To Whom it may concern,

This concerns the Recall notice 17542/17V787/17V788 on my 2004 Ford Ranger vin# 1FTYR10D04PR [REDACTED] my first notice came in 2 1/2 years ago, I understand they needed a vendor to make the part still to date No airbags - I tried several times calling Ford's toll free number, they say parts in, then to find out the Dealerships don't have them. I have not been driving my vehicle for 2 1/2 years. my main problem is the fact I keep on getting 2 stories on this matter, Even as of today's date.
Can someone tell me the truth on this matter

Thanks for Any help
