I have never been so disappointed with anything in my life. I thought I was getting a vehicle that I could depend on for several years. I barely purchased the vehicle & returned. I recall there's another recall that sounded like the same problem. The vehicle was checked up (April 5) & found to be faulty (new gas tank). We were notified a month later the part had come. My time could not be spared to take that vehicle back for another week. More miles have been put on the vehicle returning it to the place that I came to get it - I'm afraid of the vehicle. I do not trust it and I wish I could get rid of this $500.00 a month burden. My 86 Toyota Cressida is 50,000 miles.
