I am writing you about Ford Company. I didn't know they could stop making fuel tanks for a 2004 Ford explorer. I called Ford up and they don't make the fuel tank for my vehicle so I asked them to make me one and she said I will help you to get one so she gave my number to junkyard's I don't want one from a junkyard that I know they put holes in them to drain the gasoline out of the tank. I told her that is a very big safety issue. I need help to get me a new fuel tank. Thank you [REDACTED]
