Re: Confidentiality Determination — Corrosion Data/EA12-005

Dear Ms. Kolodge:

This responds to the June 15, 2013 request for confidential treatment for information submitted by Chrysler Group LLC (Chrysler) to the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration in the above-referenced investigation. The materials at issue relate to corrosion testing and surveys performed on certain Jeep vehicles. Your request seeks confidential treatment for the entire document and requests that the document be granted confidential treatment permanently.

I am granting your request.

Chrysler was not required to submit this information by any formal agency request or regulatory requirement. I have therefore determined that Chrysler provided this information voluntarily. Accordingly, I have reviewed your request under the principles set forth in Critical Mass Energy Project v. Nuclear Regulatory Comm'n, 975 F.2d 871 (D.C.Cir.1992).

Under the test set forth in Critical Mass, financial or commercial information provided to the government on a voluntary basis is "confidential" for purposes of Exemption 4 if it is the kind of information that would customarily not be released to the public by the submitter. Your letter indicates that the data contained in your response is data that would not be customarily release to the public. Examination of the materials for which Chrysler requests confidential treatment indicates that the information is not otherwise publicly available. Accordingly, I am according confidential treatment to the information contained in your submission.

This grant of confidential treatment is subject to certain conditions. The information may be disclosed under 49 CFR § 512.22 based upon newly discovered or changed facts, and you must inform the agency of any changed circumstances that may affect the protection of the information (49 CFR § 512.10)). If necessary, you will be notified prior to the release of any information under the procedures established by our regulations (49 CFR § 512.22(b)). Furthermore, this information may be disclosed if such disclosure would be in the public interest, pursuant to the procedures established in 49 CFR 512.23.

Sincerely,

Original Signed By
