Dear Jennifer Timian:

We are drafting this letter in response to investigation EQ12-007. We received this recall on July 30, 2012 and have begun investigating the trailers manufactured with possible defective wheels bought from Carlisle Transportation Products.

McClain Trailers, Inc. purchased the 910 Intruder and 921 Intrepid models from Carlisle during the period of December 2010 to January 2012. The initial list is complete and attached as to the original owners of units that have possibly received these defective wheels. Letters will be mailed certified to all of the dealers by 8/9/2012 to notify them of the possible defects. We will begin pulling all warranty registrations by 8/9/2012 to locate and notify all of the sold units that have been delivered from the original dealer and will be initiating a re-call letter no later than 8/14/2012 to be completed by 8/16/2012.

Sincerely,

James McClain
