Re: PE13-029; NVS 213swm

Dear Mr. Quandt:

Enclosed is Nissan's final response to the referenced NHTSA Information Request of September 12, 2013 concerning the Agency's investigation of 2013 model year Nissan Pathfinder vehicles and 2013 Infiniti JX vehicles for transmission oil cooler hose detachment.

This response covers the entire Information Request and is intended to replace the partial response of November 8th. The responses for questions 1 through 6 are the same as the partial response, and questions 7 through 13 are added.

The attached reply responds by first stating each question, then the response. Please contact us if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Donald Neff
