Caplin to tell you your son might not make it, to see morning. my husband drives 2002 dodge ram - I drive a 200 cruiser 2012. and oldest Daught drives a Chrysler mini van and all of us are Thinking about Trading them in on some thing that is safe to drive. my son almost his chance to leave for the Navy on Time. Thank God he is fine. Still has to have x-rays on his head For a couple more weeks - to see if bleeding is gone • do you no what kind of medical bills are left even with Insurance. I just wanted you to no Since we were a dodge - Chrysler Family - don't no what we are going to do yet. after seeing a totaled car and no air bag deployed we are all pretty scared now never gave it much thought before. we have not put on Internet nor have we talked to an attorney yet just wanted some kind of feed back on how this could happen.
