U.S. Department
of Transportation
National Highway
Traffic Safety
Administration

1200 New Jersey Avenue SE
Washington, DC 20590

Via USPS Certified Mail

January 30, 2014

Alaskan Campers
ATTN: Materials Manager
420 NE Alaskan Way
Chehalis, WA 98532

NVS-215cg
EQ 13-006
13E-039
13E-053

Subject: Second Request for Information – Response Required

Dear Materials Manager:

On November 19, 2013, we wrote to Alaskan Campers as part of an ongoing investigation being conducted by the Office of Defect Investigations (ODI) at the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) concerning a safety issue involving 93 travel trailer door locks that were sold by Emmett Door Inc. to your company for possible installation into motor vehicles, including recreational vehicles. Your company's response to that letter was due to NHTSA within 10 days of receipt. At this time, we have not received your response.

This letter is being sent in order to remind Alaskan Campers that it must respond to the earlier letter and that your company may have additional obligations under Federal law as we explained in the earlier letter.

A written response to our earlier letter must be submitted to this office within 7 days of your receipt of this letter. Response submission may be made by US Mail to the address listed therein or by e-mail to rmd.odi@dot.gov and cynthia.glass@dot.gov. In your response, please be certain to include a reference to this matter's identification number, EQ 13-006.

If Alaskan Campers claims that any of the information or documents provided in response to this information request constitute confidential commercial material within the meaning of 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(4), or are protected from disclosure pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 1905, your company must submit supporting information together with the materials that are the subject of the confidentiality request, in accordance with 49 CFR Part 512, as amended (69 Fed. Reg. 21409 et seq; April 21, 2004), to the Office of Chief Counsel (NCC-111), National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, Room W41-227, 1200 New Jersey Avenue, S.E., Washington, D.C. 20590. Your company is required to submit two copies of the documents containing allegedly confidential information (except only one copy of blueprints) and one copy of the documents from which information claimed to be confidential has been deleted. Please remember that the word "CONFIDENTIAL" must appear at the top of each page containing information claimed to be confidential, and the information must be clearly identified in accordance with 5 U.S.C. § 512.6.

This letter is being sent to your company pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30166, which authorizes NHTSA to conduct any investigation that may be necessary to enforce Chapter 301 of Title 49. Your company's failure to respond promptly and fully to this letter could subject your company to civil penalties pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30165 or lead to an action for injunctive relief pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30163. Section 5(a) of the TREAD Act, codified at 49 U.S.C. § 30165(b), provides for civil penalties of up to $6,000 per day, with a maximum of $17,350,000 for a related series of violations, or for failing or refusing to perform an act required under 49 U.S.C. § 30166. See 49 CFR 578.6 (as amended by 75 Fed. Reg. 79978 (Dec. 21, 2010)). This includes failing to respond to ODI information requests.

I urge Alaskan Campers to comply with this information request in order to ensure that these important issues relating to motor vehicle safety are promptly addressed, and in order to avoid potential enforcement action against your company in addition to substantial penalties for failure to respond to an inquiry issued during an official investigation.

Should you have any questions regarding this inquiry, please contact Cynthia Glass of my staff at (202) 366-2920 or by e-mail at cynthia.glass@dot.gov.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Timian
Chief, Recall Management Division
Office of Defects Investigation
Enforcement

U.S. Department
of Transportation
National Highway
Traffic Safety
Administration

1200 New Jersey Avenue SE
Washington, DC 20590

Via USPS Certified Mail

January 30, 2014

Berg Manufacturing
ATTN: Rick Valente
16124 E Euclid Avenue
Spokane, WA 99216

NVS-215cg
EQ 13-006
13E-039
13E-053

Subject: Second Request for Information – Response Required

Dear Rick Valente:

On November 19, 2013, we wrote to Berg Manufacturing as part of an ongoing investigation being conducted by the Office of Defect Investigations (ODI) at the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) concerning a safety issue involving 685 travel trailer door locks that were sold by Emmett Door Inc. to your company for possible installation into motor vehicles, including recreational vehicles. Your company's response to that letter was due to NHTSA within 10 days of receipt. At this time, we have not received your response.

This letter is being sent in order to remind Berg Manufacturing that it must respond to the earlier letter and that your company may have additional obligations under Federal law as we explained in the earlier letter.

A written response to our earlier letter must be submitted to this office within 7 days of your receipt of this letter. Response submission may be made by US Mail to the address listed therein or by e-mail to rmd.odi@dot.gov and cynthia.glass@dot.gov. In your response, please be certain to include a reference to this matter's identification number, EQ 13-006.

If Berg Manufacturing claims that any of the information or documents provided in response to this information request constitute confidential commercial material within the meaning of 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(4), or are protected from disclosure pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 1905, your company must submit supporting information together with the materials that are the subject of the confidentiality request, in accordance with 49 CFR Part 512, as amended (69 Fed. Reg. 21409 et seq; April 21, 2004), to the Office of Chief Counsel (NCC-111), National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, Room W41-227, 1200 New Jersey Avenue, S.E., Washington, D.C. 20590. Your company is required to submit two copies of the documents containing allegedly confidential information (except only one copy of blueprints) and one copy of the documents from which information claimed to be confidential has been deleted. Please remember that the word "CONFIDENTIAL" must appear at the top of each page containing information claimed to be confidential, and the information must be clearly identified in accordance with 5 U.S.C. § 512.6.

This letter is being sent to your company pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30166, which authorizes NHTSA to conduct any investigation that may be necessary to enforce Chapter 301 of Title 49. Your company's failure to respond promptly and fully to this letter could subject your company to civil penalties pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30165 or lead to an action for injunctive relief pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30163. Section 5(a) of the TREAD Act, codified at 49 U.S.C. § 30165(b), provides for civil penalties of up to $6,000 per day, with a maximum of $17,350,000 for a related series of violations, or for failing or refusing to perform an act required under 49 U.S.C. § 30166. See 49 CFR 578.6 (as amended by 75 Fed. Reg. 79978 (Dec. 21, 2010)). This includes failing to respond to ODI information requests.

I urge Berg Manufacturing to comply with this information request in order to ensure that these important issues relating to motor vehicle safety are promptly addressed, and in order to avoid potential enforcement action against your company in addition to substantial penalties for failure to respond to an inquiry issued during an official investigation.

Should you have any questions regarding this inquiry, please contact Cynthia Glass of my staff at (202) 366-2920 or by e-mail at cynthia.glass@dot.gov.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Timian
Chief, Recall Management Division
Office of Defects Investigation
Enforcement

U.S. Department
of Transportation
National Highway
Traffic Safety
Administration

1200 New Jersey Avenue SE
Washington, DC 20590

Via USPS Certified Mail

January 30, 2014

Blake Trailers Inc.
ATTN: Materials Manager
PO Box 57
Star, ID 83669-0057

NVS-215cg
EQ 13-006
13E-039
13E-053

Subject: Second Request for Information – Response Required

Dear Materials Manager:

On November 19, 2013, we wrote to Blake Trailers Inc. as part of an ongoing investigation being conducted by the Office of Defect Investigations (ODI) at the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) concerning a safety issue involving 9 travel trailer door locks that were sold by Emmett Door Inc. to your company for possible installation into motor vehicles, including recreational vehicles. Your company's response to that letter was due to NHTSA within 10 days of receipt. At this time, we have not received your response.

This letter is being sent in order to remind Blake Trailers Inc. that it must respond to the earlier letter and that your company may have additional obligations under Federal law as we explained in the earlier letter.

A written response to our earlier letter must be submitted to this office within 7 days of your receipt of this letter. Response submission may be made by US Mail to the address listed therein or by e-mail to rmd.odi@dot.gov and cynthia.glass@dot.gov. In your response, please be certain to include a reference to this matter's identification number, EQ 13-006.

If Blake Trailers Inc. claims that any of the information or documents provided in response to this information request constitute confidential commercial material within the meaning of 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(4), or are protected from disclosure pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 1905, your company must submit supporting information together with the materials that are the subject of the confidentiality request, in accordance with 49 CFR Part 512, as amended (69 Fed. Reg. 21409 et seq; April 21, 2004), to the Office of Chief Counsel (NCC-111), National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, Room W41-227, 1200 New Jersey Avenue, S.E., Washington, D.C. 20590. Your company is required to submit two copies of the documents containing allegedly confidential information (except only one copy of blueprints) and one copy of the documents from which information claimed to be confidential has been deleted. Please remember that the word "CONFIDENTIAL" must appear at the top of each page containing information claimed to be confidential, and the information must be clearly identified in accordance with 5 U.S.C. § 512.6.

This letter is being sent to your company pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30166, which authorizes NHTSA to conduct any investigation that may be necessary to enforce Chapter 301 of Title 49. Your company's failure to respond promptly and fully to this letter could subject your company to civil penalties pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30165 or lead to an action for injunctive relief pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30163. Section 5(a) of the TREAD Act, codified at 49 U.S.C. § 30165(b), provides for civil penalties of up to $6,000 per day, with a maximum of $17,350,000 for a related series of violations, or for failing or refusing to perform an act required under 49 U.S.C. § 30166. See 49 CFR 578.6 (as amended by 75 Fed. Reg. 79978 (Dec. 21, 2010)). This includes failing to respond to ODI information requests.

I urge Blake Trailers Inc. to comply with this information request in order to ensure that these important issues relating to motor vehicle safety are promptly addressed, and in order to avoid potential enforcement action against your company in addition to substantial penalties for failure to respond to an inquiry issued during an official investigation.

Should you have any questions regarding this inquiry, please contact Cynthia Glass of my staff at (202) 366-2920 or by e-mail at cynthia.glass@dot.gov.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Timian
Chief, Recall Management Division
Office of Defects Investigation
Enforcement

U.S. Department
of Transportation
National Highway
Traffic Safety
Administration

1200 New Jersey Avenue SE
Washington, DC 20590

Via USPS Certified Mail

January 30, 2014

Boise Valley Recreational Vehicles
ATTN: Dave Duncan
100 E 43rd Street
Boise, ID 83714

NVS-215cg
EQ 13-006
13E-039
13E-053

Subject: Second Request for Information – Response Required

Dear Dave Duncan:

On November 19, 2013, we wrote to Boise Valley Recreational Vehicles as part of an ongoing investigation being conducted by the Office of Defect Investigations (ODI) at the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) concerning a safety issue involving 6 travel trailer door locks that were sold by Emmett Door Inc. to your company for possible installation into motor vehicles, including recreational vehicles. Your company's response to that letter was due to NHTSA within 10 days of receipt. At this time, we have not received your response.

This letter is being sent in order to remind Boise Valley Recreational Vehicles that it must respond to the earlier letter and that your company may have additional obligations under Federal law as we explained in the earlier letter.

A written response to our earlier letter must be submitted to this office within 7 days of your receipt of this letter. Response submission may be made by US Mail to the address listed therein or by e-mail to rmd.odi@dot.gov and cynthia.glass@dot.gov. In your response, please be certain to include a reference to this matter's identification number, EQ 13-006.

If Boise Valley Recreational Vehicles claims that any of the information or documents provided in response to this information request constitute confidential commercial material within the meaning of 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(4), or are protected from disclosure pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 1905, your company must submit supporting information together with the materials that are the subject of the confidentiality request, in accordance with 49 CFR Part 512, as amended (69 Fed. Reg. 21409 et seq; April 21, 2004), to the Office of Chief Counsel (NCC-111), National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, Room W41-227, 1200 New Jersey Avenue, S.E., Washington, D.C. 20590. Your company is required to submit two copies of the documents containing allegedly confidential information (except only one copy of blueprints) and one copy of the documents from which information claimed to be confidential has been deleted. Please remember that the word "CONFIDENTIAL" must appear at the top of each page containing information claimed to be confidential, and the information must be clearly identified in accordance with 5 U.S.C. § 512.6.

This letter is being sent to your company pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30166, which authorizes NHTSA to conduct any investigation that may be necessary to enforce Chapter 301 of Title 49. Your company's failure to respond promptly and fully to this letter could subject your company to civil penalties pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30165 or lead to an action for injunctive relief pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30163. Section 5(a) of the TREAD Act, codified at 49 U.S.C. § 30165(b), provides for civil penalties of up to $6,000 per day, with a maximum of $17,350,000 for a related series of violations, or for failing or refusing to perform an act required under 49 U.S.C. § 30166. See 49 CFR 578.6 (as amended by 75 Fed. Reg. 79978 (Dec. 21, 2010)). This includes failing to respond to ODI information requests.

I urge Boise Valley Recreational Vehicles to comply with this information request in order to ensure that these important issues relating to motor vehicle safety are promptly addressed, and in order to avoid potential enforcement action against your company in addition to substantial penalties for failure to respond to an inquiry issued during an official investigation.

Should you have any questions regarding this inquiry, please contact Cynthia Glass of my staff at (202) 366-2920 or by e-mail at cynthia.glass@dot.gov.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Timian
Chief, Recall Management Division
Office of Defects Investigation
Enforcement

U.S. Department
of Transportation
National Highway
Traffic Safety
Administration

1200 New Jersey Avenue SE
Washington, DC 20590

Via USPS Certified Mail

January 30, 2014

Curtis Trailers
ATTN: Rick Humphrey
10177 SE Powell Blvd
Portland, OR 97266

NVS-215cg
EQ 13-006
13E-039
13E-053

Subject: Second Request for Information – Response Required

Dear Rick Humphrey:

On November 19, 2013, we wrote to Curtis Trailers as part of an ongoing investigation being conducted by the Office of Defect Investigations (ODI) at the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) concerning a safety issue involving 11 travel trailer door locks that were sold by Emmett Door Inc. to your company for possible installation into motor vehicles, including recreational vehicles. Your company's response to that letter was due to NHTSA within 10 days of receipt. At this time, we have not received your response.

This letter is being sent in order to remind Curtis Trailers that it must respond to the earlier letter and that your company may have additional obligations under Federal law as we explained in the earlier letter.

A written response to our earlier letter must be submitted to this office within 7 days of your receipt of this letter. Response submission may be made by US Mail to the address listed therein or by e-mail to rmd.odi@dot.gov and cynthia.glass@dot.gov. In your response, please be certain to include a reference to this matter's identification number, EQ 13-006.

If Curtis Trailers claims that any of the information or documents provided in response to this information request constitute confidential commercial material within the meaning of 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(4), or are protected from disclosure pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 1905, your company must submit supporting information together with the materials that are the subject of the confidentiality request, in accordance with 49 CFR Part 512, as amended (69 Fed. Reg. 21409 et seq; April 21, 2004), to the Office of Chief Counsel (NCC-111), National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, Room W41-227, 1200 New Jersey Avenue, S.E., Washington, D.C. 20590. Your company is required to submit two copies of the documents containing allegedly confidential information (except only one copy of blueprints) and one copy of the documents from which information claimed to be confidential has been deleted. Please remember that the word "CONFIDENTIAL" must appear at the top of each page containing information claimed to be confidential, and the information must be clearly identified in accordance with 5 U.S.C. § 512.6.

This letter is being sent to your company pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30166, which authorizes NHTSA to conduct any investigation that may be necessary to enforce Chapter 301 of Title 49. Your company's failure to respond promptly and fully to this letter could subject your company to civil penalties pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30165 or lead to an action for injunctive relief pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30163. Section 5(a) of the TREAD Act, codified at 49 U.S.C. § 30165(b), provides for civil penalties of up to $6,000 per day, with a maximum of $17,350,000 for a related series of violations, or for failing or refusing to perform an act required under 49 U.S.C. § 30166. See 49 CFR 578.6 (as amended by 75 Fed. Reg. 79978 (Dec. 21, 2010)). This includes failing to respond to ODI information requests.

I urge Curtis Trailers to comply with this information request in order to ensure that these important issues relating to motor vehicle safety are promptly addressed, and in order to avoid potential enforcement action against your company in addition to substantial penalties for failure to respond to an inquiry issued during an official investigation.

Should you have any questions regarding this inquiry, please contact Cynthia Glass of my staff at (202) 366-2920 or by e-mail at cynthia.glass@dot.gov.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Timian
Chief, Recall Management Division
Office of Defects Investigation
Enforcement

U.S. Department
of Transportation
National Highway
Traffic Safety
Administration

1200 New Jersey Avenue SE
Washington, DC 20590

Via USPS Certified Mail

January 30, 2014

D & C RV Repairs LLC
ATTN: Carl Feebeck
17681 Willis Road
Caldwell, ID 83607-8855

NVS-215cg
EQ 13-006
13E-039
13E-053

Subject: Second Request for Information – Response Required

Dear Carl Feebeck:

On November 19, 2013, we wrote to D & C RV Repairs LLC as part of an ongoing investigation being conducted by the Office of Defect Investigations (ODI) at the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) concerning a safety issue involving 3 travel trailer door locks that were sold by Emmett Door Inc. to your company for possible installation into motor vehicles, including recreational vehicles. Your company's response to that letter was due to NHTSA within 10 days of receipt. At this time, we have not received your response.

This letter is being sent in order to remind D & C RV Repairs LLC that it must respond to the earlier letter and that your company may have additional obligations under Federal law as we explained in the earlier letter.

A written response to our earlier letter must be submitted to this office within 7 days of your receipt of this letter. Response submission may be made by US Mail to the address listed therein or by e-mail to rmd.odi@dot.gov and cynthia.glass@dot.gov. In your response, please be certain to include a reference to this matter's identification number, EQ 13-006.

If D & C RV Repairs LLC claims that any of the information or documents provided in response to this information request constitute confidential commercial material within the meaning of 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(4), or are protected from disclosure pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 1905, your company must submit supporting information together with the materials that are the subject of the confidentiality request, in accordance with 49 CFR Part 512, as amended (69 Fed. Reg. 21409 et seq; April 21, 2004), to the Office of Chief Counsel (NCC-111), National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, Room W41-227, 1200 New Jersey Avenue, S.E., Washington, D.C. 20590. Your company is required to submit two copies of the documents containing allegedly confidential information (except only one copy of blueprints) and one copy of the documents from which information claimed to be confidential has been deleted. Please remember that the word "CONFIDENTIAL" must appear at the top of each page containing information claimed to be confidential, and the information must be clearly identified in accordance with 5 U.S.C. § 512.6.

This letter is being sent to your company pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30166, which authorizes NHTSA to conduct any investigation that may be necessary to enforce Chapter 301 of Title 49. Your company's failure to respond promptly and fully to this letter could subject your company to civil penalties pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30165 or lead to an action for injunctive relief pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30163. Section 5(a) of the TREAD Act, codified at 49 U.S.C. § 30165(b), provides for civil penalties of up to $6,000 per day, with a maximum of $17,350,000 for a related series of violations, or for failing or refusing to perform an act required under 49 U.S.C. § 30166. See 49 CFR 578.6 (as amended by 75 Fed. Reg. 79978 (Dec. 21, 2010)). This includes failing to respond to ODI information requests.

I urge D & C RV Repairs LLC to comply with this information request in order to ensure that these important issues relating to motor vehicle safety are promptly addressed, and in order to avoid potential enforcement action against your company in addition to substantial penalties for failure to respond to an inquiry issued during an official investigation.

Should you have any questions regarding this inquiry, please contact Cynthia Glass of my staff at (202) 366-2920 or by e-mail at cynthia.glass@dot.gov.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Timian
Chief, Recall Management Division
Office of Defects Investigation
Enforcement

U.S. Department
of Transportation
National Highway
Traffic Safety
Administration

1200 New Jersey Avenue SE
Washington, DC 20590

Via USPS Certified Mail

January 30, 2014

Diamond Quality Trailers
ATTN: Materials Manager
466 E Stanley
Idaho Falls, ID 83404

NVS-215cg
EQ 13-006
13E-039
13E-053

Subject: Second Request for Information – Response Required

Dear Materials Manager:

On November 19, 2013, we wrote to Diamond Quality Trailers as part of an ongoing investigation being conducted by the Office of Defect Investigations (ODI) at the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) concerning a safety issue involving 8 travel trailer door locks that were sold by Emmett Door Inc. to your company for possible installation into motor vehicles, including recreational vehicles. Your company's response to that letter was due to NHTSA within 10 days of receipt. At this time, we have not received your response.

This letter is being sent in order to remind Diamond Quality Trailers that it must respond to the earlier letter and that your company may have additional obligations under Federal law as we explained in the earlier letter.

A written response to our earlier letter must be submitted to this office within 7 days of your receipt of this letter. Response submission may be made by US Mail to the address listed therein or by e-mail to rmd.odi@dot.gov and cynthia.glass@dot.gov. In your response, please be certain to include a reference to this matter's identification number, EQ 13-006.

If Diamond Quality Trailers claims that any of the information or documents provided in response to this information request constitute confidential commercial material within the meaning of 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(4), or are protected from disclosure pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 1905, your company must submit supporting information together with the materials that are the subject of the confidentiality request, in accordance with 49 CFR Part 512, as amended (69 Fed. Reg. 21409 et seq; April 21, 2004), to the Office of Chief Counsel (NCC-111), National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, Room W41-227, 1200 New Jersey Avenue, S.E., Washington, D.C. 20590. Your company is required to submit two copies of the documents containing allegedly confidential information (except only one copy of blueprints) and one copy of the documents from which information claimed to be confidential has been deleted. Please remember that the word "CONFIDENTIAL" must appear at the top of each page containing information claimed to be confidential, and the information must be clearly identified in accordance with 5 U.S.C. § 512.6.

This letter is being sent to your company pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30166, which authorizes NHTSA to conduct any investigation that may be necessary to enforce Chapter 301 of Title 49. Your company's failure to respond promptly and fully to this letter could subject your company to civil penalties pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30165 or lead to an action for injunctive relief pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30163. Section 5(a) of the TREAD Act, codified at 49 U.S.C. § 30165(b), provides for civil penalties of up to $6,000 per day, with a maximum of $17,350,000 for a related series of violations, or for failing or refusing to perform an act required under 49 U.S.C. § 30166. See 49 CFR 578.6 (as amended by 75 Fed. Reg. 79978 (Dec. 21, 2010)). This includes failing to respond to ODI information requests.

I urge Diamond Quality Trailers to comply with this information request in order to ensure that these important issues relating to motor vehicle safety are promptly addressed, and in order to avoid potential enforcement action against your company in addition to substantial penalties for failure to respond to an inquiry issued during an official investigation.

Should you have any questions regarding this inquiry, please contact Cynthia Glass of my staff at (202) 366-2920 or by e-mail at cynthia.glass@dot.gov.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Timian
Chief, Recall Management Division
Office of Defects Investigation
Enforcement

U.S. Department
of Transportation
National Highway
Traffic Safety
Administration

1200 New Jersey Avenue SE
Washington, DC 20590

Via USPS Certified Mail

January 30, 2014

Evergreen Recreational Vehicles Supplies
ATTN: Materials Manager
16610 Aurora Avenue N
Seattle, WA 98113

NVS-215cg
EQ 13-006
13E-039
13E-053

Subject: Second Request for Information – Response Required

Dear Materials Manager:

On November 19, 2013, we wrote to Evergreen Recreational Vehicles Supplies as part of an ongoing investigation being conducted by the Office of Defect Investigations (ODI) at the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) concerning a safety issue involving 8 travel trailer door locks that were sold by Emmett Door Inc. to your company for possible installation into motor vehicles, including recreational vehicles. Your company's response to that letter was due to NHTSA within 10 days of receipt. At this time, we have not received your response.

This letter is being sent in order to remind Evergreen Recreational Vehicles Supplies that it must respond to the earlier letter and that your company may have additional obligations under Federal law as we explained in the earlier letter.

A written response to our earlier letter must be submitted to this office within 7 days of your receipt of this letter. Response submission may be made by US Mail to the address listed therein or by e-mail to rmd.odi@dot.gov and cynthia.glass@dot.gov. In your response, please be certain to include a reference to this matter's identification number, EQ 13-006.

If Evergreen Recreational Vehicles Supplies claims that any of the information or documents provided in response to this information request constitute confidential commercial material within the meaning of 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(4), or are protected from disclosure pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 1905, your company must submit supporting information together with the materials that are the subject of the confidentiality request, in accordance with 49 CFR Part 512, as amended (69 Fed. Reg. 21409 et seq; April 21, 2004), to the Office of Chief Counsel (NCC-111), National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, Room W41-227, 1200 New Jersey Avenue, S.E., Washington, D.C. 20590. Your company is required to submit two copies of the documents containing allegedly confidential information (except only one copy of blueprints) and one copy of the documents from which information claimed to be confidential has been deleted. Please remember that the word "CONFIDENTIAL" must appear at the top of each page containing information claimed to be confidential, and the information must be clearly identified in accordance with 5 U.S.C. § 512.6.

This letter is being sent to your company pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30166, which authorizes NHTSA to conduct any investigation that may be necessary to enforce Chapter 301 of Title 49. Your company's failure to respond promptly and fully to this letter could subject your company to civil penalties pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30165 or lead to an action for injunctive relief pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30163. Section 5(a) of the TREAD Act, codified at 49 U.S.C. § 30165(b), provides for civil penalties of up to $6,000 per day, with a maximum of $17,350,000 for a related series of violations, or for failing or refusing to perform an act required under 49 U.S.C. § 30166. See 49 CFR 578.6 (as amended by 75 Fed. Reg. 79978 (Dec. 21, 2010)). This includes failing to respond to ODI information requests.

I urge Evergreen Recreational Vehicles Supplies to comply with this information request in order to ensure that these important issues relating to motor vehicle safety are promptly addressed, and in order to avoid potential enforcement action against your company in addition to substantial penalties for failure to respond to an inquiry issued during an official investigation.

Should you have any questions regarding this inquiry, please contact Cynthia Glass of my staff at (202) 366-2920 or by e-mail at cynthia.glass@dot.gov.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Timian
Chief, Recall Management Division
Office of Defects Investigation
Enforcement

U.S. Department
of Transportation
National Highway
Traffic Safety
Administration

1200 New Jersey Avenue SE
Washington, DC 20590

Via USPS Certified Mail

January 30, 2014

Frontier Trailer Sales
ATTN: Glenn Larsen
PO Box 174
Spanish Fork, UT 84660

NVS-215cg
EQ 13-006
13E-039
13E-053

Subject: Second Request for Information – Response Required

Dear Glenn Larsen:

On November 19, 2013, we wrote to Frontier Trailer Sales as part of an ongoing investigation being conducted by the Office of Defect Investigations (ODI) at the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) concerning a safety issue involving 4 travel trailer door locks that were sold by Emmett Door Inc. to your company for possible installation into motor vehicles, including recreational vehicles. Your company's response to that letter was due to NHTSA within 10 days of receipt. At this time, we have not received your response.

This letter is being sent in order to remind Frontier Trailer Sales that it must respond to the earlier letter and that your company may have additional obligations under Federal law as we explained in the earlier letter.

A written response to our earlier letter must be submitted to this office within 7 days of your receipt of this letter. Response submission may be made by US Mail to the address listed therein or by e-mail to rmd.odi@dot.gov and cynthia.glass@dot.gov. In your response, please be certain to include a reference to this matter's identification number, EQ 13-006.

If Frontier Trailer Sales claims that any of the information or documents provided in response to this information request constitute confidential commercial material within the meaning of 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(4), or are protected from disclosure pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 1905, your company must submit supporting information together with the materials that are the subject of the confidentiality request, in accordance with 49 CFR Part 512, as amended (69 Fed. Reg. 21409 et seq; April 21, 2004), to the Office of Chief Counsel (NCC-111), National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, Room W41-227, 1200 New Jersey Avenue, S.E., Washington, D.C. 20590. Your company is required to submit two copies of the documents containing allegedly confidential information (except only one copy of blueprints) and one copy of the documents from which information claimed to be confidential has been deleted. Please remember that the word "CONFIDENTIAL" must appear at the top of each page containing information claimed to be confidential, and the information must be clearly identified in accordance with 5 U.S.C. § 512.6.

This letter is being sent to your company pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30166, which authorizes NHTSA to conduct any investigation that may be necessary to enforce Chapter 301 of Title 49. Your company's failure to respond promptly and fully to this letter could subject your company to civil penalties pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30165 or lead to an action for injunctive relief pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30163. Section 5(a) of the TREAD Act, codified at 49 U.S.C. § 30165(b), provides for civil penalties of up to $6,000 per day, with a maximum of $17,350,000 for a related series of violations, or for failing or refusing to perform an act required under 49 U.S.C. § 30166. See 49 CFR 578.6 (as amended by 75 Fed. Reg. 79978 (Dec. 21, 2010)). This includes failing to respond to ODI information requests.

I urge Frontier Trailer Sales to comply with this information request in order to ensure that these important issues relating to motor vehicle safety are promptly addressed, and in order to avoid potential enforcement action against your company in addition to substantial penalties for failure to respond to an inquiry issued during an official investigation.

Should you have any questions regarding this inquiry, please contact Cynthia Glass of my staff at (202) 366-2920 or by e-mail at cynthia.glass@dot.gov.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Timian
Chief, Recall Management Division
Office of Defects Investigation
Enforcement

U.S. Department
of Transportation
National Highway
Traffic Safety
Administration

1200 New Jersey Avenue SE
Washington, DC 20590

Via USPS Certified Mail

January 30, 2014

Inter West Ltd.
ATTN: Rob Vandewiele
PO Box 3213
Idaho Falls, ID 83401

NVS-215cg
EQ 13-006
13E-039
13E-053

Subject: Second Request for Information – Response Required

Dear Rob Vandewiele:

On November 19, 2013, we wrote to Inter West Ltd. as part of an ongoing investigation being conducted by the Office of Defect Investigations (ODI) at the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) concerning a safety issue involving 87 travel trailer door locks that were sold by Emmett Door Inc. to your company for possible installation into motor vehicles, including recreational vehicles. Your company's response to that letter was due to NHTSA within 10 days of receipt. At this time, we have not received your response.

This letter is being sent in order to remind Inter West Ltd. that it must respond to the earlier letter and that your company may have additional obligations under Federal law as we explained in the earlier letter.

A written response to our earlier letter must be submitted to this office within 7 days of your receipt of this letter. Response submission may be made by US Mail to the address listed therein or by e-mail to rmd.odi@dot.gov and cynthia.glass@dot.gov. In your response, please be certain to include a reference to this matter's identification number, EQ 13-006.

If Inter West Ltd. claims that any of the information or documents provided in response to this information request constitute confidential commercial material within the meaning of 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(4), or are protected from disclosure pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 1905, your company must submit supporting information together with the materials that are the subject of the confidentiality request, in accordance with 49 CFR Part 512, as amended (69 Fed. Reg. 21409 et seq; April 21, 2004), to the Office of Chief Counsel (NCC-111), National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, Room W41-227, 1200 New Jersey Avenue, S.E., Washington, D.C. 20590. Your company is required to submit two copies of the documents containing allegedly confidential information (except only one copy of blueprints) and one copy of the documents from which information claimed to be confidential has been deleted. Please remember that the word "CONFIDENTIAL" must appear at the top of each page containing information claimed to be confidential, and the information must be clearly identified in accordance with 5 U.S.C. § 512.6.

This letter is being sent to your company pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30166, which authorizes NHTSA to conduct any investigation that may be necessary to enforce Chapter 301 of Title 49. Your company's failure to respond promptly and fully to this letter could subject your company to civil penalties pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30165 or lead to an action for injunctive relief pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30163. Section 5(a) of the TREAD Act, codified at 49 U.S.C. § 30165(b), provides for civil penalties of up to $6,000 per day, with a maximum of $17,350,000 for a related series of violations, or for failing or refusing to perform an act required under 49 U.S.C. § 30166. See 49 CFR 578.6 (as amended by 75 Fed. Reg. 79978 (Dec. 21, 2010)). This includes failing to respond to ODI information requests.

I urge Inter West Ltd. to comply with this information request in order to ensure that these important issues relating to motor vehicle safety are promptly addressed, and in order to avoid potential enforcement action against your company in addition to substantial penalties for failure to respond to an inquiry issued during an official investigation.

Should you have any questions regarding this inquiry, please contact Cynthia Glass of my staff at (202) 366-2920 or by e-mail at cynthia.glass@dot.gov.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Timian
Chief, Recall Management Division
Office of Defects Investigation
Enforcement

U.S. Department
of Transportation
National Highway
Traffic Safety
Administration

1200 New Jersey Avenue SE
Washington, DC 20590

Via USPS Certified Mail

January 30, 2014

Intercontinental Truck Body
ATTN: Dave Sawyer
234 Hilltop
Lane Conrad, MT 59425

NVS-215cg
EQ 13-006
13E-039
13E-053

Subject: Second Request for Information – Response Required

Dear Dave Sawyer:

On November 19, 2013, we wrote to Intercontinental Truck Body as part of an ongoing investigation being conducted by the Office of Defect Investigations (ODI) at the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) concerning a safety issue involving 32 travel trailer door locks that were sold by Emmett Door Inc. to your company for possible installation into motor vehicles, including recreational vehicles. Your company's response to that letter was due to NHTSA within 10 days of receipt. At this time, we have not received your response.

This letter is being sent in order to remind Intercontinental Truck Body that it must respond to the earlier letter and that your company may have additional obligations under Federal law as we explained in the earlier letter.

A written response to our earlier letter must be submitted to this office within 7 days of your receipt of this letter. Response submission may be made by US Mail to the address listed therein or by e-mail to rmd.odi@dot.gov and cynthia.glass@dot.gov. In your response, please be certain to include a reference to this matter's identification number, EQ 13-006.

If Intercontinental Truck Body claims that any of the information or documents provided in response to this information request constitute confidential commercial material within the meaning of 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(4), or are protected from disclosure pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 1905, your company must submit supporting information together with the materials that are the subject of the confidentiality request, in accordance with 49 CFR Part 512, as amended (69 Fed. Reg. 21409 et seq; April 21, 2004), to the Office of Chief Counsel (NCC-111), National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, Room W41-227, 1200 New Jersey Avenue, S.E., Washington, D.C. 20590. Your company is required to submit two copies of the documents containing allegedly confidential information (except only one copy of blueprints) and one copy of the documents from which information claimed to be confidential has been deleted. Please remember that the word "CONFIDENTIAL" must appear at the top of each page containing information claimed to be confidential, and the information must be clearly identified in accordance with 5 U.S.C. § 512.6.

This letter is being sent to your company pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30166, which authorizes NHTSA to conduct any investigation that may be necessary to enforce Chapter 301 of Title 49. Your company's failure to respond promptly and fully to this letter could subject your company to civil penalties pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30165 or lead to an action for injunctive relief pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30163. Section 5(a) of the TREAD Act, codified at 49 U.S.C. § 30165(b), provides for civil penalties of up to $6,000 per day, with a maximum of $17,350,000 for a related series of violations, or for failing or refusing to perform an act required under 49 U.S.C. § 30166. See 49 CFR 578.6 (as amended by 75 Fed. Reg. 79978 (Dec. 21, 2010)). This includes failing to respond to ODI information requests.

I urge Intercontinental Truck Body to comply with this information request in order to ensure that these important issues relating to motor vehicle safety are promptly addressed, and in order to avoid potential enforcement action against your company in addition to substantial penalties for failure to respond to an inquiry issued during an official investigation.

Should you have any questions regarding this inquiry, please contact Cynthia Glass of my staff at (202) 366-2920 or by e-mail at cynthia.glass@dot.gov.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Timian
Chief, Recall Management Division
Office of Defects Investigation
Enforcement

U.S. Department
of Transportation
National Highway
Traffic Safety
Administration

1200 New Jersey Avenue SE
Washington, DC 20590

Via USPS Certified Mail

January 30, 2014

JW Trailers
ATTN: John White
4790 NW 49th Lane
Redmond, OR 97756

NVS-215cg
EQ 13-006
13E-039
13E-053

Subject: Second Request for Information – Response Required

Dear John White:

On November 19, 2013, we wrote to JW Trailers as part of an ongoing investigation being conducted by the Office of Defect Investigations (ODI) at the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) concerning a safety issue involving 9 travel trailer door locks that were sold by Emmett Door Inc. to your company for possible installation into motor vehicles, including recreational vehicles. Your company's response to that letter was due to NHTSA within 10 days of receipt. At this time, we have not received your response.

This letter is being sent in order to remind JW Trailers that it must respond to the earlier letter and that your company may have additional obligations under Federal law as we explained in the earlier letter.

A written response to our earlier letter must be submitted to this office within 7 days of your receipt of this letter. Response submission may be made by US Mail to the address listed therein or by e-mail to rmd.odi@dot.gov and cynthia.glass@dot.gov. In your response, please be certain to include a reference to this matter's identification number, EQ 13-006.

If JW Trailers claims that any of the information or documents provided in response to this information request constitute confidential commercial material within the meaning of 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(4), or are protected from disclosure pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 1905, your company must submit supporting information together with the materials that are the subject of the confidentiality request, in accordance with 49 CFR Part 512, as amended (69 Fed. Reg. 21409 et seq; April 21, 2004), to the Office of Chief Counsel (NCC-111), National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, Room W41-227, 1200 New Jersey Avenue, S.E., Washington, D.C. 20590. Your company is required to submit two copies of the documents containing allegedly confidential information (except only one copy of blueprints) and one copy of the documents from which information claimed to be confidential has been deleted. Please remember that the word "CONFIDENTIAL" must appear at the top of each page containing information claimed to be confidential, and the information must be clearly identified in accordance with 5 U.S.C. § 512.6.

This letter is being sent to your company pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30166, which authorizes NHTSA to conduct any investigation that may be necessary to enforce Chapter 301 of Title 49. Your company's failure to respond promptly and fully to this letter could subject your company to civil penalties pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30165 or lead to an action for injunctive relief pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30163. Section 5(a) of the TREAD Act, codified at 49 U.S.C. § 30165(b), provides for civil penalties of up to $6,000 per day, with a maximum of $17,350,000 for a related series of violations, or for failing or refusing to perform an act required under 49 U.S.C. § 30166. See 49 CFR 578.6 (as amended by 75 Fed. Reg. 79978 (Dec. 21, 2010)). This includes failing to respond to ODI information requests.

I urge JW Trailers to comply with this information request in order to ensure that these important issues relating to motor vehicle safety are promptly addressed, and in order to avoid potential enforcement action against your company in addition to substantial penalties for failure to respond to an inquiry issued during an official investigation.

Should you have any questions regarding this inquiry, please contact Cynthia Glass of my staff at (202) 366-2920 or by e-mail at cynthia.glass@dot.gov.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Timian
Chief, Recall Management Division
Office of Defects Investigation
Enforcement

U.S. Department
of Transportation
National Highway
Traffic Safety
Administration

1200 New Jersey Avenue SE
Washington, DC 20590

Via USPS Certified Mail

January 30, 2014

Lentz Recreational Vehicles
ATTN: Materials Manager
21320 Mountain Highway E
Spanaway, WA 98387

NVS-215cg
EQ 13-006
13E-039
13E-053

Subject: Second Request for Information – Response Required

Dear Materials Manager:

On November 19, 2013, we wrote to Lentz Recreational Vehicles as part of an ongoing investigation being conducted by the Office of Defect Investigations (ODI) at the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) concerning a safety issue involving 1 travel trailer door locks that were sold by Emmett Door Inc. to your company for possible installation into motor vehicles, including recreational vehicles. Your company's response to that letter was due to NHTSA within 10 days of receipt. At this time, we have not received your response.

This letter is being sent in order to remind Lentz Recreational Vehicles that it must respond to the earlier letter and that your company may have additional obligations under Federal law as we explained in the earlier letter.

A written response to our earlier letter must be submitted to this office within 7 days of your receipt of this letter. Response submission may be made by US Mail to the address listed therein or by e-mail to rmd.odi@dot.gov and cynthia.glass@dot.gov. In your response, please be certain to include a reference to this matter's identification number, EQ 13-006.

If Lentz Recreational Vehicles claims that any of the information or documents provided in response to this information request constitute confidential commercial material within the meaning of 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(4), or are protected from disclosure pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 1905, your company must submit supporting information together with the materials that are the subject of the confidentiality request, in accordance with 49 CFR Part 512, as amended (69 Fed. Reg. 21409 et seq; April 21, 2004), to the Office of Chief Counsel (NCC-111), National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, Room W41-227, 1200 New Jersey Avenue, S.E., Washington, D.C. 20590. Your company is required to submit two copies of the documents containing allegedly confidential information (except only one copy of blueprints) and one copy of the documents from which information claimed to be confidential has been deleted. Please remember that the word "CONFIDENTIAL" must appear at the top of each page containing information claimed to be confidential, and the information must be clearly identified in accordance with 5 U.S.C. § 512.6.

This letter is being sent to your company pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30166, which authorizes NHTSA to conduct any investigation that may be necessary to enforce Chapter 301 of Title 49. Your company's failure to respond promptly and fully to this letter could subject your company to civil penalties pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30165 or lead to an action for injunctive relief pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30163. Section 5(a) of the TREAD Act, codified at 49 U.S.C. § 30165(b), provides for civil penalties of up to $6,000 per day, with a maximum of $17,350,000 for a related series of violations, or for failing or refusing to perform an act required under 49 U.S.C. § 30166. See 49 CFR 578.6 (as amended by 75 Fed. Reg. 79978 (Dec. 21, 2010)). This includes failing to respond to ODI information requests.

I urge Lentz Recreational Vehicles to comply with this information request in order to ensure that these important issues relating to motor vehicle safety are promptly addressed, and in order to avoid potential enforcement action against your company in addition to substantial penalties for failure to respond to an inquiry issued during an official investigation.

Should you have any questions regarding this inquiry, please contact Cynthia Glass of my staff at (202) 366-2920 or by e-mail at cynthia.glass@dot.gov.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Timian
Chief, Recall Management Division
Office of Defects Investigation
Enforcement

U.S. Department
of Transportation
National Highway
Traffic Safety
Administration

1200 New Jersey Avenue SE
Washington, DC 20590

Via USPS Certified Mail

January 30, 2014

Luft Trailer
ATTN: Tom Luft
907 Hibbs Road
Ellensberg, WA 98926

NVS-215cg
EQ 13-006
13E-039
13E-053

Subject: Second Request for Information – Response Required

Dear Tom Luft:

On November 19, 2013, we wrote to Luft Trailer as part of an ongoing investigation being conducted by the Office of Defect Investigations (ODI) at the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) concerning a safety issue involving 4 travel trailer door locks that were sold by Emmett Door Inc. to your company for possible installation into motor vehicles, including recreational vehicles. Your company's response to that letter was due to NHTSA within 10 days of receipt. At this time, we have not received your response.

This letter is being sent in order to remind Luft Trailer that it must respond to the earlier letter and that your company may have additional obligations under Federal law as we explained in the earlier letter.

A written response to our earlier letter must be submitted to this office within 7 days of your receipt of this letter. Response submission may be made by US Mail to the address listed therein or by e-mail to rmd.odi@dot.gov and cynthia.glass@dot.gov. In your response, please be certain to include a reference to this matter's identification number, EQ 13-006.

If Luft Trailer claims that any of the information or documents provided in response to this information request constitute confidential commercial material within the meaning of 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(4), or are protected from disclosure pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 1905, your company must submit supporting information together with the materials that are the subject of the confidentiality request, in accordance with 49 CFR Part 512, as amended (69 Fed. Reg. 21409 et seq; April 21, 2004), to the Office of Chief Counsel (NCC-111), National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, Room W41-227, 1200 New Jersey Avenue, S.E., Washington, D.C. 20590. Your company is required to submit two copies of the documents containing allegedly confidential information (except only one copy of blueprints) and one copy of the documents from which information claimed to be confidential has been deleted. Please remember that the word "CONFIDENTIAL" must appear at the top of each page containing information claimed to be confidential, and the information must be clearly identified in accordance with 5 U.S.C. § 512.6.

This letter is being sent to your company pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30166, which authorizes NHTSA to conduct any investigation that may be necessary to enforce Chapter 301 of Title 49. Your company's failure to respond promptly and fully to this letter could subject your company to civil penalties pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30165 or lead to an action for injunctive relief pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30163. Section 5(a) of the TREAD Act, codified at 49 U.S.C. § 30165(b), provides for civil penalties of up to $6,000 per day, with a maximum of $17,350,000 for a related series of violations, or for failing or refusing to perform an act required under 49 U.S.C. § 30166. See 49 CFR 578.6 (as amended by 75 Fed. Reg. 79978 (Dec. 21, 2010)). This includes failing to respond to ODI information requests.

I urge Luft Trailer to comply with this information request in order to ensure that these important issues relating to motor vehicle safety are promptly addressed, and in order to avoid potential enforcement action against your company in addition to substantial penalties for failure to respond to an inquiry issued during an official investigation.

Should you have any questions regarding this inquiry, please contact Cynthia Glass of my staff at (202) 366-2920 or by e-mail at cynthia.glass@dot.gov.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Timian
Chief, Recall Management Division
Office of Defects Investigation
Enforcement

U.S. Department
of Transportation
National Highway
Traffic Safety
Administration

1200 New Jersey Avenue SE
Washington, DC 20590

Via USPS Certified Mail

January 30, 2014

M & M Axle
ATTN: Materials Manager
PO Box 1125
Emmett, ID 83617

NVS-215cg
EQ 13-006
13E-039
13E-053

Subject: Second Request for Information – Response Required

Dear Materials Manager:

On November 19, 2013, we wrote to M & M Axle as part of an ongoing investigation being conducted by the Office of Defect Investigations (ODI) at the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) concerning a safety issue involving 23 travel trailer door locks that were sold by Emmett Door Inc. to your company for possible installation into motor vehicles, including recreational vehicles. Your company's response to that letter was due to NHTSA within 10 days of receipt. At this time, we have not received your response.

This letter is being sent in order to remind M & M Axle that it must respond to the earlier letter and that your company may have additional obligations under Federal law as we explained in the earlier letter.

A written response to our earlier letter must be submitted to this office within 7 days of your receipt of this letter. Response submission may be made by US Mail to the address listed therein or by e-mail to rmd.odi@dot.gov and cynthia.glass@dot.gov. In your response, please be certain to include a reference to this matter's identification number, EQ 13-006.

If M & M Axle claims that any of the information or documents provided in response to this information request constitute confidential commercial material within the meaning of 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(4), or are protected from disclosure pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 1905, your company must submit supporting information together with the materials that are the subject of the confidentiality request, in accordance with 49 CFR Part 512, as amended (69 Fed. Reg. 21409 et seq; April 21, 2004), to the Office of Chief Counsel (NCC-111), National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, Room W41-227, 1200 New Jersey Avenue, S.E., Washington, D.C. 20590. Your company is required to submit two copies of the documents containing allegedly confidential information (except only one copy of blueprints) and one copy of the documents from which information claimed to be confidential has been deleted. Please remember that the word "CONFIDENTIAL" must appear at the top of each page containing information claimed to be confidential, and the information must be clearly identified in accordance with 5 U.S.C. § 512.6.

This letter is being sent to your company pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30166, which authorizes NHTSA to conduct any investigation that may be necessary to enforce Chapter 301 of Title 49. Your company's failure to respond promptly and fully to this letter could subject your company to civil penalties pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30165 or lead to an action for injunctive relief pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30163. Section 5(a) of the TREAD Act, codified at 49 U.S.C. § 30165(b), provides for civil penalties of up to $6,000 per day, with a maximum of $17,350,000 for a related series of violations, or for failing or refusing to perform an act required under 49 U.S.C. § 30166. See 49 CFR 578.6 (as amended by 75 Fed. Reg. 79978 (Dec. 21, 2010)). This includes failing to respond to ODI information requests.

I urge M & M Axle to comply with this information request in order to ensure that these important issues relating to motor vehicle safety are promptly addressed, and in order to avoid potential enforcement action against your company in addition to substantial penalties for failure to respond to an inquiry issued during an official investigation.

Should you have any questions regarding this inquiry, please contact Cynthia Glass of my staff at (202) 366-2920 or by e-mail at cynthia.glass@dot.gov.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Timian
Chief, Recall Management Division
Office of Defects Investigation
Enforcement

U.S. Department
of Transportation
National Highway
Traffic Safety
Administration

1200 New Jersey Avenue SE
Washington, DC 20590

Via USPS Certified Mail

January 30, 2014

NOMAD GCS
ATTN: Materials Manager
5414 Highway 2
West Columbia Falls, MT 59912

NVS-215cg
EQ 13-006
13E-039
13E-053

Subject: Second Request for Information – Response Required

Dear Materials Manager:

On November 19, 2013, we wrote to NOMAD GCS as part of an ongoing investigation being conducted by the Office of Defect Investigations (ODI) at the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) concerning a safety issue involving 6 travel trailer door locks that were sold by Emmett Door Inc. to your company for possible installation into motor vehicles, including recreational vehicles. Your company's response to that letter was due to NHTSA within 10 days of receipt. At this time, we have not received your response.

This letter is being sent in order to remind NOMAD GCS that it must respond to the earlier letter and that your company may have additional obligations under Federal law as we explained in the earlier letter.

A written response to our earlier letter must be submitted to this office within 7 days of your receipt of this letter. Response submission may be made by US Mail to the address listed therein or by e-mail to rmd.odi@dot.gov and cynthia.glass@dot.gov. In your response, please be certain to include a reference to this matter's identification number, EQ 13-006.

If NOMAD GCS claims that any of the information or documents provided in response to this information request constitute confidential commercial material within the meaning of 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(4), or are protected from disclosure pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 1905, your company must submit supporting information together with the materials that are the subject of the confidentiality request, in accordance with 49 CFR Part 512, as amended (69 Fed. Reg. 21409 et seq; April 21, 2004), to the Office of Chief Counsel (NCC-111), National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, Room W41-227, 1200 New Jersey Avenue, S.E., Washington, D.C. 20590. Your company is required to submit two copies of the documents containing allegedly confidential information (except only one copy of blueprints) and one copy of the documents from which information claimed to be confidential has been deleted. Please remember that the word "CONFIDENTIAL" must appear at the top of each page containing information claimed to be confidential, and the information must be clearly identified in accordance with 5 U.S.C. § 512.6.

This letter is being sent to your company pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30166, which authorizes NHTSA to conduct any investigation that may be necessary to enforce Chapter 301 of Title 49. Your company's failure to respond promptly and fully to this letter could subject your company to civil penalties pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30165 or lead to an action for injunctive relief pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30163. Section 5(a) of the TREAD Act, codified at 49 U.S.C. § 30165(b), provides for civil penalties of up to $6,000 per day, with a maximum of $17,350,000 for a related series of violations, or for failing or refusing to perform an act required under 49 U.S.C. § 30166. See 49 CFR 578.6 (as amended by 75 Fed. Reg. 79978 (Dec. 21, 2010)). This includes failing to respond to ODI information requests.

I urge NOMAD GCS to comply with this information request in order to ensure that these important issues relating to motor vehicle safety are promptly addressed, and in order to avoid potential enforcement action against your company in addition to substantial penalties for failure to respond to an inquiry issued during an official investigation.

Should you have any questions regarding this inquiry, please contact Cynthia Glass of my staff at (202) 366-2920 or by e-mail at cynthia.glass@dot.gov.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Timian
Chief, Recall Management Division
Office of Defects Investigation
Enforcement

U.S. Department
of Transportation
National Highway
Traffic Safety
Administration

1200 New Jersey Avenue SE
Washington, DC 20590

Via USPS Certified Mail

January 30, 2014

Northland Industries
ATTN: Materials Manager
2907 Brandt Avenue
Nampa, ID 83687

NVS-215cg
EQ 13-006
13E-039
13E-053

Subject: Second Request for Information – Response Required

Dear Materials Manager:

On November 19, 2013, we wrote to Northland Industries as part of an ongoing investigation being conducted by the Office of Defect Investigations (ODI) at the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) concerning a safety issue involving 3 travel trailer door locks that were sold by Emmett Door Inc. to your company for possible installation into motor vehicles, including recreational vehicles. Your company's response to that letter was due to NHTSA within 10 days of receipt. At this time, we have not received your response.

This letter is being sent in order to remind Northland Industries that it must respond to the earlier letter and that your company may have additional obligations under Federal law as we explained in the earlier letter.

A written response to our earlier letter must be submitted to this office within 7 days of your receipt of this letter. Response submission may be made by US Mail to the address listed therein or by e-mail to rmd.odi@dot.gov and cynthia.glass@dot.gov. In your response, please be certain to include a reference to this matter's identification number, EQ 13-006.

If Northland Industries claims that any of the information or documents provided in response to this information request constitute confidential commercial material within the meaning of 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(4), or are protected from disclosure pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 1905, your company must submit supporting information together with the materials that are the subject of the confidentiality request, in accordance with 49 CFR Part 512, as amended (69 Fed. Reg. 21409 et seq; April 21, 2004), to the Office of Chief Counsel (NCC-111), National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, Room W41-227, 1200 New Jersey Avenue, S.E., Washington, D.C. 20590. Your company is required to submit two copies of the documents containing allegedly confidential information (except only one copy of blueprints) and one copy of the documents from which information claimed to be confidential has been deleted. Please remember that the word "CONFIDENTIAL" must appear at the top of each page containing information claimed to be confidential, and the information must be clearly identified in accordance with 5 U.S.C. § 512.6.

This letter is being sent to your company pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30166, which authorizes NHTSA to conduct any investigation that may be necessary to enforce Chapter 301 of Title 49. Your company's failure to respond promptly and fully to this letter could subject your company to civil penalties pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30165 or lead to an action for injunctive relief pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30163. Section 5(a) of the TREAD Act, codified at 49 U.S.C. § 30165(b), provides for civil penalties of up to $6,000 per day, with a maximum of $17,350,000 for a related series of violations, or for failing or refusing to perform an act required under 49 U.S.C. § 30166. See 49 CFR 578.6 (as amended by 75 Fed. Reg. 79978 (Dec. 21, 2010)). This includes failing to respond to ODI information requests.

I urge Northland Industries to comply with this information request in order to ensure that these important issues relating to motor vehicle safety are promptly addressed, and in order to avoid potential enforcement action against your company in addition to substantial penalties for failure to respond to an inquiry issued during an official investigation.

Should you have any questions regarding this inquiry, please contact Cynthia Glass of my staff at (202) 366-2920 or by e-mail at cynthia.glass@dot.gov.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Timian
Chief, Recall Management Division
Office of Defects Investigation
Enforcement

U.S. Department
of Transportation
National Highway
Traffic Safety
Administration

1200 New Jersey Avenue SE
Washington, DC 20590

Via USPS Certified Mail

January 30, 2014

NW Custom Campers
ATTN: Paul Sieler
537 W Colorado Street
Kallispell, MT 59901

NVS-215cg
EQ 13-006
13E-039
13E-053

Subject: Second Request for Information – Response Required

Dear Paul Sieler:

On November 19, 2013, we wrote to NW Custom Campers as part of an ongoing investigation being conducted by the Office of Defect Investigations (ODI) at the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) concerning a safety issue involving 10 travel trailer door locks that were sold by Emmett Door Inc. to your company for possible installation into motor vehicles, including recreational vehicles. Your company's response to that letter was due to NHTSA within 10 days of receipt. At this time, we have not received your response.

This letter is being sent in order to remind NW Custom Campers that it must respond to the earlier letter and that your company may have additional obligations under Federal law as we explained in the earlier letter.

A written response to our earlier letter must be submitted to this office within 7 days of your receipt of this letter. Response submission may be made by US Mail to the address listed therein or by e-mail to rmd.odi@dot.gov and cynthia.glass@dot.gov. In your response, please be certain to include a reference to this matter's identification number, EQ 13-006.

If NW Custom Campers claims that any of the information or documents provided in response to this information request constitute confidential commercial material within the meaning of 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(4), or are protected from disclosure pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 1905, your company must submit supporting information together with the materials that are the subject of the confidentiality request, in accordance with 49 CFR Part 512, as amended (69 Fed. Reg. 21409 et seq; April 21, 2004), to the Office of Chief Counsel (NCC-111), National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, Room W41-227, 1200 New Jersey Avenue, S.E., Washington, D.C. 20590. Your company is required to submit two copies of the documents containing allegedly confidential information (except only one copy of blueprints) and one copy of the documents from which information claimed to be confidential has been deleted. Please remember that the word "CONFIDENTIAL" must appear at the top of each page containing information claimed to be confidential, and the information must be clearly identified in accordance with 5 U.S.C. § 512.6.

This letter is being sent to your company pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30166, which authorizes NHTSA to conduct any investigation that may be necessary to enforce Chapter 301 of Title 49. Your company's failure to respond promptly and fully to this letter could subject your company to civil penalties pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30165 or lead to an action for injunctive relief pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30163. Section 5(a) of the TREAD Act, codified at 49 U.S.C. § 30165(b), provides for civil penalties of up to $6,000 per day, with a maximum of $17,350,000 for a related series of violations, or for failing or refusing to perform an act required under 49 U.S.C. § 30166. See 49 CFR 578.6 (as amended by 75 Fed. Reg. 79978 (Dec. 21, 2010)). This includes failing to respond to ODI information requests.

I urge NW Custom Campers to comply with this information request in order to ensure that these important issues relating to motor vehicle safety are promptly addressed, and in order to avoid potential enforcement action against your company in addition to substantial penalties for failure to respond to an inquiry issued during an official investigation.

Should you have any questions regarding this inquiry, please contact Cynthia Glass of my staff at (202) 366-2920 or by e-mail at cynthia.glass@dot.gov.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Timian
Chief, Recall Management Division
Office of Defects Investigation
Enforcement

U.S. Department
of Transportation
National Highway
Traffic Safety
Administration

1200 New Jersey Avenue SE
Washington, DC 20590

Via USPS Certified Mail

January 30, 2014

Sno Shack
ATTN: Materials Manager
2774 N 4000 W
Rexburg, ID 83440

NVS-215cg
EQ 13-006
13E-039
13E-053

Subject: Second Request for Information – Response Required

Dear Materials Manager:

On November 19, 2013, we wrote to Sno Shack as part of an ongoing investigation being conducted by the Office of Defect Investigations (ODI) at the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) concerning a safety issue involving 6 travel trailer door locks that were sold by Emmett Door Inc. to your company for possible installation into motor vehicles, including recreational vehicles. Your company's response to that letter was due to NHTSA within 10 days of receipt. At this time, we have not received your response.

This letter is being sent in order to remind Sno Shack that it must respond to the earlier letter and that your company may have additional obligations under Federal law as we explained in the earlier letter.

A written response to our earlier letter must be submitted to this office within 7 days of your receipt of this letter. Response submission may be made by US Mail to the address listed therein or by e-mail to rmd.odi@dot.gov and cynthia.glass@dot.gov. In your response, please be certain to include a reference to this matter's identification number, EQ 13-006.

If Sno Shack claims that any of the information or documents provided in response to this information request constitute confidential commercial material within the meaning of 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(4), or are protected from disclosure pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 1905, your company must submit supporting information together with the materials that are the subject of the confidentiality request, in accordance with 49 CFR Part 512, as amended (69 Fed. Reg. 21409 et seq; April 21, 2004), to the Office of Chief Counsel (NCC-111), National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, Room W41-227, 1200 New Jersey Avenue, S.E., Washington, D.C. 20590. Your company is required to submit two copies of the documents containing allegedly confidential information (except only one copy of blueprints) and one copy of the documents from which information claimed to be confidential has been deleted. Please remember that the word "CONFIDENTIAL" must appear at the top of each page containing information claimed to be confidential, and the information must be clearly identified in accordance with 5 U.S.C. § 512.6.

This letter is being sent to your company pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30166, which authorizes NHTSA to conduct any investigation that may be necessary to enforce Chapter 301 of Title 49. Your company's failure to respond promptly and fully to this letter could subject your company to civil penalties pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30165 or lead to an action for injunctive relief pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30163. Section 5(a) of the TREAD Act, codified at 49 U.S.C. § 30165(b), provides for civil penalties of up to $6,000 per day, with a maximum of $17,350,000 for a related series of violations, or for failing or refusing to perform an act required under 49 U.S.C. § 30166. See 49 CFR 578.6 (as amended by 75 Fed. Reg. 79978 (Dec. 21, 2010)). This includes failing to respond to ODI information requests.

I urge Sno Shack to comply with this information request in order to ensure that these important issues relating to motor vehicle safety are promptly addressed, and in order to avoid potential enforcement action against your company in addition to substantial penalties for failure to respond to an inquiry issued during an official investigation.

Should you have any questions regarding this inquiry, please contact Cynthia Glass of my staff at (202) 366-2920 or by e-mail at cynthia.glass@dot.gov.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Timian
Chief, Recall Management Division
Office of Defects Investigation
Enforcement

U.S. Department
of Transportation
National Highway
Traffic Safety
Administration

1200 New Jersey Avenue SE
Washington, DC 20590

Via USPS Certified Mail

January 30, 2014

Special Operations Group
ATTN: Greg Erlenbaugh
1244 River View Drive
Cody, WY 82414-3009

NVS-215cg
EQ 13-006
13E-039
13E-053

Subject: Second Request for Information – Response Required

Dear Greg Erlenbaugh:

On November 19, 2013, we wrote to Special Operations Group as part of an ongoing investigation being conducted by the Office of Defect Investigations (ODI) at the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) concerning a safety issue involving 6 travel trailer door locks that were sold by Emmett Door Inc. to your company for possible installation into motor vehicles, including recreational vehicles. Your company's response to that letter was due to NHTSA within 10 days of receipt. At this time, we have not received your response.

This letter is being sent in order to remind Special Operations Group that it must respond to the earlier letter and that your company may have additional obligations under Federal law as we explained in the earlier letter.

A written response to our earlier letter must be submitted to this office within 7 days of your receipt of this letter. Response submission may be made by US Mail to the address listed therein or by e-mail to rmd.odi@dot.gov and cynthia.glass@dot.gov. In your response, please be certain to include a reference to this matter's identification number, EQ 13-006.

If Special Operations Group claims that any of the information or documents provided in response to this information request constitute confidential commercial material within the meaning of 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(4), or are protected from disclosure pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 1905, your company must submit supporting information together with the materials that are the subject of the confidentiality request, in accordance with 49 CFR Part 512, as amended (69 Fed. Reg. 21409 et seq; April 21, 2004), to the Office of Chief Counsel (NCC-111), National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, Room W41-227, 1200 New Jersey Avenue, S.E., Washington, D.C. 20590. Your company is required to submit two copies of the documents containing allegedly confidential information (except only one copy of blueprints) and one copy of the documents from which information claimed to be confidential has been deleted. Please remember that the word "CONFIDENTIAL" must appear at the top of each page containing information claimed to be confidential, and the information must be clearly identified in accordance with 5 U.S.C. § 512.6.

This letter is being sent to your company pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30166, which authorizes NHTSA to conduct any investigation that may be necessary to enforce Chapter 301 of Title 49. Your company's failure to respond promptly and fully to this letter could subject your company to civil penalties pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30165 or lead to an action for injunctive relief pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30163. Section 5(a) of the TREAD Act, codified at 49 U.S.C. § 30165(b), provides for civil penalties of up to $6,000 per day, with a maximum of $17,350,000 for a related series of violations, or for failing or refusing to perform an act required under 49 U.S.C. § 30166. See 49 CFR 578.6 (as amended by 75 Fed. Reg. 79978 (Dec. 21, 2010)). This includes failing to respond to ODI information requests.

I urge Special Operations Group to comply with this information request in order to ensure that these important issues relating to motor vehicle safety are promptly addressed, and in order to avoid potential enforcement action against your company in addition to substantial penalties for failure to respond to an inquiry issued during an official investigation.

Should you have any questions regarding this inquiry, please contact Cynthia Glass of my staff at (202) 366-2920 or by e-mail at cynthia.glass@dot.gov.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Timian
Chief, Recall Management Division
Office of Defects Investigation
Enforcement

U.S. Department
of Transportation
National Highway
Traffic Safety
Administration

1200 New Jersey Avenue SE
Washington, DC 20590

Via USPS Certified Mail

January 30, 2014

Stainless International
ATTN: Materials Manager
2650 Mercantile Drive, Suite C
Rancho Cordova, CA 95742

NVS-215cg
EQ 13-006
13E-039
13E-053

Subject: Second Request for Information – Response Required

Dear Materials Manager:

On November 19, 2013, we wrote to Stainless International as part of an ongoing investigation being conducted by the Office of Defect Investigations (ODI) at the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) concerning a safety issue involving 1 travel trailer door locks that were sold by Emmett Door Inc. to your company for possible installation into motor vehicles, including recreational vehicles. Your company's response to that letter was due to NHTSA within 10 days of receipt. At this time, we have not received your response.

This letter is being sent in order to remind Stainless International that it must respond to the earlier letter and that your company may have additional obligations under Federal law as we explained in the earlier letter.

A written response to our earlier letter must be submitted to this office within 7 days of your receipt of this letter. Response submission may be made by US Mail to the address listed therein or by e-mail to rmd.odi@dot.gov and cynthia.glass@dot.gov. In your response, please be certain to include a reference to this matter's identification number, EQ 13-006.

If Stainless International claims that any of the information or documents provided in response to this information request constitute confidential commercial material within the meaning of 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(4), or are protected from disclosure pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 1905, your company must submit supporting information together with the materials that are the subject of the confidentiality request, in accordance with 49 CFR Part 512, as amended (69 Fed. Reg. 21409 et seq; April 21, 2004), to the Office of Chief Counsel (NCC-111), National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, Room W41-227, 1200 New Jersey Avenue, S.E., Washington, D.C. 20590. Your company is required to submit two copies of the documents containing allegedly confidential information (except only one copy of blueprints) and one copy of the documents from which information claimed to be confidential has been deleted. Please remember that the word "CONFIDENTIAL" must appear at the top of each page containing information claimed to be confidential, and the information must be clearly identified in accordance with 5 U.S.C. § 512.6.

This letter is being sent to your company pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30166, which authorizes NHTSA to conduct any investigation that may be necessary to enforce Chapter 301 of Title 49. Your company's failure to respond promptly and fully to this letter could subject your company to civil penalties pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30165 or lead to an action for injunctive relief pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30163. Section 5(a) of the TREAD Act, codified at 49 U.S.C. § 30165(b), provides for civil penalties of up to $6,000 per day, with a maximum of $17,350,000 for a related series of violations, or for failing or refusing to perform an act required under 49 U.S.C. § 30166. See 49 CFR 578.6 (as amended by 75 Fed. Reg. 79978 (Dec. 21, 2010)). This includes failing to respond to ODI information requests.

I urge Stainless International to comply with this information request in order to ensure that these important issues relating to motor vehicle safety are promptly addressed, and in order to avoid potential enforcement action against your company in addition to substantial penalties for failure to respond to an inquiry issued during an official investigation.

Should you have any questions regarding this inquiry, please contact Cynthia Glass of my staff at (202) 366-2920 or by e-mail at cynthia.glass@dot.gov.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Timian
Chief, Recall Management Division
Office of Defects Investigation
Enforcement

U.S. Department
of Transportation
National Highway
Traffic Safety
Administration

1200 New Jersey Avenue SE
Washington, DC 20590

Via USPS Certified Mail

January 30, 2014

Stratagraph NE Inc.
ATTN: Robert Teer
116 Ellsworth Avenue
Marietta, OH 45750 US

NVS-215cg
EQ 13-006
13E-039
13E-053

Subject: Second Request for Information – Response Required

Dear Robert Teer:

On November 19, 2013, we wrote to Stratagraph NE Inc. as part of an ongoing investigation being conducted by the Office of Defect Investigations (ODI) at the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) concerning a safety issue involving 5 travel trailer door locks that were sold by Emmett Door Inc. to your company for possible installation into motor vehicles, including recreational vehicles. Your company's response to that letter was due to NHTSA within 10 days of receipt. At this time, we have not received your response.

This letter is being sent in order to remind Stratagraph NE Inc. that it must respond to the earlier letter and that your company may have additional obligations under Federal law as we explained in the earlier letter.

A written response to our earlier letter must be submitted to this office within 7 days of your receipt of this letter. Response submission may be made by US Mail to the address listed therein or by e-mail to rmd.odi@dot.gov and cynthia.glass@dot.gov. In your response, please be certain to include a reference to this matter's identification number, EQ 13-006.

If Stratagraph NE Inc. claims that any of the information or documents provided in response to this information request constitute confidential commercial material within the meaning of 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(4), or are protected from disclosure pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 1905, your company must submit supporting information together with the materials that are the subject of the confidentiality request, in accordance with 49 CFR Part 512, as amended (69 Fed. Reg. 21409 et seq; April 21, 2004), to the Office of Chief Counsel (NCC-111), National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, Room W41-227, 1200 New Jersey Avenue, S.E., Washington, D.C. 20590. Your company is required to submit two copies of the documents containing allegedly confidential information (except only one copy of blueprints) and one copy of the documents from which information claimed to be confidential has been deleted. Please remember that the word "CONFIDENTIAL" must appear at the top of each page containing information claimed to be confidential, and the information must be clearly identified in accordance with 5 U.S.C. § 512.6.

This letter is being sent to your company pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30166, which authorizes NHTSA to conduct any investigation that may be necessary to enforce Chapter 301 of Title 49. Your company's failure to respond promptly and fully to this letter could subject your company to civil penalties pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30165 or lead to an action for injunctive relief pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30163. Section 5(a) of the TREAD Act, codified at 49 U.S.C. § 30165(b), provides for civil penalties of up to $6,000 per day, with a maximum of $17,350,000 for a related series of violations, or for failing or refusing to perform an act required under 49 U.S.C. § 30166. See 49 CFR 578.6 (as amended by 75 Fed. Reg. 79978 (Dec. 21, 2010)). This includes failing to respond to ODI information requests.

I urge Stratagraph NE Inc. to comply with this information request in order to ensure that these important issues relating to motor vehicle safety are promptly addressed, and in order to avoid potential enforcement action against your company in addition to substantial penalties for failure to respond to an inquiry issued during an official investigation.

Should you have any questions regarding this inquiry, please contact Cynthia Glass of my staff at (202) 366-2920 or by e-mail at cynthia.glass@dot.gov.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Timian
Chief, Recall Management Division
Office of Defects Investigation
Enforcement

U.S. Department
of Transportation
National Highway
Traffic Safety
Administration

1200 New Jersey Avenue SE
Washington, DC 20590

Via USPS Certified Mail

January 30, 2014

Super Structures
ATTN: Leo K Delarm
PO Box 230265
Anchorage, AK 99523

NVS-215cg
EQ 13-006
13E-039
13E-053

Subject: Second Request for Information – Response Required

Dear Leo K Delarm:

On November 19, 2013, we wrote to Super Structures as part of an ongoing investigation being conducted by the Office of Defect Investigations (ODI) at the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) concerning a safety issue involving 10 travel trailer door locks that were sold by Emmett Door Inc. to your company for possible installation into motor vehicles, including recreational vehicles. Your company's response to that letter was due to NHTSA within 10 days of receipt. At this time, we have not received your response.

This letter is being sent in order to remind Super Structures that it must respond to the earlier letter and that your company may have additional obligations under Federal law as we explained in the earlier letter.

A written response to our earlier letter must be submitted to this office within 7 days of your receipt of this letter. Response submission may be made by US Mail to the address listed therein or by e-mail to rmd.odi@dot.gov and cynthia.glass@dot.gov. In your response, please be certain to include a reference to this matter's identification number, EQ 13-006.

If Super Structures claims that any of the information or documents provided in response to this information request constitute confidential commercial material within the meaning of 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(4), or are protected from disclosure pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 1905, your company must submit supporting information together with the materials that are the subject of the confidentiality request, in accordance with 49 CFR Part 512, as amended (69 Fed. Reg. 21409 et seq; April 21, 2004), to the Office of Chief Counsel (NCC-111), National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, Room W41-227, 1200 New Jersey Avenue, S.E., Washington, D.C. 20590. Your company is required to submit two copies of the documents containing allegedly confidential information (except only one copy of blueprints) and one copy of the documents from which information claimed to be confidential has been deleted. Please remember that the word "CONFIDENTIAL" must appear at the top of each page containing information claimed to be confidential, and the information must be clearly identified in accordance with 5 U.S.C. § 512.6.

This letter is being sent to your company pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30166, which authorizes NHTSA to conduct any investigation that may be necessary to enforce Chapter 301 of Title 49. Your company's failure to respond promptly and fully to this letter could subject your company to civil penalties pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30165 or lead to an action for injunctive relief pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30163. Section 5(a) of the TREAD Act, codified at 49 U.S.C. § 30165(b), provides for civil penalties of up to $6,000 per day, with a maximum of $17,350,000 for a related series of violations, or for failing or refusing to perform an act required under 49 U.S.C. § 30166. See 49 CFR 578.6 (as amended by 75 Fed. Reg. 79978 (Dec. 21, 2010)). This includes failing to respond to ODI information requests.

I urge Super Structures to comply with this information request in order to ensure that these important issues relating to motor vehicle safety are promptly addressed, and in order to avoid potential enforcement action against your company in addition to substantial penalties for failure to respond to an inquiry issued during an official investigation.

Should you have any questions regarding this inquiry, please contact Cynthia Glass of my staff at (202) 366-2920 or by e-mail at cynthia.glass@dot.gov.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Timian
Chief, Recall Management Division
Office of Defects Investigation
Enforcement

U.S. Department
of Transportation
National Highway
Traffic Safety
Administration

1200 New Jersey Avenue SE
Washington, DC 20590

Via USPS Certified Mail

January 30, 2014

TAD Recreational Vehicles
ATTN: Materials Manager
1411 N Washington Avenue
Emmett, ID 83617

NVS-215cg
EQ 13-006
13E-039
13E-053

Subject: Second Request for Information – Response Required

Dear Materials Manager:

On November 19, 2013, we wrote to TAD Recreational Vehicles as part of an ongoing investigation being conducted by the Office of Defect Investigations (ODI) at the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) concerning a safety issue involving 5 travel trailer door locks that were sold by Emmett Door Inc. to your company for possible installation into motor vehicles, including recreational vehicles. Your company's response to that letter was due to NHTSA within 10 days of receipt. At this time, we have not received your response.

This letter is being sent in order to remind TAD Recreational Vehicles that it must respond to the earlier letter and that your company may have additional obligations under Federal law as we explained in the earlier letter.

A written response to our earlier letter must be submitted to this office within 7 days of your receipt of this letter. Response submission may be made by US Mail to the address listed therein or by e-mail to rmd.odi@dot.gov and cynthia.glass@dot.gov. In your response, please be certain to include a reference to this matter's identification number, EQ 13-006.

If TAD Recreational Vehicles claims that any of the information or documents provided in response to this information request constitute confidential commercial material within the meaning of 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(4), or are protected from disclosure pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 1905, your company must submit supporting information together with the materials that are the subject of the confidentiality request, in accordance with 49 CFR Part 512, as amended (69 Fed. Reg. 21409 et seq; April 21, 2004), to the Office of Chief Counsel (NCC-111), National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, Room W41-227, 1200 New Jersey Avenue, S.E., Washington, D.C. 20590. Your company is required to submit two copies of the documents containing allegedly confidential information (except only one copy of blueprints) and one copy of the documents from which information claimed to be confidential has been deleted. Please remember that the word "CONFIDENTIAL" must appear at the top of each page containing information claimed to be confidential, and the information must be clearly identified in accordance with 5 U.S.C. § 512.6.

This letter is being sent to your company pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30166, which authorizes NHTSA to conduct any investigation that may be necessary to enforce Chapter 301 of Title 49. Your company's failure to respond promptly and fully to this letter could subject your company to civil penalties pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30165 or lead to an action for injunctive relief pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30163. Section 5(a) of the TREAD Act, codified at 49 U.S.C. § 30165(b), provides for civil penalties of up to $6,000 per day, with a maximum of $17,350,000 for a related series of violations, or for failing or refusing to perform an act required under 49 U.S.C. § 30166. See 49 CFR 578.6 (as amended by 75 Fed. Reg. 79978 (Dec. 21, 2010)). This includes failing to respond to ODI information requests.

I urge TAD Recreational Vehicles to comply with this information request in order to ensure that these important issues relating to motor vehicle safety are promptly addressed, and in order to avoid potential enforcement action against your company in addition to substantial penalties for failure to respond to an inquiry issued during an official investigation.

Should you have any questions regarding this inquiry, please contact Cynthia Glass of my staff at (202) 366-2920 or by e-mail at cynthia.glass@dot.gov.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Timian
Chief, Recall Management Division
Office of Defects Investigation
Enforcement

U.S. Department
of Transportation
National Highway
Traffic Safety
Administration

1200 New Jersey Avenue SE
Washington, DC 20590

Via USPS Certified Mail

January 30, 2014

Terry's Truck & Recreational Vehicles Accessories, Inc.
ATTN: Materials Manager
1080 Sunset Strip
Mountain Home, ID 83647

NVS-215cg
EQ 13-006
13E-039
13E-053

Subject: Second Request for Information – Response Required

Dear Materials Manager:

On November 19, 2013, we wrote to Terry's Truck & Recreational Vehicles Accessories, Inc. as part of an ongoing investigation being conducted by the Office of Defect Investigations (ODI) at the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) concerning a safety issue involving 8 travel trailer door locks that were sold by Emmett Door Inc. to your company for possible installation into motor vehicles, including recreational vehicles. Your company's response to that letter was due to NHTSA within 10 days of receipt. At this time, we have not received your response.

This letter is being sent in order to remind Terry's Truck & Recreational Vehicles Accessories, Inc. that it must respond to the earlier letter and that your company may have additional obligations under Federal law as we explained in the earlier letter.

A written response to our earlier letter must be submitted to this office within 7 days of your receipt of this letter. Response submission may be made by US Mail to the address listed therein or by e-mail to rmd.odi@dot.gov and cynthia.glass@dot.gov. In your response, please be certain to include a reference to this matter's identification number, EQ 13-006.

If Terry's Truck & Recreational Vehicles Accessories, Inc. claims that any of the information or documents provided in response to this information request constitute confidential commercial material within the meaning of 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(4), or are protected from disclosure pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 1905, your company must submit supporting information together with the materials that are the subject of the confidentiality request, in accordance with 49 CFR Part 512, as amended (69 Fed. Reg. 21409 et seq; April 21, 2004), to the Office of Chief Counsel (NCC-111), National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, Room W41-227, 1200 New Jersey Avenue, S.E., Washington, D.C. 20590. Your company is required to submit two copies of the documents containing allegedly confidential information (except only one copy of blueprints) and one copy of the documents from which information claimed to be confidential has been deleted. Please remember that the word "CONFIDENTIAL" must appear at the top of each page containing information claimed to be confidential, and the information must be clearly identified in accordance with 5 U.S.C. § 512.6.

This letter is being sent to your company pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30166, which authorizes NHTSA to conduct any investigation that may be necessary to enforce Chapter 301 of Title 49. Your company's failure to respond promptly and fully to this letter could subject your company to civil penalties pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30165 or lead to an action for injunctive relief pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30163. Section 5(a) of the TREAD Act, codified at 49 U.S.C. § 30165(b), provides for civil penalties of up to $6,000 per day, with a maximum of $17,350,000 for a related series of violations, or for failing or refusing to perform an act required under 49 U.S.C. § 30166. See 49 CFR 578.6 (as amended by 75 Fed. Reg. 79978 (Dec. 21, 2010)). This includes failing to respond to ODI information requests.

I urge Terry's Truck & Recreational Vehicles Accessories, Inc. to comply with this information request in order to ensure that these important issues relating to motor vehicle safety are promptly addressed, and in order to avoid potential enforcement action against your company in addition to substantial penalties for failure to respond to an inquiry issued during an official investigation.

Should you have any questions regarding this inquiry, please contact Cynthia Glass of my staff at (202) 366-2920 or by e-mail at cynthia.glass@dot.gov.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Timian
Chief, Recall Management Division
Office of Defects Investigation
Enforcement

U.S. Department
of Transportation
National Highway
Traffic Safety
Administration

1200 New Jersey Avenue SE
Washington, DC 20590

Via USPS Certified Mail

January 30, 2014

The Metal Company
ATTN: Materials Manager
5509 Harlan Street
Arvada, CO 80002

NVS-215cg
EQ 13-006
13E-039
13E-053

Subject: Second Request for Information – Response Required

Dear Materials Manager:

On November 19, 2013, we wrote to The Metal Company as part of an ongoing investigation being conducted by the Office of Defect Investigations (ODI) at the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) concerning a safety issue involving 68 travel trailer door locks that were sold by Emmett Door Inc. to your company for possible installation into motor vehicles, including recreational vehicles. Your company's response to that letter was due to NHTSA within 10 days of receipt. At this time, we have not received your response.

This letter is being sent in order to remind The Metal Company that it must respond to the earlier letter and that your company may have additional obligations under Federal law as we explained in the earlier letter.

A written response to our earlier letter must be submitted to this office within 7 days of your receipt of this letter. Response submission may be made by US Mail to the address listed therein or by e-mail to rmd.odi@dot.gov and cynthia.glass@dot.gov. In your response, please be certain to include a reference to this matter's identification number, EQ 13-006.

If The Metal Company claims that any of the information or documents provided in response to this information request constitute confidential commercial material within the meaning of 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(4), or are protected from disclosure pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 1905, your company must submit supporting information together with the materials that are the subject of the confidentiality request, in accordance with 49 CFR Part 512, as amended (69 Fed. Reg. 21409 et seq; April 21, 2004), to the Office of Chief Counsel (NCC-111), National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, Room W41-227, 1200 New Jersey Avenue, S.E., Washington, D.C. 20590. Your company is required to submit two copies of the documents containing allegedly confidential information (except only one copy of blueprints) and one copy of the documents from which information claimed to be confidential has been deleted. Please remember that the word "CONFIDENTIAL" must appear at the top of each page containing information claimed to be confidential, and the information must be clearly identified in accordance with 5 U.S.C. § 512.6.

This letter is being sent to your company pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30166, which authorizes NHTSA to conduct any investigation that may be necessary to enforce Chapter 301 of Title 49. Your company's failure to respond promptly and fully to this letter could subject your company to civil penalties pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30165 or lead to an action for injunctive relief pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30163. Section 5(a) of the TREAD Act, codified at 49 U.S.C. § 30165(b), provides for civil penalties of up to $6,000 per day, with a maximum of $17,350,000 for a related series of violations, or for failing or refusing to perform an act required under 49 U.S.C. § 30166. See 49 CFR 578.6 (as amended by 75 Fed. Reg. 79978 (Dec. 21, 2010)). This includes failing to respond to ODI information requests.

I urge The Metal Company to comply with this information request in order to ensure that these important issues relating to motor vehicle safety are promptly addressed, and in order to avoid potential enforcement action against your company in addition to substantial penalties for failure to respond to an inquiry issued during an official investigation.

Should you have any questions regarding this inquiry, please contact Cynthia Glass of my staff at (202) 366-2920 or by e-mail at cynthia.glass@dot.gov.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Timian
Chief, Recall Management Division
Office of Defects Investigation
Enforcement

U.S. Department
of Transportation
National Highway
Traffic Safety
Administration

1200 New Jersey Avenue SE
Washington, DC 20590

Via USPS Certified Mail

January 30, 2014

Weatherhaven Canada Resources Ltd.
ATTN: Rick Sweeney
8355 Riverbend Court
Burnaby, BC V3N 5E7 Canada

NVS-215cg
EQ 13-006
13E-039
13E-053

Subject: Second Request for Information – Response Required

Dear Rick Sweeney:

On November 19, 2013, we wrote to Weatherhaven Canada Resources Ltd. as part of an ongoing investigation being conducted by the Office of Defect Investigations (ODI) at the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) concerning a safety issue involving 1403 travel trailer door locks that were sold by Emmett Door Inc. to your company for possible installation into motor vehicles, including recreational vehicles. Your company's response to that letter was due to NHTSA within 10 days of receipt. At this time, we have not received your response.

This letter is being sent in order to remind Weatherhaven Canada Resources Ltd. that it must respond to the earlier letter and that your company may have additional obligations under Federal law as we explained in the earlier letter.

A written response to our earlier letter must be submitted to this office within 7 days of your receipt of this letter. Response submission may be made by US Mail to the address listed therein or by e-mail to rmd.odi@dot.gov and cynthia.glass@dot.gov. In your response, please be certain to include a reference to this matter's identification number, EQ 13-006.

If Weatherhaven Canada Resources Ltd. claims that any of the information or documents provided in response to this information request constitute confidential commercial material within the meaning of 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(4), or are protected from disclosure pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 1905, your company must submit supporting information together with the materials that are the subject of the confidentiality request, in accordance with 49 CFR Part 512, as amended (69 Fed. Reg. 21409 et seq; April 21, 2004), to the Office of Chief Counsel (NCC-111), National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, Room W41-227, 1200 New Jersey Avenue, S.E., Washington, D.C. 20590. Your company is required to submit two copies of the documents containing allegedly confidential information (except only one copy of blueprints) and one copy of the documents from which information claimed to be confidential has been deleted. Please remember that the word "CONFIDENTIAL" must appear at the top of each page containing information claimed to be confidential, and the information must be clearly identified in accordance with 5 U.S.C. § 512.6.

This letter is being sent to your company pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30166, which authorizes NHTSA to conduct any investigation that may be necessary to enforce Chapter 301 of Title 49. Your company's failure to respond promptly and fully to this letter could subject your company to civil penalties pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30165 or lead to an action for injunctive relief pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30163. Section 5(a) of the TREAD Act, codified at 49 U.S.C. § 30165(b), provides for civil penalties of up to $6,000 per day, with a maximum of $17,350,000 for a related series of violations, or for failing or refusing to perform an act required under 49 U.S.C. § 30166. See 49 CFR 578.6 (as amended by 75 Fed. Reg. 79978 (Dec. 21, 2010)). This includes failing to respond to ODI information requests.

I urge Weatherhaven Canada Resources Ltd. to comply with this information request in order to ensure that these important issues relating to motor vehicle safety are promptly addressed, and in order to avoid potential enforcement action against your company in addition to substantial penalties for failure to respond to an inquiry issued during an official investigation.

Should you have any questions regarding this inquiry, please contact Cynthia Glass of my staff at (202) 366-2920 or by e-mail at cynthia.glass@dot.gov.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Timian
Chief, Recall Management Division
Office of Defects Investigation
Enforcement