I was told to email you on the complaint i have made on my car awhile back. I am in the process of filing a breach of warranty lawsuit on nissan. My car is in unsafe condition as the lower control arm bushing is defective and has now wore my 2nd set of tires on this car to unsafe conditions. The high power fuel lines are now leaking which is another manufacturer defect. There is several other problems including a open circuit somewhere. Factory Warranty will not fix anything and i do not have thousands more to fix this cars defects. Please let me know if you need the inspection done yesterday
