TITLE	Partial Response to NHTSA's IR Regarding DP06-003: A Defect Petition Regarding Camry Engine Surge/Electronic Throttle Control	Originated: C. Santucci Reviewed: K. Ro Approved: C. Tinto K. Ogata

Summary:

On December 8, TMA submitted the attached partial response to the Information Request (IR) letter regarding the defect petition NHTSA is currently reviewing about Camry engine surging. The complete response will be submitted on December 20. In this response everything is submitted except for the test reports conducted on the petitioner's throttle body. A defect petition is a petition heard by NHTSA wherein a member of the public asks NHTSA to open a defect investigation. NHTSA issued the IR as part of their review of the merits of the petition.
