ELBERT SUPERIOR COURT

CASE NO.: 03EV58J

COMPLAINT FOR DAMAGES

COMES NOW Plaintiffs in the above-styled action who by and through their undersigned Attorneys at Law file this their Complaint for Damages against Claude Ray Ford Sales, Inc., hereinafter "Claude Ray", Ford Motor Company hereinafter "Ford", Texas Instruments, Inc., hereinafter "TI" and E.I. Du Pont De Nemours and Company hereinafter "Du Pont" as Defendants and in support thereof shows the Court as follows:

1.

Plaintiffs are residents of Madison County, Georgia and are subject to the jurisdiction of this Court.

2.

Defendant, Claude Ray, is a for profit corporation operating in the State of Georgia with its principle place of business in Elbert County, Georgia. Claude Ray is subject to the jurisdiction of this Court and may be served with process by serving its registered agent Claude E. Ray, III, 223 Elbert St., Elbert County, Elberton, Georgia 30635.

3.

Ford is a non-resident, for profit corporation subject to the jurisdiction of this Court pursuant to O.C.G.A. § 9-10-91. Service of process may be perfected upon Ford by serving its registered agent, Corporation Process Company, process at 180 Cherokee St., N.E., Cobb County, Marietta, GA 30060.

4.

TI is a non-resident, for profit corporation subject to the jurisdiction of this Court pursuant to O.C.G.A. § 9-10-91. Service of process may be perfected upon TI by serving its registered agent, Corporation Process Company, process at 180 Cherokee St., NE, Cobb County, Marietta, GA 30060.

5.

Du Pont is a non-resident for profit corporation subject to the jurisdiction of this Court pursuant to of O.C.G.A. § 9-10-91. Service of process may be perfected upon Du Pont by serving its registered agent, C.T. Corporation System, process at 1201 Peachtree St., NE, Fulton County, Atlanta, GA 30361.

6.

Defendants Ford, Du Pont, and TI are subject to the jurisdiction of this Court and venue is proper in this Court due to the residency of a co-defendant in tort action for which all of the parties are jointly and severally liable.

7.

On or about April 17, 1996 the Plaintiffs purchased a 1993 Lincoln Towncar Executive VIN 1LNLM81W9PY709035 manufactured and designed by Ford. The vehicle was equipped with a defective speed control deactivation switch designed, manufactured and marketed by TI which utilized components manufactured by Du Pont known as "KAPTON®". The vehicle was purchased from Claude Ray.

On or about the 17th day of March, 2002, a fire started in the vehicle originating in the speed control switch at a time when the vehicle was not in operation. The vehicle had not been in operation for a considerable period of time and was parked in a garage or other structure attached to the Plaintiff's house or in close proximity to the Plaintiff's residence. At the time of the fire, the Plaintiffs were asleep in their bedroom in the house and were unaware of the fire for a considerable period of time. Sometime subsequent to the start of the fire, Plaintiff [REDACTED] [REDACTED] awoke and began investigating some sounds when he came to the door which led to the area where the vehicle was parked. Continuing his investigation and not knowing of the fire on the other side of the door, the Plaintiff proceeded to exit the house through the door, at which time he was overwhelmed, overcome and consumed by the smoke and heat generated by the fire. At this time the fire had become involved with the structural elements of the Plaintiff's house. Notwithstanding his own personal injuries the Plaintiff was able to get himself and his wife out of the house where they watched the total destruction of their home. As a result of the fire caused by the vehicle, the Plaintiffs' house was completely destroyed. In addition therefore Plaintiffs lost virtually all of their personal possessions, being able to salvage only a small percentage.

Additionally, Plaintiff [REDACTED] received certain personal injuries including but not limited to permanent scarring from the burns he suffered as a result of the fire, as well as additional injuries, pain and complications from which he continues to suffer. [REDACTED] suffered extreme emotional distress upon discovering the danger presented by the fire as well as immediate injury suffered by her husband. Plaintiff, [REDACTED] also suffered certain physical, emotional, and mental injury causing her continued pain and suffering.

Plaintiffs show that the Defendants were jointly and severally negligent in that they manufactured a defective product and put that product into the stream of commerce. The defect and the failure of the product manufactured by the Defendants were the proximate causes of the Plaintiffs' injuries. Plaintiffs show that the Defendants, both individually or in concert, knew or reasonably should have known of the defect in the product, the foreseeable failure of which was the proximate cause of all of the Plaintiffs' injuries.

As to individual Defendants, Plaintiffs show that Claude Ray was negligent and its negligence was the proximate cause of the Plaintiffs' damages in that it:

(1) sold a defective product to the Plaintiffs and failed to notify them of such defect in its vehicle when it knew or should have known of the defect;

(2) failed to remedy in a timely manner the defective condition despite the fact that the opportunity presented itself on numerous occasions when the vehicle was at its premises for service;

(3) failed to properly notify Plaintiffs in a timely manner of the need to have the defect corrected;

(4) failed to provide notice of the defect to the Defendants notwithstanding their knowledge as to Plaintiff's ownership of the vehicle;

(5) failed to warn or otherwise advise the Plaintiffs as to the potential danger of parking the vehicle in a garage, a carport connected to a house, or otherwise near a residence or other item which may be capable of catching fire;

(6) and negligently acted in other respects as may be shown at the trial of the case.

As to Defendants Ford, TI, and Dupont, Plaintiffs show that they were negligent and that such negligence was the proximate cause of Plaintiffs' damages in that they:

(1) failed to properly notify the Plaintiffs in a timely manner of the defective condition of their vehicle;

(2) failed to remedy the defective condition;

(3) failed to prevent the defective condition from being incorporated into vehicles it manufactured;

(4) failed to advise local Ford dealerships of the necessity to remedy the defective condition and/or to warn their customers of the potential for fire in the vehicles due to the defective condition;

(5) failed to establish a system so as to identify and locate customers such as Plaintiffs who owned defective vehicles;

(6) failed to advise or take steps to advise Plaintiffs not to park the automobile in a garage or in a carport or near any other items capable of catching fire;

(7) failed to adequately investigate fires occurring in vehicles in the same line as the Plaintiffs', which included fires of similar cause and origin as the one in question;

(8) failed to institute a timely or effective vehicle recall campaign so as to correct the defective condition in the vehicle in question;

(19) failed to advise Ford and/or Du Pont and/or Plaintiffs that "KAPTON®" failures had occurred in other similarly designed pressure switches;

(20) supplied and/or distributed defective components for installation in vehicles such as Plaintiffs without correcting such defects;

(21) failed to design and manufacture the switch with electrical components which would not corrode and cause an electrical short and fire;

(22) and negligently acted in other respects as may be shown by the discovery or at trial.

Plaintiffs further show that their damages, injuries and losses were proximately caused, in addition to the negligence of the Defendants, by the gross negligence of the Defendants. Plaintiffs show that such gross negligence on the part of the Defendants and other acts of Defendants were committed by Defendants with an entire want of care which raises the presumption of a conscious indifference to the consequences of their acts. As a result of such gross negligence and the an entire want of care on the part of the Defendants, Plaintiffs show that they are entitled to punitive damages from the Defendants, jointly and severally, as contemplated by O.C.G.A. § 51-12-5.1, so as to penalize and punish the Defendants for their conduct as well as to deter the Defendants from acting in such a manner in the future.

Plaintiffs show as a direct and proximate result of the negligence and/or gross negligence of the Defendants, they suffered property damages, which include among other things, the total destruction of their home, the total destruction of their vehicle, the total loss of the vast majority of the contents of their home, the loss of use of their home and vehicle, the loss of income the exact amount of which will be shown more fully at the trial of the case, the costs to repair or replace their property as well as mental anguish, emotional distress, and any other consequential damages which were reasonably foreseeable as a result of the negligence and/or gross negligence of the Defendants. More significantly, Plaintiffs show that they suffered personal injury as a result of the negligence and/or gross negligence of the Defendants for which they are entitled to compensation.

Plaintiffs show that they should be awarded punitive damages in the above-referenced matter due to the gross negligence and/or negligence of the Defendants which shows an entire want of care on the part of the Defendants which evidences and illustrates a conscious indifference to the consequences of their acts. Plaintiffs further show that they are entitled reasonable and necessary attorney's fees, costs of litigation and costs of court as a result of having to bring this action. Plaintiffs show that they have suffered special damages for which they are entitled to compensation in such an amount as may be shown at the trial of the case.

WHEREFORE Plaintiffs pray:

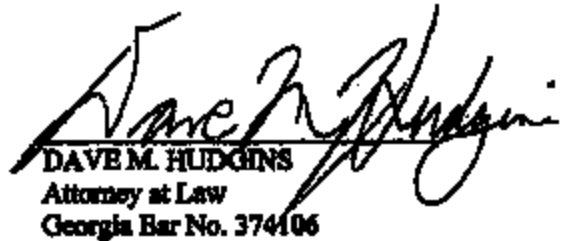

- (a) That Defendants be served with process as provided by law;
- (b) That Plaintiffs have judgment against the Defendants, jointly and severally, for their damages as provided by law in such amounts as may be determined by the enlightened conscious of a jury;
- (c) That Plaintiffs have judgment against the Defendants, jointly and severally, for punitive damages as provided by law in such amount as may be determined by the enlightened conscious of a jury;
- (d) That Plaintiffs be awarded reasonable attorney's fees and expenses as a result of prosecuting this action; and

(e) That Plaintiffs have such other and further relief as the Court may deem appropriate.

Respectfully submitted this 5th day of Feb., 2003.
