Narrative Description of Incident(s), Failure(s), Crash(es), and Injury(ies)

Rear bumper dropping down from the car on both sides probably 1/2 inch front bumper appears to be starting to drop down also. I talked by phone to General mgr at Honda. His argument was "well your car is old". It is 10 1/2 yrs and I bought it in 1/89. It just registered to go and has only been driven by me + Jim + old. It has been well taken care of - no wrecks. It is not scratched. I see many cars much older and the bumper aren't falling over.
