Narrative Description of Incident(s), Failure(s), Crash(es), and Injury(ies)

I took my car in for a recall (fuel pump) they fixed it. Next day in a Burger King parking lot turned on the car & it started to tremble real bad. I noticed that my fuel tank went from F to E I got out of the car looked under it and saw my whole tank spread all over the BK parking lot. That pissed me off. But what topped it off was that I found a piece of chocolate chip cookie on my battery. That tells me that he wasn't real serious about fixing the car. I have a six year old daughter that is always with me and I just think they should of taken that situation a little more serious. When I mentioned the cookie to the person in charge at Dodge they told me "oh it was just that the boys had a little B-day party" well for all the money I spent I'm still waiting for the $75 that they're reimbursing me for.
