To whom it may concern!

On March 9, 2000, I put my 91 Plymouth in shop at Ruston Chrysler, for my Anti Brake Locker, they check it out and call me that same afternoon. They told me the problem I was have was a recall problem. And would to get the part. My Van was in the shop for two weeks or more. But for same problem my 91 Plymouth at Ruston Chrysler 4 times for the same thing that when I begin call to what can I do. So the fifth times I didn't call Ruston Chrysler, was was upset and nervous because it was doing it again. One times I hit the ditch to keep ^{me} and my two grandchildren from getting hurt. because that light come on there is NO brakes. I have to have a Wrecker to come and pull me out. So I couldn't take any more of this. I trade it in for another Van. I have been talk to a lawyer about this problem. So I would like to know could I carry this to a small Claim Court? While my Plymouth was in the shop, I had to rent me a car twice out of my pocket. And Chrysler Corp.

paid twice. And it should be Chrysler Corp. paying all 4 times because they was still working on a recall problem.
when I trade my 91 Plymouth I told the dealer skip the problem I was having for they could check the problem out.
I hope I can get some help for all the headache & money I was out of.

Thanks,
