My grandson & I just left the store immediately after turning onto the street he called to me in a fearful voice & I was something was wrong. I glanced back at him & saw the deadliest grin on his face. I tried to reassure him I'd handle across his neck. I tried to reassure him I'd handle him right back later. The parking lot I tried to secure myself to make the car not hit unnecessarily - not able to get to get any place in it - I was only barely minutes from the police station as I showed him how to face the best away from his throat - I don't waste to get the police officer who was also unsuccessful in hearing the lie I put the belt away from his throat because it was the object they do at that point.
