Subject: Second Request for Information – Response Required

Dear Materials Manager:

On November 19, 2013, we wrote to Bluegrass Trailer Sale Inc. as part of an ongoing investigation being conducted by the Office of Defect Investigations (ODI) at the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) concerning a safety issue involving 119 travel trailer door locks that were sold by Lippert Components Inc. to your company for possible installation into motor vehicles, including recreational vehicles. Your company's response to that letter was due to NHTSA within 10 days of receipt. At this time, we have not received your response.

This letter is being sent in order to remind Bluegrass Trailer Sale Inc. that it must respond to the earlier letter and that your company may have additional obligations under Federal law as we explained in the earlier letter.

A written response to our earlier letter must be submitted to this office within 7 days of your receipt of this letter. Response submission may be made by US Mail to the address listed therein or by e-mail to rmd.odi@dot.gov and cynthia.glass@dot.gov. In your response, please be certain to include a reference to this matter's identification number, EQ 13-006.

If Bluegrass Trailer Sale Inc. claims that any of the information or documents provided in response to this information request constitute confidential commercial material within the meaning of 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(4), or are protected from disclosure pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 1905, your company must submit supporting information together with the materials that are the subject of the confidentiality request, in accordance with 49 CFR Part 512, as amended (69 Fed. Reg. 21409 et seq; April 21, 2004), to the Office of Chief Counsel (NCC-111), National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, Room W41-227, 1200 New Jersey Avenue, S.E., Washington, D.C. 20590. Your company is required to submit two copies of the documents containing allegedly confidential information (except only one copy of blueprints) and one copy of the documents from which information claimed to be confidential has been deleted. Please remember that the word "CONFIDENTIAL" must appear at the top of each page containing information claimed to be confidential, and the information must be clearly identified in accordance with 5 U.S.C. § 512.6.

This letter is being sent to your company pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30166, which authorizes NHTSA to conduct any investigation that may be necessary to enforce Chapter 301 of Title 49. Your company's failure to respond promptly and fully to this letter could subject your company to civil penalties pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30165 or lead to an action for injunctive relief pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30163. Section 5(a) of the TREAD Act, codified at 49 U.S.C. § 30165(b), provides for civil penalties of up to $6,000 per day, with a maximum of $17,350,000 for a related series of violations, or for failing or refusing to perform an act required under 49 U.S.C. § 30166. See 49 CFR 578.6 (as amended by 75 Fed. Reg. 79978 (Dec. 21, 2010)). This includes failing to respond to ODI information requests.

I urge Bluegrass Trailer Sale Inc. to comply with this information request in order to ensure that these important issues relating to motor vehicle safety are promptly addressed, and in order to avoid potential enforcement action against your company in addition to substantial penalties for failure to respond to an inquiry issued during an official investigation.

Should you have any questions regarding this inquiry, please contact Cynthia Glass of my staff at (202) 366-2920 or by e-mail at cynthia.glass@dot.gov.

Subject: Second Request for Information – Response Required

Dear Materials Manager:

On November 19, 2013, we wrote to Carson Trailers as part of an ongoing investigation being conducted by the Office of Defect Investigations (ODI) at the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) concerning a safety issue involving 232 travel trailer door locks that were sold by Lippert Components Inc. to your company for possible installation into motor vehicles, including recreational vehicles. Your company's response to that letter was due to NHTSA within 10 days of receipt. At this time, we have not received your response.

This letter is being sent in order to remind Carson Trailers that it must respond to the earlier letter and that your company may have additional obligations under Federal law as we explained in the earlier letter.

A written response to our earlier letter must be submitted to this office within 7 days of your receipt of this letter. Response submission may be made by US Mail to the address listed therein or by e-mail to rmd.odi@dot.gov and cynthia.glass@dot.gov. In your response, please be certain to include a reference to this matter's identification number, EQ 13-006.

If Carson Trailers claims that any of the information or documents provided in response to this information request constitute confidential commercial material within the meaning of 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(4), or are protected from disclosure pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 1905, your company must submit supporting information together with the materials that are the subject of the confidentiality request, in accordance with 49 CFR Part 512, as amended (69 Fed. Reg. 21409 et seq; April 21, 2004), to the Office of Chief Counsel (NCC-111), National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, Room W41-227, 1200 New Jersey Avenue, S.E., Washington, D.C. 20590. Your company is required to submit two copies of the documents containing allegedly confidential information (except only one copy of blueprints) and one copy of the documents from which information claimed to be confidential has been deleted. Please remember that the word "CONFIDENTIAL" must appear at the top of each page containing information claimed to be confidential, and the information must be clearly identified in accordance with 5 U.S.C. § 512.6.

This letter is being sent to your company pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30166, which authorizes NHTSA to conduct any investigation that may be necessary to enforce Chapter 301 of Title 49. Your company's failure to respond promptly and fully to this letter could subject your company to civil penalties pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30165 or lead to an action for injunctive relief pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30163. Section 5(a) of the TREAD Act, codified at 49 U.S.C. § 30165(b), provides for civil penalties of up to $6,000 per day, with a maximum of $17,350,000 for a related series of violations, or for failing or refusing to perform an act required under 49 U.S.C. § 30166. See 49 CFR 578.6 (as amended by 75 Fed. Reg. 79978 (Dec. 21, 2010)). This includes failing to respond to ODI information requests.

I urge Carson Trailers to comply with this information request in order to ensure that these important issues relating to motor vehicle safety are promptly addressed, and in order to avoid potential enforcement action against your company in addition to substantial penalties for failure to respond to an inquiry issued during an official investigation.

If Nu Wa Industries claims that any of the information or documents provided in response to this information request constitute confidential commercial material within the meaning of 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(4), or are protected from disclosure pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 1905, your company must submit supporting information together with the materials that are the subject of the confidentiality request, in accordance with 49 CFR Part 512, as amended (69 Fed. Reg. 21409 et seq; April 21, 2004), to the Office of Chief Counsel (NCC-111), National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, Room W41-227, 1200 New Jersey Avenue, S.E., Washington, D.C. 20590. Your company is required to submit two copies of the documents containing allegedly confidential information (except only one copy of blueprints) and one copy of the documents from which information claimed to be confidential has been deleted. Please remember that the word "CONFIDENTIAL" must appear at the top of each page containing information claimed to be confidential, and the information must be clearly identified in accordance with 5 U.S.C. § 512.6.

This letter is being sent to your company pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30166, which authorizes NHTSA to conduct any investigation that may be necessary to enforce Chapter 301 of Title 49. Your company's failure to respond promptly and fully to this letter could subject your company to civil penalties pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30165 or lead to an action for injunctive relief pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30163. Section 5(a) of the TREAD Act, codified at 49 U.S.C. § 30165(b), provides for civil penalties of up to $6,000 per day, with a maximum of $17,350,000 for a related series of violations, or for failing or refusing to perform an act required under 49 U.S.C. § 30166. See 49 CFR 578.6 (as amended by 75 Fed. Reg. 79978 (Dec. 21, 2010)). This includes failing to respond to ODI information requests.

I urge Nu Wa Industries to comply with this information request in order to ensure that these important issues relating to motor vehicle safety are promptly addressed, and in order to avoid potential enforcement action against your company in addition to substantial penalties for failure to respond to an inquiry issued during an official investigation.

Subject: Second Request for Information – Response Required

Dear Materials Manager:

On November 19, 2013, we wrote to R & M Trailer Manufacturing Inc. as part of an ongoing investigation being conducted by the Office of Defect Investigations (ODI) at the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) concerning a safety issue involving 185 travel trailer door locks that were sold by Lippert Components Inc. to your company for possible installation into motor vehicles, including recreational vehicles. Your company's response to that letter was due to NHTSA within 10 days of receipt. At this time, we have not received your response.

This letter is being sent in order to remind R & M Trailer Manufacturing Inc. that it must respond to the earlier letter and that your company may have additional obligations under Federal law as we explained in the earlier letter.

A written response to our earlier letter must be submitted to this office within 7 days of your receipt of this letter. Response submission may be made by US Mail to the address listed therein or by e-mail to rmd.odi@dot.gov and cynthia.glass@dot.gov. In your response, please be certain to include a reference to this matter's identification number, EQ 13-006.

If R & M Trailer Manufacturing Inc. claims that any of the information or documents provided in response to this information request constitute confidential commercial material within the meaning of 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(4), or are protected from disclosure pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 1905, your company must submit supporting information together with the materials that are the subject of the confidentiality request, in accordance with 49 CFR Part 512, as amended (69 Fed. Reg. 21409 et seq; April 21, 2004), to the Office of Chief Counsel (NCC-111), National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, Room W41-227, 1200 New Jersey Avenue, S.E., Washington, D.C. 20590. Your company is required to submit two copies of the documents containing allegedly confidential information (except only one copy of blueprints) and one copy of the documents from which information claimed to be confidential has been deleted. Please remember that the word "CONFIDENTIAL" must appear at the top of each page containing information claimed to be confidential, and the information must be clearly identified in accordance with 5 U.S.C. § 512.6.

This letter is being sent to your company pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30166, which authorizes NHTSA to conduct any investigation that may be necessary to enforce Chapter 301 of Title 49. Your company's failure to respond promptly and fully to this letter could subject your company to civil penalties pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30165 or lead to an action for injunctive relief pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 30163. Section 5(a) of the TREAD Act, codified at 49 U.S.C. § 30165(b), provides for civil penalties of up to $6,000 per day, with a maximum of $17,350,000 for a related series of violations, or for failing or refusing to perform an act required under 49 U.S.C. § 30166. See 49 CFR 578.6 (as amended by 75 Fed. Reg. 79978 (Dec. 21, 2010)). This includes failing to respond to ODI information requests.

I urge R & M Trailer Manufacturing Inc. to comply with this information request in order to ensure that these important issues relating to motor vehicle safety are promptly addressed, and in order to avoid potential enforcement action against your company in addition to substantial penalties for failure to respond to an inquiry issued during an official investigation.

Dear Materials Manager:

On November 19, 2013, we wrote to Worldwide Trailers Manufacturing as part of an ongoing investigation being conducted by the Office of Defect Investigations (ODI) at the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) concerning a safety issue involving 216 travel trailer door locks that were sold by Lippert Components Inc. to your company for possible installation into motor vehicles, including recreational vehicles. Your company's response to that letter was due to NHTSA within 10 days of receipt. At this time, we have not received your response.

This letter is being sent in order to remind Worldwide Trailers Manufacturing that it must respond to the earlier letter and that your company may have additional obligations under Federal law as we explained in the earlier letter.

A written response to our earlier letter must be submitted to this office within 7 days of your receipt of this letter. Response submission may be made by US Mail to the address listed therein or by e-mail to rmd.odi@dot.gov and cynthia.glass@dot.gov. In your response, please be certain to include a reference to this matter's identification number, EQ 13-006.

If Worldwide Trailers Manufacturing claims that any of the information or documents provided in response to this information request constitute confidential commercial material within the meaning of 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(4), or are protected from disclosure pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 1905, your company must submit supporting information together with the materials that are the subject of the confidentiality request, in accordance with 49 CFR Part 512, as amended (69 Fed.
