Description of Issue

MBAG has determined that on certain CLA (118 platform) and A-Class (177 platform) vehicles, due to a production deviation at a supplier, the equipped tires might not meet the load requirements.

In this case, the tire carcass may become damaged while driving. As a result, the tire could lose air pressure or the tire tread could detach partially or completely. The risk of a crash or injury could be increased. Furthermore, local regulatory requirements might not be met.

Description of Foreign Campaign

MBAG will notify the appropriate authorities in the affected countries that it will initiate a voluntary safety recall on the subject vehicles on June 2, 2023. The campaign will be conducted in Australia, Belgium, Brazil, Bulgaria, Denmark, Germany, Finland, France, Greece, Great Britain, Hong Kong, Italy, Japan, New Zealand, Netherlands, Poland, Portugal, Sweden, Spain, and Czech Republic, which is expected to begin on June 23, 2023. The tires of the affected vehicles will be checked and replaced, if necessary.

Identification of Substantially Similar Vehicles Sold or Offered for Sale in the United States

The following vehicles sold in the U.S. fall under the definition of "substantially similar": Mercedes-Benz CLA (118 platform), A-Class (177 platform), GLA and GLB (247 platform) vehicles. None of the affected vehicles were offered for sale or lease in the US.
