My complaint number is 11477315. I have a FIAT 500C. There was a recall in Australia because of defective guide tracks. I would like to upload some additional information about a safety problem. It involves a rear seat bracket or device that struck my wife's head in a rear end collision where the front driver's seat failed.

I would like to speak to someone about the defects in the FIAT that caused severe injuries to my wife.

My telephone number is [REDACTED]. Here is a picture of the bracket that caused injury.
