To whom it may concern,

Regarding Ricon recall #08E-046, 6 way power seat base. Reference ID# EQ10-001.

We are a Ricon dealer and over the last two years have not sold parts related to the seat base. Our records systems goes back two years, however we did check in our archives finding 2 customers that purchased parts in 2006-2007.

We have contacted Ricon several times to determine how to proceed, getting no response. We will be notifying the 2 customers via mail regarding the possible recall and also to have them contact Ricon directly with regard to this recall. We will also continue to attempt contact with Ricon.

Regards,

Steve Dzuik
