Re: Confidentiality Determination / EA11-001.03

Dear Mr. Dillon:

This responds to your October 14, 2011 request for confidential treatment for Chrysler Group, LLC (Chrysler) information submitted in response to a request from the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration's Office of Defects Investigation (ODI). Specifically, Chrysler requests confidential treatment for its customer complaint data, warranty data, and engineering standards. Chrysler requests permanent confidential treatment for this information.

Your request is granted.

I have reviewed your submission, including the materials that you claim are entitled to confidential treatment and the arguments that you assert in support of your claims. While I have not reached a conclusion regarding each individual argument that you assert, I conclude that these materials for which you requested confidentiality are entitled to confidential treatment pursuant to Exemption 4 of the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. §552(b)(4).

This grant of confidential treatment is subject to certain conditions. The information may be disclosed under 49 CFR § 512.22 based upon newly discovered or changed facts, and you must inform the agency of any changed circumstances that may affect the protection of the information (49 CFR § 512.10). If necessary, you will be notified prior to the release of any information under the procedures established by our regulations (49 CFR § 512.22(b)). Furthermore, this information may be disclosed if such disclosure would be in the public interest, pursuant to the procedures established in 49 C.F.R. § 512.23.

Sincerely,

Original Signed By
