Dear Mr. Emerson:

This letter responds to your February 16, 2011 request for confidential treatment for Dorel Juvenile Group (DJG) information submitted in response to the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration in the above-referenced matter. You request confidential treatment for the highlighted portions of pages marked "Page Contains Confidential Business Information (Highlighted)" and entire pages marked "Entire Page Confidential Business Information." You request that these materials be granted confidential treatment indefinitely.

DJG submitted this information voluntarily. Accordingly, I reviewed your claim for confidential treatment under the test set forth in Critical Mass Energy Project v. NRC, 975 F.2d 871 (D.C. Cir. 1992). Under the test set forth in Critical Mass, financial or commercial information provided to the government on a voluntary basis is "confidential" for purposes of Exemption 4 of the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(4)) if it is the kind of information that would customarily not be released to the public by the submitter. Your request indicates that the information contained in the materials you submitted is information that Toyota would not customarily release to the public. Review of the information indicates that it is not publicly available. Accordingly, I am granting your request for confidential treatment to the pages and portions of pages described above.

Subject to the conditions described below, this grant will remain in effect indefinitely.

This grant of confidential treatment is subject to certain conditions.
