Dear Mr. Person,

I am in receipt of your letter dated June 17, 2010. I thought that I had handled this issue through email correspondences with Alex Ansley. Apparently, I was mistaken, and it must be done on our letterhead, versus email. Please accept this letter in that regard.

Our company has purchased very few seats manufactured by IMMI. In addition, we have done so for resale as opposed to installation into new vehicles. In fact, our company is a distributor of new vehicles and parts as opposed to a manufacturer, as your original letter indicates.

As to whom these seats may have been sold to, I would need further information (date of sale, run number, etc.) from IMMI to determine whom they may have gone to.

Sincerely,

George H. "Bucky" Law, Jr.
