A photograph of a worn, dark grey car floor mat. The mat has a textured, ribbed section on the left side. A small white rectangular label is stuck to the center of the mat. At the bottom center, there is a black rectangular patch with the word "Jeep" written in white. A bundle of yellow wires is visible at the top of the frame. The mat is placed on a dark surface, likely the car's floor. The date "07/23/2012" is printed in yellow in the bottom right corner.

A close-up photograph of a grey, textured floor mat in a vehicle's interior. The mat is positioned in the driver's footwell area, with a white airbag cover visible on the left and a grey plastic component on the right. A black rectangular label with the word "Jeep" in white is affixed to the bottom edge of the mat. A yellow timestamp "07/23/2012" is overlaid in the bottom right corner. The mat shows some signs of wear and small debris.

A photograph taken from the perspective of someone looking up at the underside of a vehicle that is elevated on a yellow hydraulic lift. The vehicle's chassis, including the frame, suspension components, and exhaust system, is visible. The lift arms are yellow and extend from the bottom of the frame. In the background, a parking lot is filled with various vehicles, including several white pickup trucks and a blue car. The scene is brightly lit, suggesting an outdoor setting during the day.
