RE: 10V-372

Dear Mr. Smith:

This concerns Nissan campaign number 10V-372. Nissan is conducting a recall campaign in the United States and in Canada. Because Nissan has submitted the attached Part 573 report, Nissan need not submit a Part 579 report for the same issue (49 CFR §579.11(d)(1)).

No Suzuki vehicles are affected domestically or abroad. However, because the 2009-2010 Suzuki Equator is substantially similar to the vehicles affected by this campaign, Suzuki is submitting this report pursuant to §579.11(a).

1. Name of Manufacturer

Nissan North America, Inc.

2. Identification of Motor Vehicles Potentially Involved

Please see Item 2 in the attached noncompliance information report.

No Suzuki vehicles are affected domestically or abroad.

3. Total Number of Motor Vehicles Involved

Please see Item 3 in the attached noncompliance information report.

Approximately 39 Nissan vehicles in Canada are also affected.

4. Description of Noncompliance

Please see Item 5 in the attached noncompliance information report.

5. Identification of Campaign Initiator, Campaign Type, and Program for Remediating Noncompliance

Nissan is initiating a recall campaign in the United States and in Canada. The NHTSA campaign ID # is 10V-372. Please see Item 7 in the attached noncompliance information report for a description of the corrective action.

6. Identification of Determination Date, Foreign Countries Involved, and Campaign Commencement Dates

Please see the attached noncompliance information report. Please contact Nissan for additional information.

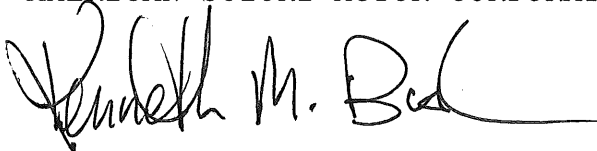

7. Identification of "Substantially Similar"<sup>1</sup> Vehicles Sold or Offered for Sale in the U.S.

2009-2010 Suzuki Equator.

Note: The reported issue does not affect Suzuki Equator vehicles sold in the U.S. or abroad.

Sincerely,

AMERICAN SUZUKI MOTOR CORPORATION

Kenneth M. Bush
Associate Director
Government Relations
