Hello Bill-san

Thank you for your reply.

Regarding the stop sales date,
Is it same day PPO and dealer for stopping sales on 15 September?
If there are deferent date, please let us know each date.

Could you let us know below issue?

1. How many AWM do you sales for ES350 and Camry by stop sales.
2. When did Thermoflex start to product AWM for ES350 and Camry and stop to product.
3. Are there correct Parts number AWM ? PT908-21051 and PT908-33071
(Revised letters) for ES350 PT908-32070
for Camry

Frank-san,

The stop sale communication for ES 350 and Camry All Weather Mats will be in effect today. There is no good way to establish a vin # because there are too many installation locations and dealers that have inventory. I think the most accurate we can be is to establish a processing date for each location. I will continue to investigate our ability to establish a vin #.
