Good Day,

I need to add an update to my case. The dealership has intact confirmed coolant intrusion in cylinder 1. We are requesting that Ford takes full liability and covers the cost of repairs for this issue due to the fact that they know this is an issue and the issue itself with the power failure while my [REDACTED] year old was driving nearly caused her to get into an accident while turning she was almost tboned by another driver.

Thank you,

[REDACTED]
