2022 Jeep Repurchase Request

VIN #1C4JJXP69NW [REDACTED]

1) Shortly after we purchased our Jeep, on 1/30/23 we had to take it to the dealer because frequently it would not run on the battery mode at all, only the gas engine and it would race sometimes. The display panel said "electric mode not available cooling heating". The mechanic did a software update for Loss of Motive Power and said we were good to go.

2) The problem persisted with the car not running on the battery power very often. A few months later we received a Safety Recall Notice. It was titled "Loss of Motive Power". It stated that "the engine could shut down and that may result in an unexpected loss of motive power while driving, which can cause a vehicle crash without prior warning". On 6/22/23 we took the car into the dealer again, they saw that the "Heating and Cooling" message was still coming on. So even though they had done the Loss of Motive Power software update, they performed software updates for Battery Pack Coolant Control. After the service they tested the hybrid system and also the charging of the high volt battery. Said we were good to go. The car now ran off of the battery like it should, but we still had problems with the engine racing and the car lurching at times. Things like turning the wipers off and the panel lights get brighter or the music gets louder.

3) In October of 2024 we received another Safety Recall Notice. It was titled "High Voltage Battery". It said that the "high voltage battery in your vehicle may have been built with cells which are susceptible to separator damage. Separator damage combined with other complex interactions within the cells may lead to a vehicle fire". We think "complex interaction" is battery over charging software since the day it was built, eventually causing the battery to become extremely unstable.

The Recall instructed us to stop charging the battery, don't park in the garage or near structures, don't park next to other cars. The vehicle fire can cause an increased risk and/or injury to occupants. It said there is no remedy for this situation. We took the car to the dealer to have it repaired, but they reiterated that there was no remedy for this battery overheating and catching on fire problem at this time. We can no longer drive our car.

4) In November 2024 we received the same Safety Recall Notice. It said exactly the same things as the previous Notice. The battery and software system that controls it, was not functioning properly and the vehicle was at risk of fire from the battery overheating. Once again we took the car to the dealer for repair. Once again we were told there was no remedy at this time. We requested a repurchase but they could not authorize that. We were given an invoice instead that states "recall not released". This was 11/21/24. We still cannot use our new car.

We cannot use our new car because the battery can overheat and catch on fire. The dealer and Jeep state that there is no remedy. Four times we have taken our car to the dealership where we purchased it at Dodge Chrysler on 4101 S Tacoma Way, Tacoma Wa. for this battery overheating/software heating and cooling control problem. The last time was November 21,2024, we took it to the dealer where they gave us in writing again that there is no solution. This vehicle is a Lemon. It has had battery heating and cooling control issues since it was new, the issues are getting more serious because the battery has been through so much overheating now it can burst into flames. We cannot use our new car at all.

Please repurchase our vehicle.

IMPORTANT SAFETY RECALL

High Voltage Battery

Dear [REDACTED]

This notice is sent to you in accordance with the National Traffic and Motor Vehicle Safety Act.

Owners of vehicles previously notified of the B9A recall (NHTSA 23V-787) will need to bring their vehicle in for recall completion, regardless of having the B9A repair performed.

FCA US LLC has decided that a defect, which relates to motor vehicle safety, exists in certain 2022 Jeep® Wrangler Plug-In Hybrid Electric Vehicles (PHEVs).

WHY DOES MY VEHICLE NEED REPAIRS?

The High Voltage (HV) battery pack in your vehicle <sup>[1]</sup> may have been built with cells which are susceptible to separator damage. Separator damage, combined with other complex interactions within the cells, may lead to a vehicle fire. A vehicle fire can result in increased risk of occupant injury and/or injury to persons outside the vehicle, as well as property damage.

Vehicle risk is reduced when the battery charge level is depleted. Accordingly, owners are advised to refrain from recharging. Out of an abundance of caution, FCA US is also advising owners of these vehicles to park away from structures or other vehicles until the remedy is obtained.

HOW DO I RESOLVE THIS IMPORTANT SAFETY ISSUE?

The remedy for this condition is not currently available. We are making every effort to finalize the remedy, and will service your vehicle free of charge (parts and labor) when the remedy is available.

FCA US LLC will contact you again, by mail, with a follow-up recall notice when the remedy is available. Once you receive your follow-up notice, simply contact your Chrysler, Jeep®, Dodge or RAM dealer right away to schedule a service appointment <sup>[2]</sup>. Additional options for your next steps are included on the left side of this notification. We appreciate your patience.

WHAT IF I ALREADY PAID TO HAVE THIS REPAIR COMPLETED?

If you have already experienced this specific condition and have paid to have it repaired, you may visit www.fcarecallreimbursement.com to submit your reimbursement request online <sup>[3]</sup>. Once we receive and verify the required documents, reimbursement will be sent to you within 60 days. If you have had previous repairs performed and/or already received reimbursement, you may still need to have the recall repair performed.

We apologize for any inconvenience, but are sincerely concerned about your safety. Thank you for your attention to this important matter.
