Sometimes it feels like the air bag sounds like its flopping.. This car has always been a good car, but now i'm worried at the danger that could happen. I took it to the ford dealer in Glendora CA. Was told there was no recall on this year, and work would start at $2,000.If I were to try and sell this car, which I don't plan on, it wouldn't sell. Still a nice looking car, taken care of. Thank you for your help.
