Dear [REDACTED]

This is in regard to our investigation of the subject vehicle by a representative of Engineering Analysis Associates.

When an insurance company has paid a claim, the rights of recovery rest with them. Should they feel there is a manufacturing responsibility with regard to their loss, they may subrogate, which would include your deductible.

Thank you for allowing us to review this with you.

Sincerely,

A. L. Gilbert

RE: CAIR 10804804

Contacted Kenneth Wells of Wells Motor Company. He states that the owner has already had the vehicle repaired at an independent body shop. Cost of repair was $914.90, which was covered by the insurance company except for $272.77 for which the owner is seeking reimbursement. No one at the dealership inspected the owner's claim of a missing secondary hood latch.

CAIR closed per your direction.
