Alex,

Good afternoon. I am writing you today in response to a certified letter addressed to the President of Newmar Corporation from Jennifer Timian dated July 23rd, 2012 and received by Newmar Corporation on July 26th, 2012. The letter inquires about a Newmar response to an earlier NHTSA query regarding a certain Sure Power Inc. recall 11E-045. A review of Newmar's Purchasing, Accounting and Engineering records has not turned up any record of the company Sure Power Inc. or their battery separator products. Newmar Corporation does not have any known business relationship with Sure Power and we are not aware of having purchased any Sure Power products. We have not received any known communication from Sure Power regarding this recall of their product and we do not recognize the battery separator that is the subject of this recall as having been used in any Newmar products. Therefore, no further action is anticipated or perceived to be required by Newmar Corporation in this matter. Thank you

Ron Stichter
V.P. of Engineering
