Agent reviewed documents submitted by customer and found customer had repairs completed at an IRF and submitted documentation showing a drag link update was installed but no part numbers listed in the documents.
Agent found customer had another repair completed at another IRF showing a Mopar steering linkage was purchased from Lithia Chrysler and installed on the vehicle.
Agent called Texas Truck Works and spoke with Scott about the customer s repairs. Scott states they always use DEMONTROND AUTO COUNTRY for steering components on Ram trucks because they are the only ones who carry the parts.
Agent called DEMONTROND AUTO COUNTRY and spoke with Parts Advisor Wayne about the IRF and the purchasing of Mopar parts. Wayne states his records are too old to print off the parts invoice but that the IRF Texas Truck Works often purchases steering linkages from the dealer and that Scott at the IRF has told him previously that he can only use Mopar parts for Ram truck steering components.
Agent is reassigning to CM for reimbursement as the customer s reimbursement request exceeds $500.
Note, repair at IRF Texas Truck Works mileage between 46280 - 67063 miles, Mopar replacement of factory parts, does not qualify for N62 reimbursement.
Repair at IRF Trucker s World should qualify for reimbursement under N62, parts cost on invoice $351.40, amount matches Dealer 45286 parts invoice less Damper.

IMPORTANT: This recall only applies to vehicles that had certain Mopar service parts steering components installed.
Subject: A Mopar service parts steering linkage may have been installed on some of the 705,000 of the above vehicles during a prior service appointment. The left tie rod ball stud on the Mopar service parts steering linkage may fracture under certain driving conditions. This could cause a loss of directional control and/or a crash without warning.
Repair: The steering linkage assembly must be inspected and replaced if required.
NOTE: The initial steering linkage inspection process can be done by write-up personnel in the write-up area (see Section A. of the service procedure). Vehicles found with original style steering linkage can be immediately returned to the customer.
Customer has submitted documents involving replacement of steering linkage to the upgraded kit (12/13/2012).
Chrysler cost assisted this repair where there was an agreed upon 50/50 split. Writer is not reimbursing Customer for the initial repair to his factory original equipment as that is not what the N62 recall covers.

(Nor are we going to back out of an agreement).
CUSTOMER CONTACT: Writer called [redacted]. Writer provided case # and US CAC for contact.
AGENTS - Please explain the N62 recall to Customer. Chrysler is looking for replacement/MOPAR parts only, so if this is the first and only repair that Customer has had on vehicle involving the steering reimbursement. The vehicle now has replacement parts so Chrysler should inspect those. Customer should be advised to have all recalls and extended warranties completed at CDJR as per the owners Manual.

customer, customer understood. Agent advised customer to contact dealer for inspection and recall repair If required.

Customer called back in response to the email she received from KH484 because she doesn t fully understand what more she is being asked for or why she isn t able to speak to KH484 directly since she is the emailing her. Agent advised essentially what we need to see if something that shows the steering linkage (ie tie rods) have been replaced with Mopar service replacement parts. Agent advised after viewing the receipts it doesn t state that the steering linkage was replaced on the vehicle.
Agent advised it states a steering kit was installed but not what the contained. Customer admitted that the tie rods were not replaced as far as she knows. Agent advised without that documentation showing steering linkage was replaced no reimbursement could be processed
No further action required.
REIMBURSEMENT DECLINED

Customer has an update to her case and customer now states that her dealer SA Trevor Corbridge(Larry H Miller CDJR) says all the part numbers for this Mopar replacement damper steering part#5154661AC has a breakdown for all the Mopar replaced parts installed and customer states that he says this should be covered as all parts should be reimbursed for this.
Customer stated that KH484 can contact Trevor Corbridge in the service department at Larry H Miller CDJR at Tel: 801-553-5550 to verify this update and see that customer is able to be reimbursed.
Agent advised customer that reimbursement has been declined but customer is adamant that there is an update as per last call on 02/03/2014 (JG1781) and the above details are the update.
Customer also stated that her dealership stated there is another recall on the original recall.

The drag link inner joint may fracture under certain driving conditions. This could result in a loss of steering control and cause a crash without warning. Also, the steering damper bracket at the tie rod tube may loosen. This could allow the bracket to slide on the tube and may cause increased vehicle turning radius.
The steering linkage must be inspected and some steering linkage components may need to be replaced.
NOTE: The initial steering linkage inspection process can be done by write up personnel in the write up area (see Step 1 of the service procedure). Vehicles found with original style steering linkage can be immediately returned to the customer.

Briefly summarize why the customer is contacting Chrysler: Customer states he had vehicle towed to dealer (45643) for recall N49 repair. Customer states the tire on his vehicle is flat (see CAIR#[redacted]8) due to tie rod breaking. Customer states his tire was not flat when the tie rod broke but now is flat and believes that damage was caused by tie rod. Briefly summarize what the customer is expecting: Customer seeking cost assistance for tire replacement.

Agent advised customer any consequential damage is not covered by the recall. Agent advised recall covers the replacement of the recalled parts only. Agent advised customer Chrysler will not assist is the cost of replacing the tire.

Customer has requested Supervisor callback

CAIR assigned to: SG893
CSR has informed customer a Supervisor callback request has been made and the customer will receive a callback within 24 hours.
Supervisor Call
Supervisor placed call to customer at requested number [redacted]
Supervisor spoke to Mr.[redacted] who is seeking consequential expenses because his tie rod allegedly caused damage to his tire. Supervisor asked if his tires had recently been replaced as there was a previous call in approximately 6000 miles ago due to excessive wear. Customer stated he has not had any tire replacements on his vehicle. Supervisor outlined page 4 of the owners warranty manual which does advise we do not cover consequential expenses. Supervisor also outlined that tires have a specific 12/12 warranty. Supervisor reviewed road blocks in place 3rd owner, pre existing tire condition, and expired tire warranty. Customer understood but was not happy and requested to review with someone higher. Customer states he has photos from the bent tie rod before it snapped and caused the alleged damage. Supervisor advised he can speak directly with the SM who may reach out to his AM if he feels its warranted.

* * * * GOODWILL ASSISTANCE HAS BEEN DECLINED * * * *
Informed customer that Chrysler will not participate in the repair.
The vehicle warranty has expired by time and/or mileage.
Unless the customer offers new information, decision remains unchanged.
* *
2/5/14 AM inspected vehicle and tires. the two from tires were completely worn due to normal wear and not by the tie rod recall. Both tires exhibited the same wear, mostly in the center out to the sides of the tread indicative of an over-inflation condition. AM concurs with the decision on line 45. djo1
Customer called back in to request we replace the tires and rims of his vehicle as they were damaged by the recall. Agent advised the customer that the damage to the tires was inspected and determined to be caused by normal wear and that any damage caused by the recall other than the affected component would be consequential damage which is not covered by the recall. Customer was very upset and disconnected.

Customer is very unhappy with the backorder of the part. Briefly summarize why the customer is contacting Chrysler: Customer states he is trying to submit for reimbursement for the N62 recall. Customer states there has been two repairs done to the tie rods. Customer states he was contacted and was told he could not submit for reimbursement
Briefly summarize what the customer is expecting: Customer seeking reimbursement
Agent advised customer of the information in the previous outbound cair [redacted] in which the customer was told This recall only applies to vehicles that had certain Mopar service parts steering components installed. Customer would have to have a previous repair on the tie roads as the recall is for the Mopar replacement part. If customer has an invoice that shows he had previous repair on the tie rod writer submit for reimbursement. Writer reviewed the file and noticed the customer has the H46 recall and the vehicle was only inspected no parts were placed on the vehicle. Customer will have to provide a previous repair order on the steering linkage.
Agent advised customer if he has documentation that proves there was a MOPAR steering linkage placed in the vehicle that required a repair he may be eligible for the reimbursement
Customer states he believes he has the proper paperwork
Agent advised customer we can make no guarantees but will send a documentation request
Customer understood and thanked agent
Reassign to 86Y
Waiting for Documentation.
 Customer Document Received *****
After reviewing the Documentation the Agent found that the MOPAR Parts that were installed would only work with the Original (Factory) Style Steering Linkage.

The recall (N62) only applies to vehicles that already had a MOPAR Steering Linkage Upgrade Kit installed. After review the Agent found that the vehicle had the Original (Factory) Style Steering Linkage at the time of the repair.
Chrysler will not be able to reimburse for the repairs at this time.

Recall - N62: LEFT OUTER TIE ROD ASSEMBLY - Information Request	possible reimbursement

Briefly summarize why the customer is contacting Chrysler:
Customer stated That prior to receiving the N62 recall letter , the left tie rod broke , he purchased an OEM kit from a Chrysler dealership in Cincinnati, OHIO and had it installed.
Customer seeking reimbursement for th left tie rod and the components he had to replace, and the tire alignment.
Agent referred to AC id Answer ID 24057 and advised customer the truck needs to be taken to an authorized Chrysler dealership to inspect the front end. If the dealerships states that the original factory installed left front tie rod end assembly is intact the N62 recall is complete.
If and only if the dealership sees that there is a MOPAR left front tie rod assembly, then the only part that falls under the N62 recall is left tie rod ball stud . Agent also advised customer that he would have to submit an original repair order to verify that the dealership inspected the truck, then there may be possible reimbursement.
Agent advised that Chrysler would not be reimbursing for a tire alignment as that would fall under maintainence. Agent also advised customer that there would be no reimbursement for the left tie rod end.
Briefly summarize what the customer is expecting: Recall reimbursement.

Recall - N62: LEFT OUTER TIE ROD ASSEMBLY -	customer called in about being rejected

Briefly summarize why the customer is contacting Chrysler: Customer called in regarding the n62 recall. Customer upset that he drove to the dealership which is quite far to be turned away after 5 mins stating he did not qualify. The dealership advised based on the inspection he did not qualify and was good to go. Customer generally works with an IRF so he stopped there and he asked them to check it over and they told him he needs tie rod replacement. Customer wanted to know why he did not qualify. Agent advised that letter specifically states This recall only applies to vehicles that had certain Mopar service parts steering components installed, which customer did however the note also states your dealer will inspect the steering linkage on your truck and replace steering linkage components if required. The inspection will take less than hour. Agent advised that due to the parts nuts and bolts, dealership is able to see if replacement is necessary. Customer does not believe letter is clear, because it applies to his name and vin specifically. Agent advised name and vin are included in the event of one or more make and model vehicles in the same home.
Briefly summarize what the customer is expecting: Customer is expecting to have a clearer letter, if it may or may not include his vehicle that needs to be perfectly noted. Customer also wondered what would happen if the tie rods did break after dealership turned him away.

Recall - N49: LEFT TIE ROD -	Recall inquiry
Corporate - Survey By-Pass - No Diagnosis - Default - Default	no repair, recall parts -no diagnosis

Briefly summarize why the customer is contacting Chrysler: Customer called for recall information. Customer stated he received a notice in the mail for the N49 LEFT TIE ROD recall so he called the dealer on January 6, 2014 and was advised they had no parts to call back around January 26, 2014 and they should have the parts then. Customer stated he waited till the 27th and is being advised they are able to order the parts but would be about a month before the parts come in. Agent advised the parts to complete the recall are on restriction and are only able to order 1/7 days.
Agent called the dealer and spoke with SA Ed who seemed to be confused on what customer he was dealing with. SA at first stated the customer s vehicle has been completed and is being aligned at this time. Agent advised the customer and he stated that was incorrect that he had his vehicle at home. Agent advised SA Ed he was commenting on the wrong vehicle so he changed his information that he remembers the customer that he was in this morning and was added to the list. SA stated the customer had a repair done due to the tie rod breaking and was replaced with after market parts. Agent advised the information to the customer and he stated he has not had any other repairs done the information was incorrect.
Agent advised to continue working with the dealer to see what they are able to do for him due to all the confusing information. AS per the SA the customer s name was added to the list for parts.
Briefly summarize what the customer is expecting: Customer seeking recall completed.

I first tried to get my recalls taken care of at Jack Powell Chy, but they just gave me lip service. So I contacted Carl Burger who is closer to home, and am being told I m number 18 of a list of 90 to get my recalls taken care of. They stated that the factory/corporation is only issuing 1 recall part per week, per dealership. Is that true? Furthermore the latest recall has to do with replacing my tierod that could break at any time causing loss of steering control by your own posting. I have had this truck 2.5 years now and for whatever reason have not even been able to get the wiper bottle replaced under recall. There seems to be a major disconnect between your corporation , servicing agents and customer service. Please respond.

Thanks for the call .sorry I missed it. I m sure you were going to tell me that I m on a list and to be patient. I will be patient for a while although I still find it hard to believe that 1 recall part, per dealer, per week is a solution most would agree with. Hope the steering link doesn t break on any of the 200k+ trucks running around the country. Being a lifelong (39 years)Aircraft maintenance person with extensive repair experience, I have a hard time accepting Chryslers recall posture.

What if aircraft Mfgs decided to fix 1 plane a week and keep flying the others. That s why they ground planes and authorize repair parts to be manufactured to meet the demand as opposed to 1 a week and hope no one gets hurt. I am documenting My concern just in case I become the one whos steering breaks. Thanks for your concern , I know your not the one making the corp. decisions.

Corporate - Survey By-Pass - No Diagnosis - Default - Default	no repair, recall parts

Briefly summarize why the customer is contacting Chrysler: Customer called for recall information. Customer stated back in 2012 he had the L16 LEFT TIE ROD END recall completed. Customer stated he was advised there was nothing wrong and didn t need anything done and sent on his way. Customer stated the left tie rod end just broke on his vehicle and wanted to see about getting fixed. Agent advised he did have the L16 recall that may apply with this concern. Agent advised the customer of the new open recall N62 LEFT OUTER TIE ROD ASSEMBLY which requires an inspection of the vehicle to see if requires completion of the recall.
Agent called the dealer and spoke with SA Jason that stated in 2012 when the customer came in for the L16 recall the dealership preformed the test and torque the track bar mounting bolt as per the requirements. SM Chris stated before saying how any of the recall and coverage would affect the customer the vehicle would have to be brought in for diagnosis.
Agent advised the customer as per the SM to which he stated there may be a $200 charge for the tow. Customer stated he may have his son complete the repair and bring the vehicle in with the pieces and see what the SM has to say. Agent offered the case number and advised if he required any further information or assistance to call.
Briefly summarize what the customer is expecting: Customer seeking recall information.

Customer [redacted] called.
Confirmed COIN.
He stated he is in California, this vehicle has tie rod end failure, caused tire damage, the vehicle is at local IRF Les Schwab and repairs are almost finished. He stated he called home last night and was advised N62 notice had come in the mail.
There is a CDJ dealer about a mile away, but repairs are almost complete.
Customer is original owner and stated there was not previous repair to replace factory parts with Mopar replacement parts.
Writer advised N62 is only on Mopar replacement parts. Writer suggested he make sure IRF Les Schwab details reason for tire repair on the invoice in case recall comes out on the factory parts, but N62 will not cover cost of repairs.

Recall - H46: STEERING LINKAGE - Advise Owner/Incomplete Recall	Advised customer of recall
Recall - N62: LEFT OUTER TIE ROD ASSEMBLY - Advise Owner/Incomplete Recall	Customer seeking information
Corporate - Reimbursement - Status Request - Default - Default	Customer seeking reimbursement on Tie Rod part
Corporate - Survey By-Pass - Default - Default - Default

Briefly summarize why the customer is contacting Chrysler: Customer called in seeking reimbursement for the Tie Rod part. Customer states that four days before he received the N46 recall for the Tie Rod the customer was pulling out of his driveway and the Tie Rod broke.
Briefly summarize what the customer is expecting: Customer seeking reimbursement.
Customer states that he is seeking reimbursement because a recall was issued four days after he had to replace his Tie Rod on his truck.
Customer took vehicle to dealership recently and was told that the customer will have to wait five weeks for the recall to be completed due to a waiting period for the part. Customer is seeking why there is such a long wait when it is such an important part. Customer states he is concerned because he does have two children and does not want anything bad to happen while he is waiting for the part to come in.
Agent advised the customer that each part takes a period of time to come in (1 part for every 7-14 days) and because it is a large recall for so many vehicles, the factories can only make so many so fast and they have to send an equal amount to all the dealerships so unfortunately there is a waiting period. Agent advised the customer that the agent would document all the customers concerns.
Agent provided the customer with the reimbursement information
Answer Connect ID: 17420
Agent advised the customer that it is a 60 day processing period.
Agent provided the customer with his case number incase the customer has any questions, concerns and information for us. Agent also advised the customer that he also has the H46 recall on his vehicle.
Customer seemed satisfied with all of this information and thanked the agent.

Writer received a call from the customer, [redacted] on 04/29/14 @ 10:15am in regards to the recall parts availability. The customer stated that the dealer keeps pushing his name in the list of lined up customer s further and further back which is making him upset. He has requested a return call from writer.

Writer contacted the Saratoga dealer at 518-584-1821 at 9:15am and spoke with the SA, Sean. He thanked writer for the added assistance.

Writer contacted the Corwin dealer at 701-282-5600 at 9:50am and inquired about the customer and the N62 list to ensure that the customer is on the list. He stated that from the information he has the customer is not on their list and it will not be until June before they have parts. Writer thanked him for the information.

Agent advised customer that since it s not a warranty concern and just a recall, he may not get reimbursed for that. Agent gave him the reimbursement address anyways and said to mail it in and he may or may not get reimbursed.
Customer called back in stating that he would like to be reimbursed for the tow bill that he has. Customer states that his tie rod broke while driving and had to be towed into the dealership. Agent advised the customer that we see that he has already been advised that this is something that we normally do not reimburse for and advised him that the previous agent gave him information on how to mail in his information to us. Agent advised the customer that he would need to do this in order for us to even look into reimbursing him. Customer understood.

Briefly summarize why the customer is contacting Chrysler: Customer states that his vehicle is being towed to DLR as tie rod broke but DLR does not have part in stock.
Briefly summarize what the customer is expecting: Customer seeking part or rental
Agent advised customer that agent would call customer back once Tim calls back.
NEXT AGENT: Please ask Tim to provide part needed and eta for part. Please ask Tim if DLR will be trying to provide rental for customer.
SA Tim Casey
They don t know what parts they need or if they are available the vehicle has not been to the dealership. SA stated that it is suspected to be the N49 recall and there is no ETA at this time due to restriction.
No Goodwill for rental outside warranty can give them an Enterprise car not covered Agent advised customer to go to wait until vehicle is at DLR so it can be determined exactly what part is needed. Customer states he will be seeking reimbursement for previous part as he replaced this already.
Agent provided reimbursement information if DLR declines. Agent advised to contact back if any further assistance is needed with parts.
SA Tim states that the steering linkage is hanging loose. The DLR has yet to diagnose the issue but figures it s in relation to the N49 recall that is on the vehicle. The SM is aware there is a really steep restriction of 1 part every 7 days. SM Tim said that after diagnosis, he will call back give an update and know what parts will be needed to repair.
NEXT AGENT
Please get the diagnosis from SM Tim and collect the parts that will be needed.

Briefly summarize why the customer is contacting Chrysler: Customer is contacting Chrysler because his tirerod broke off his truck and had to have it towed to Automax Chrysler Dodge Jeep Ram. Customer stated that he spoke with SW Justin, and showed him the recall notice and Justin told him that they will not cover the tirerod under the recall and that he would have to pay $900 plus to get the tire rod fixed. Agent called over to the dealership (740) 369-9611 and spoke with Justin and he stated that he does not have to fix the tire rod under the recall. Truck recall
 END EMAIL BRIEF DESCRIPTION CONTENT *****
I was notified in mid December that my truck was being recalled for a tie rod issue. I was told to not contact a dealer until after January 6th to schedule a fix- which I did. Since then, the part has been back ordered and my truck is definitely part of the recall after it was inspected. How can a safety recall be issued and RAM not have enough parts to fix all affected vehicles?? It seems there was plenty of warning since the recall was issued with lots of notice. I am not driving my truck and haven t since it was in for inspection and confirmed. Again, WHY are these parts not available when you know the recall was about to happen and X number of trucks were involved??? BTW, I ve had a friend with a truck that this part did break, so I m not taking any chances- just want to be able to use my pickup.

Dear [redacted]
Thank you for contacting the Ram Assistance Center.
Chrysler is working diligently with our dealerships to have parts available for this repair. Dealerships are able to order a certain amount of parts, per week, to ensure that every dealership is able to order their fair share. What I d like to do is call your dealership and confirm that they have placed an order for these parts. At which dealership did you request to have the repair performed/parts ordered?
Thanks again for your email.
Sincerely,

Waldorf Dodge, Waldorf Maryland. In the future, maybe a stockpile of recall parts before the recall is issued would be a good idea- especially when you give so much notice that it is coming and it involves a loss of control possibility. The dealer keeps telling me the parts are showing back order and that they have been ordered.

Dear[redacted]
Thank you for contacting the Ram Assistance Center.
Chrysler is working diligently with our dealerships to have parts available for this repair. Dealerships are able to order a certain amount of parts, per week, to ensure that every dealership is able to order their fair share. I have contacted your dealership and spoke with the service department who stated that your name is on the list to have the recall parts ordered. Once your name comes up on the list, the dealership will ordered the parts on your behalf. I do apologize for the inconvenience, but this would be the only way to obtain the parts.
Thanks again for your email.

Reassigning to KG363 for survey by pass
Harper,
I understand this. The dealer has told me this all along.
Let me reiterate my point with contacting you in the first place- DODGE SHOULD HAVE HAD ALL THE PARTS NEEDED TO SEND TO THE DEALERS IMMEDIATELY UPON ISSUING A SAFETY RECALL SO THERE WAS NO WAIT TIME. I am going on 2 months waiting and I think I was about number 7 on the list I was shown at the dealer. I m not asking to be moved up or have preferential treatment. If this were a small issue like a defective radio, then the way it is happening might be ok. BUT, this is a loss of control issue. The supplier making these parts should have switched the factory to just make this part until enough were made to fix every truck concerned. Please pass this to the supervisors or RAM higher ups because it is a foul on their part. Thank you.

Contact Information Declined.
Mr. [redacted] i called to speak with their Case Manager. Transferred the customer to PS631 at ext 66288, because KM853 was not available.
Customer called to state his truck is at the dealer (#43272) for failure of the front end of the truck going out. Customer states this is the 2nd time in about 5 months he s had problems with the front end, stating the first time was related to the recall #N62, which customer paid for out of pocket at an IRF. Writer advised customer reimbursement can be offered for the recall repair. Customer states that dealer #43272 is advising him the current repair will be about $1000, but customer feels he should not have to pay for this repair, because it s so much more than the repair on the recall, and it s (allegedly) the same concern, and would rather be assisted with this repair, than reimbursed for the recall repair.
Driver s side went out about 5 months ago, passenger s side now broken.
Writer advised customer CM can contact dealer to see if goodwill can be offered, but no promise of assistance was made, and CM will speak with dealer and contact him no later than tomorrow for assistance decision.
Writer contacted dealer 43272 at 609 871 2800. Service manager: Kevin.
Writer advised Kevin of customers concerns with the truck. Writer advised that the outer tie rod broke about 5 months ago and now the other side has broken. Writer advised Kevin the customer states that the repair will cost about $1000.00 to complete. Kevin states he will get information together and call back or email information to writer. Writer provided contact information and email address.
CONTACT UPDATE - 1st Contact attempt, phone number dialed [redacted]
Writer advised the customer that writer has contacted the dealer but do not have the information that writer needs to move forward with the customers request. The customer states that this is the 2nd time he has almost crashed his truck. The customer states he never received the recall notice and when the 1st time the truck broke he took it to his mechanic. The customer has since done research and found that this is a recall and it is for the left outer tie rod. The customer feels that he should not have to pay for this repair due to the recall. The call dropped for no apparent reason.
Writer contacted customer back at [redacted]. The customer states that the dealer advised the customer that the dealer can order the parts and get the repair done now or he would have to wait until next week. Writer advised the customer that if the customer needs the truck and has to pay for the repair that writer can look at the repair order and if possible reimburse the customer. Writer made no promise of reimbursement at this time. Writer advised that writer would do everything possible to assist the customer in getting this issue resolved. Writer will contact the customer back on 2/21/14. Customer agrees.
Edward Kownacki called requesting to speak to CM KM853. Writer advised customer that CM KM853 is not currently available and warm transferred customer to CM DJ288 for further handling.
Writer took call and wanted to know if there is any contact with the dealer. Writer reviewed lines 66-72 and advised the customer that his CM is waiting on pricing information. Customer is okay with update and advised his CM can contact him by phone or email.
Mrs. [redacted] vehicle owner s wife, called to speak with KM853. Writer transferred call to KM853 at x66029.
Customer s wife Tracey contacted writer. The dealer called the customer on Saturday and asked if the customer was getting the car fixed. The dealer stated that the dealer was working with CAC. The customer feels that this is not something that the customer did and that the customer should not be responsible for the cost of the repair on the other side now. Writer advised that the writer would be contacting the dealer for additional information. Writer advised that writer would contact the customer back today. 2/24/14. Customer agrees.

Writer contacted dealer 43272 at 609-871-2800. Service manager: Kevin. Aaron is taking all calls for Kevin today: Current mileage on vehicle is not available Kevin has 70,000, point of failure? Ball joint fell apart and fell out. Due to a manufacture defect? Wear and tear, or any possible issue. This is not something the dealer is will to assist on.
MRS. KOWNACKI called to speak with CM KM853. With customer s permission, writer transferred customer to CM s voice mail, as CM is not currently available.
[redacted] called requesting to speak to CM KM853. Writer warm transferred customer to CM for further handling.
Customer contacted writer for information on cost assistance. Writer advised the customer that the vehicle is too far out of warranty for the dealer to assist the customer. Writer advised that if the customer has the repair completed and pays for that repair the customer can then submit the documents to writer for reimbursement review. No promise of reimbursement was given.
Next follow up will be no later than Friday 2/28/14.
The customer s wife [redacted] contact writer and states: The customer was told that the dealer could not lie for the customer, however the customer never asked the dealer to lie about anything and did not understand why the dealer would say something like that to the customer. The customer was made to feel very uncomfortable by the dealer personnel. The dealer was told that this was a used truck and that the writer would never reimburse the customer for the cost of the repairs. The customer states that this was a certified pre owned vehicle. The customer states that she does not feel that the dealer has her back. The customer states that the dealer was condescending and unprofessional in working with the customer. The customer asked the dealership personnel what the opinion was to have the same exact break down on both sides of the vehicle, the dealership told the customer this is not usual. The dealer kept telling the customer over and over that the original owner used the truck for work and not just personal use. The dealer told the customer that this is why the dealer feels that this current repair could be nothing more than normal wear and tear. The customer states that her personal mechanic is willing to do the repair for almost the cost the dealer is doing the repair for. The customer wants to know if she goes to her mechanic can she submit just the paper work for the first repair that was for the recall that the customer never received the notification for. Writer advised that yes the customer can do it that way, but the dealer needs to complete the recall and replace the parts for that recall. Writer encourage the customer to use the dealership for the current repair that needs to be completed and that writer would review those documents for possible reimbursement. The customer understood.

Recall - N62: LEFT OUTER TIE ROD ASSEMBLY - Information Request	Information on recall

Briefly summarize why the customer is contacting Chrysler:Customer called in to find out about any recalls that may be on the vehicle
Briefly summarize what the customer is expecting:Customer expects information on any recalls.
CAC advised of the open recall. CAC advised that the recall was for a replacement part and a previous repair would need to have been completed. Customer stated he was very certain that there was a previous repair in 2011. Customer asked if there was any towing available. CAC advised that there is no towing on the vehicle but to contact the dealership and they may have something in place. Customer understood.
Customer called stating that his vehicle was in his driveway. Customer states that the tie-rod snapped. Agent called OUTTEN CHRYSLER DODGE JEEP RAM 610-562-5174 and spoke to SA Eli who advised that the steering linkage was inspected, not replaced on 7/27/2009. Agent advised customer that the N62 recall is in direct relation to the H46. Customer states that his steering linkage was replaced. Agent verified that there was a lot of front end work done to the vehicle but nothing that signifies he had the steering linkage replaced.
Briefly summarize why the customer is contacting Chrysler: Customer states that he spoke with Eli at Outten (45158) and had been advised that the steering linkage was replaced previously and that is the concern that would have been covered under the warranty.
Briefly summarize what the customer is expecting: To have his vehicle towed to the dealership and have the tow covered under the recall.
Writer contacted Outten Chrysler Dodge Jeep Ram (45158) and spoke with Eli (Service Advisor). Writer was advised that the dealership did replaced the steering linkage with the updated linkage on July 5, 2011 at 80,789 miles.
Writer advised customer that Eli feels 99% sure that the repair needed would be covered under the recall however; we would be unable to cover the towing bill. Customer understood and was satisfied.

SA Russell from FULLERTON CHRYSLER JEEP DODGE RAM DLR CODE 66932 states the vehicle was towed in and has the N62 recall.
SA states the tie rod broke, which in turn punctured the tire and broke the rim.
SA states he is requesting that Chrysler cover the cost of consequesial damages for the customer.
Agent advised we are not able to approve consequesial damage repairs and apologized.
SA thanked agent and advised customer will likely call back.
Customer called and stated that he is not happy with the decision that was provided and is seeking to have assistance to have his consequesial damages covered by RAM as he stated that he would not need the repairs had the tie rod not broke and punctured the tire and broke the rim. The customer stated that he was going to seek further assistance. The agent provided the customer with the Ram website as the customer was seeking an email address.
Customer called and stated that he is not happy with the decision that SM Russ stated that the vehicle was towed in to the DLR and that the tie rod had broke and that it had damaged the rim and the tire. SA Russ stated that he had reached out to his DM and that the DM declined to cover the cost. SA Russ stated that they will be giving the customer a 15% discount. Agent advised customer that unfortunately we would not be able to assist the customer with cost assistance for the repair. Agent advised customer that the SM Russ would is giving him a 15% discount on the entire repair for the rim and the tire. Customer is very disappointed with this answer.

Writer notes that the customer s recalled component: N62-tie-rod failed and caused consequential damages to the customer s rim and tire, which he stated was only 4 months old.
Writer notes that the dealership provided the customer with a 15% discount on the above noted repairs.
The SA, Russ stated within the case file that the DM was consulted in reference to the customer s request for coverage for the rim and tire, however, further assistance was declined by the DM.

The customer feels that had it not been for the tie-rod failing, he would not require the rim & tire, and feels that we should be covering the cost for him.
Writer also notes that the customer is currently the original owner of this 1 of 3 new vehicles, with an expired MVP; however, the vehicle does have 157,874 miles as per the repair invoice.

Writer will concur with the decision made by the DM to provide the customer with their 15% discount on the required repairs.
Customer Document Reviewed.

Writer contacted the customer [redacted] at 6:35pm and spoke with Mr. [redacted]. Writer advised him that his information has been received and reviewed and due to the fact that the DM was involved in the case file, writer would not be able to override or change a decision made by our District Manager s due to the fact that they are fully empowered by Dodge to make these types of decisions. Mr. [redacted] advised writer that he made contact with Corporate Dodge and he was advised by this department that no assistance would be provided, however, upon the dealership seeing the failure of the component, they felt that the customer s repairs should have been covered thus the 15% discount. Writer advised him that if he did speak with Corporate Dodge and they made this decision to decline any further cost assistance, then writer would not be able to override or change these decisions. Mr. [redacted] advised writer that he would be perusing this further and wanted the decline in writing. Writer advised him that this request will have to fully document and advised him that his request would need to be in writing. So as per ACDoc#23256 writers advised him that an email will be provided to him and that he can respond to this email correspondence with his request for this information to be provided in writing. The customer understood and stated that he would wait for the email and he also requested any phone contact information that writer has to reach corporate, and writer advised him that I would provide the information that is privy to writer.

Mr. [redacted] also advised writer that he never did receive any recall notices regarding the N62, and he was at the dealership many times before this incident, and no one advised him of this recall, so this further disappointed him also.
Writer empathized with his position as a consumer, but advised him that the decision cannot be changed.
He advised writer that he would be taking this further.
Writer advised him that the direction moving forward would be his choice, however, writer could not comment.

Briefly summarize why the customer is contacting Chrysler:
Customer called stating that the tie rod broke and there is a recall on the vehicle and H46 for the steering linkage and the N62 for the outer left tie rod assembly. Customer states that he put the Steering gear box with a Mopar part. Customer states that he wants to be reimbursed for the N62 recall for the tie rod repairs that he had replaced at an IRF because that is where the tow truck towed his vehicle when the tie rods broke off while driving. Customer states that he did not know there was a recall for the tie rods or he would have had the vehicle towed to Hunter Dodge and had the recall completed there. Agent gave the customer the part numbers and advised him that if the part numbers that he had replaced match the part number that we would put on the vehicle for the recall we will review the file for possible reimbursement. Customer states that he will send in the documents for the repairs that he had. Agent also advised customer that since he did not have the H46 recall completed than more than likely we would have returned the vehicle back to him after the inspection due to the vehicle having the original style steering linkage. Customer states that he replaced the steering assembly though after he bought the vehicle so it doesn t have original style linkage. Agent advised customer that there is no guarantee that we can reimburse him for the repairs.

Briefly summarize why the customer is contacting Chrysler: Customer is contacting CAC to inquire about the status of the N49 recall parts.
Briefly summarize what the customer is expecting: Customer is expecting to learn when the recall parts will be available.
Customer states he had the recall inspection performed at NEW COUNTRY AUTO CENTER 44526 and he does require the replacement tie rod part. Customer states that the local NAPA parts store has the tie rod available and is inquiring if he can use that part instead of waiting for the Mopar tie rod. Customer states he is seeking a loaner vehicle if he has to wait a long time for the part to come in.
Agent contacted NEW COUNTRY AUTO CENTER 44526 at 970-565-3748 and spoke with Josh in Service. Josh states that the customer is 12th on the list, and with a restriction of 1 part a week, the customer s part will arrive in 12 weeks or less as the allowance may increase. The dealership declined a loaner vehicle as they are currently overloaded with requests due to this recall. Agent provided the customer s phone number to Josh in service so that he could be contacted as soon as his part becomes available. Agent relayed this information to the customer; customer unhappy with wait time and the decline of a loaner vehicle. Customer states that if something happens to him and his wife while they are driving the vehicle due to this unrepaired recall, he will be contacting his attorney.

Customer stated that he was returning call and thought that CA wanted to know if recall and repairs were completed. Customer stated that they got everything done and asked if he was being reimbursed for the towing.

Writer informed customer that there did not seem to be anything holding the reimbursement back after being advised that he paid cash for the tow and that it looked like the CA was wanting to speak to customer about something else as well.
Customer stated that this was the 14th or 15th time in for the CEL light and that it was very frustrating. Customer stated that he received a letter from an attorney trying to get owners together that are having these same issues to get new vehicles or a settlement. Customer stated that he wanted to advise Ram that this was happening and that he had not been the one to contact the attorney.
Writer informed customer that it looked like the reason that the CA was wanting to speak to customer was to offer some compensation for how many times that he has had to take vehicle in, for the time and fuel that it takes, to help with the frustration.
Writer informed customer that the case would be left open for a little while to see how repairs are and that CA would contact customer by 3/10.

 EMAIL BRIEF DESCRIPTION CONTENT *****
2010 Dodge Ram Pickup Tie Rods
 END EMAIL BRIEF DESCRIPTION CONTENT *****
I own a 2010 Dodge Ram pickup and I have received a recall letter on the left tie rod. I attempted to have the truck repaired in Great Falls, MT in December but they told me it would be 2 months. I needed to travel to Arizona and now the dealers in Arizona are telling me it will be another two months. I have MoPar insurance on my truck and the insurance covers all breakdowns and repairs and the insurance coverage says you are liable. My truck is making knocking noises when I turn and I believe the tie rod is already fractured. We just serviced the truck and the dealer told us the tie rod definitely needed replacing. I need to have this vehicle repaired and not only have I purchased insurance but with the recall there is additional urgency. I spent over 5 hours on the phone this afternoon with dealers, MoPar Insurance and customer service with absolutely no resolution. I have consulted with legal counsel and will be holding Dodge Ram liable if there is an accident since I am receiving no satisfaction either as a part of the insurance coverage or the recall. I need to travel back to Montana in 2 weeks and believe there must be parts available some where that can be shipped to Phoenix to resolve this very dangerous issue.

This recall is for a MOPAR 'replacement part'.
The vehicle had to have been in for service and had the steering linkage replaced with MOPAR service parts prior to the one customer is seeking reimbursement for in order to be entitled to reimbursement.
Customer should have the vehicle inspected to see if MOPAR replacement parts were installed during this repair and dealer will determine if a repair is necessary under the N62 recall.
Unless customer can provide a repair invoice showing prior service N62 recall reimbursement does not apply to their vehicle and reimbursement will be denied.

transmission failure
 END EMAIL BRIEF DESCRIPTION CONTENT *****
The recall notice on my left front tire ride said to wait to bring it in after the holidays. The failed tie rod caused my left front tire to wear improperly causing excessive vibration which led to a cracked transmission. At only 84000 the transmission case shouldn t have cracked of course the warranty doesnt cover it. The tie rod failure not only fracked my transmission it ruined my left front tire. Dodge should stand behind their trucks. They shouldnt call them heavy duty.

SA Brian from Benson dealership is returning a call from a previous agent. SA states the customer s tie rod is not broken. SA states the customer came into the dealership to have the recall repair completed and to have the dealership diagnose why the check engine light was on and why the vehicle was shaking. SA states they do not have the parts available to complete the recall repair. SA states the check engine light and shake have nothing to do with the recall repair. SA states the shaking is from an issue with the transmission. Agent advised SA Brian his information would be updated.
Melissa. Benson is telling me the tie rod wasnt worn out but was recalled. I dont know why the left tire is so much worse than the right. I m thinking about taking the tie rods to an independent shop to have them inspected by someone other than dodge. The way the left tire wore its obvious theres a problem. Also the turbo wasnt working I am sure this was caused by the known emission problem dodge has had. I read all the class action lawsuits regarding this and if I encounter any issues I too will be filing a lawsuit. They cant tell me why the transmission housing only that they have never seen one do this. Just about every major component on this truck has failed. Suspension emission power train engine

Customer is calling to state that that just spoke with their DLR and were advised that parts would not be available for the N62 recall for a couple months. Agent then advised the customer as per Answer ID 24057 that although owner letters were sent in December indicating parts were available, there is now a delay as a new part will be used rather than the original that was planned for the fix. Dealers should start receiving limited quantities of updated parts the week of April 14th. Agent then advised the customer that they will be contacted once parts are available. Customer was not satisfied. Customer requested to speak to someone who would be able to help. Agent advised the customer that this is a new development, and there would be no further assistance that anyone could offer here. Agent then again advised that the only thing to do at this point is to wait for the contact from the parts support department. Customer was not satisfied with this but understood.

Caller is SM Brandon from DC 45489 called stating that the customer really needs his vehicle back and the dealership does have the parts so he is wondering if this repair will be covered under recall warranty. SM states that the vehicle was inspected and deemed alright and then the tie rod broke. SM needs to know whether he can use recall parts as the recall is already listed as completed. Agent suggested that SM speak with the warranty hotline to see how to proceed with this matter. Agent provided phone number and then transferred SM to Warranty Hotline: 1- 888-255-2616.
SM Brandon called to advise that the N62 recall part will not physically fit the vehicle. The part you replace is not the part needed. The DLR inspected that the vehicle had Part A and deemed it was safe and sent him away. If the vehicle had part B it would ve been replaced. Part B that is part of the recall N62 looks different and will physically not fit on the truck. Part A that was deemed safe broke so the N62 part is not needed. SM Brandon has the repair part in stock and can put on but he needs to know if Chrsyler will then pay for the part and labour. SM Brandon cannot use the recall part because it s not part of the recall. The writer found that the customer did not meet the parameters for cost assistance 130,000.

SM Brandon can be reached at 704-924-7070 ext 442.
Customer called in stating that he called in last night and was under the impression that his right side tie rod would be covered for because of the issue. Customer stated he has talked to his dealership and they have told him the recall is only for the left not the right and that he would have to pay. Writer talked to TL about issue and was advised to contact SM at dealership to advice if they are having issues with parts for the recall not fitting to contact their district manager. Writer contacted and left a voice message. Writer advised customer that Chrysler at this time cannot look into cost assistance for customer for the right side tie rod. Customer stated he was not happy and will say so on face book. Call ended.

Product - Suspension - Tie Rods / Drag Link - Broken - Unknown	Tie rod broken Vehicle inoperable
Recall - N49: LEFT TIE ROD -	unable to obtain parts

Briefly summarize why the customer is contacting Chrysler: Dealer called because parts were on backorder, service stated that he cannot get the part needed to complete the recall, however he can get the original parts needed to fix the vehicle, however the customer is not covered under warranty.
Briefly summarize what the customer is expecting: Expecting assistance to get the part to fix the vehicle
Agent advised dealer that the customer is within perameters to qualify for D-12-27 if they were willign to extend that to the customer to pay for the part not covered under warranty.
Dealer agreed to extend this to the customer so that they can get their vehicle back on the road
Briefly summarize why the customer is contacting Chrysler:
Customer called in and stated that he has been in a rental vehicle since 03/06/2014 due to the issue with the N49 recall on his vehicle. Customer stated that he had been advised that dealership 26842 would be assisting with the rental extension as he was currently transient in CA. Customer stated that he has not heard anything back from the dealership regarding the situation and was seeking confirmation regarding the rental coverage.
Briefly summarize what the customer is expecting:
Customer is seeking confirmation regarding the rental from dealership 26842.
Agent reviewed case [redacted] and found that SM Louis stated that the dealership would be assisting with rental in lines 74-78. Agent advised the customer of this information. Customer stated that he has been trying to reach someone at the dealership all day but has not received a call back yet to provide him with additional information. Agent advised the customer that they would contact the SM in regards to the rental.
Agent contacted dealership 26842 and requested to speak with the SM. Agent was transferred to voicemail twice. Agent left a message requesting that the SM contact the customer in regards to following up with the customer s inquiry about rental.
Agent advised the customer that a message had been left for the SM to contact the customer regarding the rental. Customer stated that he would continue working with the dealer regarding the rental.

Dealer called CAC wanting to add the steering wheel damper into the goodwill and needs a written approval or somthing to ensure that she will get reimbursed. Writer read up on the case and noticed that the customers repair is being covered by the D-12-27 bulletin so cost assistance has already been supplied by her dealership so know more can be approved. Dealer upset stating that Chrysler has to pay because the tie-rod after breaking hit the steering damper breaking that and she needs CAC to approve it because if she tries to send in for reimbursement it will be rejected due to it being consequential damage. Writer advised the dealer that CAC follows the same logic and that if she wants an exception she would need to speak with her business center. dealer disconnected.

Customer s husband stated he is on the road and will not be home for six weeks. Writer advised the customer this recall is not a Chrysler recall for the original equipment, this recall is by Mopar for a replacement service part, the dealership will inspect the vehicle to see if the steering linkage is installed with u bolts, this is the part being recalled as it could cause the tie rod to break and if so they will replace the part free of charge.
Customer s husband stated he has not had a prior repair. Writer advised if the dealership has to change the parts the parts are not available at this time. Customer s husband stated he understood this is just an inspection first.
Writer advised this to be correct.

Briefly summarize why the customer is contacting Chrysler:Customer states the tie rod end broke on vehicle and they had it replaced at an out of state dealership. Customer states they have all documentation and receipts related to the repair.
Briefly summarize what the customer is expecting:Customer seeking reimbursement for N62 recall.
Agent advised that recall N62 was a MOPAR steering linkage part and did not provider coverage for replacement of factory parts. Agent asked customer if a previous repair had been completed to the steering linkage assembly, prior to this repair. Customer stated they did not know, this is a work truck, registered to a business. Agent reviewed past claim history for the vehicle and was unable to locate a previous repair to the steering linkage assembly.
Agent provided customer with document request link and advised that once the documents are received the case will be escalated to a case manager, who will review the reimbursement request and render a decision.
 Customer Document Received *****
This recall is for a MOPAR 'replacement part'.
The vehicle had to have been in for service and had the steering linkage replaced with MOPAR service parts prior to the one customer is seeking reimbursement for in order to be entitled to reimbursement.
Customer should have the vehicle inspected to see if MOPAR replacement parts were installed during this repair and dealer will determine if a repair is necessary under the N62 recall.
Unless customer can provide a repair invoice showing prior service N62 recall reimbursement does not apply to their vehicle and reimbursement will be denied.
Agent contacted customer at: [redacted]. Agent provided case number and contact number for Ram CAC and invited the customer to contact Ram customer care for additonal assistance.
*Next Agent*******
When customer returns call, please advise them that the N62 Recall is a MOPAR recall repair and covers a replacement MOPAR steering linkage part that would have been installed in the customer s vehicle in a previous repair to the steering linkage subassembly. Recall N62 does not cover the replacement of factory installed parts. Agent searched all previous repair claim history pertaining to the customer s vehicle and was unable to locate a previous repair to the steering linkage subassembly, where the replacement MOPAR steering linkage part would have been installed. The repair would have had to be completed prior to what has been submitted for this reimbursement request. Unless customer can provide documentation of a previous repair, performed where the MOPAR steering linkage part, the subject of the N62 Recall was installed, Chrysler will not participate in this reimbursement request. Advise the customer that they should still get their vehicle to their authorized Chrysler dealership in order to make sure they have not had this MOPAR replacement part installed during the submitted repair, and to complete the N62 recall repair, as it is still showing as incomplete.

AM rvwd CAIR with SM and advised that they advised the customer that unit needs to be diagnosed and if found that the issue is related to the recall they will consider reimbursement on the tow. Rvwd further with WAM and offered to pay on a one time basis to put an aftermarket tie rod in until the new part is available to avoid the truck being down.
SM states when he called the customer back he already had gone to Napa and put his own part in. EAB

Recall - N62: LEFT OUTER TIE ROD ASSEMBLY - Reimbursement	customer seeking reimbursement for parts to get recall completed

Briefly summarize why the customer is calling: Customer is calling because he states that the left tie rod has broke and he states that his vehicle is at an IRF and they have ordered the part and they state that it will be coming in tomorrow and he is seeking reimbursement for the part because he cannot wait until the part comes in at the dealership.
Briefly summarize what the customer is expecting: Customer is expecting to get reimbursement for the part.
Agent advised customer that he would not be eligible for any reimbursement because he would have to have a mopar part installed on the vehicle and the mopar part for the recall in not available at all in the country as it is on national backorder. Agent advised customer that in order to get the recall completed it has to be done at a Chrysler dealership not an IRF.
Customer contacting Chrysler stating that he s very frustrated that this part is not available. Customer stated Chrysler should be paying for the part and labor to have an after market part put on because the parts are not available. Agent advised we will not be participating in reimbursement for an after market part being put on the vehicle. Customer stated he has no other choice because he cannot wait a month for the part. Agent advised that lost time is a consequential expense and we are only liable for replacing the recall part. Agent advised at this point he can put the after market part on but he will have to pay for parts/labor and once MOPAR part becomes available he can have it replaced with that part. Customer stated he is going to contact an attorney.

Briefly summarize why the customer is contacting Chrysler: Customer calling Ram to inquire about information on the N49 recall. Customer states they plow snow for a living and last night they were plowing snow when all of a sudden the left tie rod assembly broke off. Customer states they were almost killed and did not even know they had a recall on the vehicle. Customer states that they had the vehicle towed to a local mechanic (non-Chrysler) to have the tie rod repaired when their brother mentioned to them that this is a recall. Customer states that they received nothing in the mail stating they had a recall or could possibly have a recall on their vehicle. Customer states that they want reimbursement for the part they are about to put on because they need money and can t have their vehicle sitting at the dealership for three weeks.
Briefly summarize what the customer is expecting: to get reimbursement for the part they are about to put on their vehicle.
Agent advised customer that they could try to apply for reimbursement but its highly unlikely because the work that is being done is not at a Chrysler dealership and they are not getting the recall part put in.
Agent also advised that this is a very large recall and that Ram is doing their best to ensure the parts they release are Ram Tough.
Customer states their dissatisfaction and demands a manager.

I need help... I have been waiting for over 2 months on the part to come in. I have my name on a waiting list at 2 dealerships. They both keep saying that the part is on backorder.. and I have 28 people ahead of me that are also waiting. do you know what the hold up is on the parts?? I use my 2010 dodge diesel to pull my horse trailer. and now that the weather is getting nicer.. I will be towing more. What are the chances of me losing control because the part breaks? Then have a wreck and injuring or killing me and my horses??? This is a big concern. Can you please give me some answers??

Recall - N62: LEFT OUTER TIE ROD ASSEMBLY - Reoccurance or Related Problem	Vehicle undrivable due to N62 recall failing
Corporate - Survey By-Pass - Default - Default - Default

Briefly summarize why the customer is contacting Chrysler: Customer is contacting Chrysler because his vehicle is currently undrivable after the recall part that was put in his vehicle for the N62 broke. Customer is unsure of how to get his vehicle into the dealership, and additionally states that if they re just going to put the same tie rod in, he s not sure he wants it, since it broke so soon after having the recall done.
Agent called over to dealer 42076 and spoke to SA Shawnda. Shawnda states that once he gets his vehicle in for diagnosis, they can order him another tie rod, and it would not be the same part from the recall as that part has stopped production entirely. Shawnda states they could do that repair and the customer could keep the receipts for this repair and file for reimbursement afterwards. Informed customer of this, though agent still needs to look into towing. Customer states he might be able to get a friend to tow him over there, but requests that agent look into towing in the meantime and call him back.
Briefly summarize what the customer is expecting: To be towed to the nearest dealership and have a new tie rod put on his vehicle.
The part required to provide a permanent remedy for recall N62 is currently not available.

Briefly summarize why the customer is contacting Chrysler: Customer states that at 55,917 miles their right tie rod in their vehicle broke as they were pulling out of a parking lot. Customer states that he had the repair for this completed at an IRF and that the left tie rod appeared loose when he was there, so he allowed them to replace that one as well. Customer would like to know if he can be reimbursed for the cost of both tie rods as he feels that they should both be covered under the recall.
Briefly summarize what the customer is expecting: Customer is expecting reimbursement information.
Agent advised : Writer told the customer that recalls are very specific and that it is only the left tie rod that is covered under the recall, so Chrysler would be unable to reimburse for the cost of the right tie rod, and due to the fact that the left tie rod did not actually break we would not be able to assist with this.

Recall # N49
 END EMAIL BRIEF DESCRIPTION CONTENT *****
I never received notification via mail or phone call about this recall.
Left tie rod broke while vehicle was in motion. I was towed 22 miles to my mechanic who replaced the tie rod and outer end then realigned the front end. I am requesting reimbursement for the towing and mechanics invoice which totals $446.57. Income was lost due to the breakdown.
Please reply by email to the address given. I spoke to a customer service person 3/24/14 who defered me until the parts became available in mid-April to put in a claim and defered towing to a roadside assistance claim that may or may not be available. I do not believe this is fair or even resonable for a long time customer to wait for reimbursement of something that was repaired and paid for at my expense . I bought the truck for dependability reasons as advertised and your commitment to excelence. I would like a simple solution to this without having to wait and make a dozen phone calls and emails. Briefly summarize why the customer is contacting Chrysler:
Customer is upset as vehicle is presently at Dealership with broken tie rod. Dealer says the parts necessary to fix vehicle under recall N49 are not available until April. Customer states they cannot be without a vehicle until then because this is their work truck and they need it operational now. Customer wishes to review options.
Briefly summarize what the customer is expecting:
Agent spoke with SM of Dealer 60448. SM outlined the Customer is outside basic warranty. If Customer is seeking to have repairs completed, they would need to purchase recalled part and pay to have it installed on vehicle. Customer would then need to submit for reimbursement through CAC.
Agent spoke with Customer and outlined options. Customer was informed reimbursement would not be a guarantee. Customer was very disappointed with this information. Customer questioned why Chrysler knew of this problem yet Customer was still paying out of pocket. Agent clarified we are taking every step to resolve matter for Customer, however if Customer cannot wait until parts available in April, Customer would need to be responsible for repairing their vehicle now. Customer was disappointed and accepted information. No further questions at this time.
The part required to provide a permanent remedy for recall N49Ù is currently not available.
Advised customer that their case will be assigned for special tracking until the part becomes available.

recall complaint
 END EMAIL BRIEF DESCRIPTION CONTENT *****
We received a recall notice for our 2010 ram 2500 . This truck is owned by our business NORTHERN LURE resort and campground. We called the dealer to make an appointment to repair the faulty left tie rod, however the dealer did not have the part and the eta was April. Till then we had to drive the truck, on March 28 the tie rod DID FRACTURE, fortunately we were on our property and not on a highway. We called the service dept at ashland chrysler , they referred me to Chrysler roadside customer service. I explained the situation they said they will tow it for 200.00. I asked why I have to pay for something that is not my fault , they referred me to your recall assistance dept. Who promptly told me the same thing even tho I could not get it repaired due to no ineffective parts available. I do not see why we would have to pay for this when it is not our fault.I lodged complaints with your recall assistance dept and then called ram customer service to complain. They all understood my dilemma but nothing would come from it. And the truck is at the service dept awaiting defective parts (as that is all that s available) and we will have to bring it back to be fixed AGAIN. Now we will be driving a truck where this could happen again but it could happen on a highway doing 55 mph and cause greater damage to the truck or to yourselves. I have been a dodge,Chrysler,jeep owner since 1970 but I WILL NEVER BUY ANOTHER PRODUCT FROM YOUR COMPANY AGAIN. IS THIS HOW YOU TREAT LOYAL CUSTOMERS? I am afraid to drive this truck now once we get it back, also I need it for my businesses . I own 2 bar and grills and ALL my customers will be told of this shabby treatment. They will tell 2 friends and you know the rest. Facebook will be my next step in this action if I don t get some satisfaction. [redacted]

BC 70 reviewed and agreed with the decision above. MT915 will review with the customer and stated unless the customer can provide documentation a MOPAR part was used on a prior repair, Chrysler cannot reimburse for this recall request. MT915 reviewed with the customer because the customer took his vehicle to an IRF (independent repair facility) and the parts were thrown away, Chrysler cannot validate the parts on the vehicle, therefore documentation of the MOPAR parts in a prior repair is required.

Recall - H46: STEERING LINKAGE - Information Request	Recall information
Recall - N62: LEFT OUTER TIE ROD ASSEMBLY - Information Request	Recall information

Briefly summarize why the customer is contacting Chrysler: Customer seeking information on his recall. Customer states that after he was in for his inspection for the N62 recall his tie rod broke. Customer states this happened only 2000 miles after he was at the dealership. Customer states that the dealership at the time of the inspection for the N62, the dealership stated that his upper and lower ball joints on the left side were loose, also an alignment would need to be done on the vehicle. Customer states that the company he used to work for owned this vehicle and he bought it from them a year ago. Customer states that he is the only one besides his son that ever drives this vehicle including when his previous employer owned the vehicle. Customer states that ever since he was in for the H46 recall the steering has never been right, but he dealt with it and had nothing completed on it. Customer states that at the time of the left tie rod being replaced just recently, his son was driving only about 10 MPH. Customer states that he has had to pay $1500 and had to have the vehicle taken to a second dealership because of this tie rod, and also had to have a water pump replaced.
Briefly summarize what the customer is expecting: Agent advised that if there was only an inspection done for the H46 and N62 recalls, then he would not have fit the parts that were just recently replaced on the vehicle. Agent spoke with SA Rose at dealer code 42282, who said both recalls were only inspected and no repairs were ever done. SA states that as the N62 recall was inspected the dealership noticed that his left side ball joints and his upper and lower ball joints were loose and needed repairing, and that an alignment would need to be done after. Agent relayed the information back to the customer.

N49 Recall
 END EMAIL BRIEF DESCRIPTION CONTENT *****
I received a recall for a tie rod replacement. I was informed by the dealer that it would take months to get it repaired due to a lack of 'certified' parts. Is this a safety issue or not? What if it breaks while I am waiting for Dodge to get its act together? What is the story?
END OF CUSTOMER EMAIL**
Dear [redacted]
Thank you for contacting the RAM Customer Assistance Center in regards to your 2011 Dodge Ram 2500.
I am sorry to hear of your concern in regards to the N49 recall. As advised by the dealership there is now a delay, as a new part will be used rather than the original that was planned for the fix. We expect dealers to start receiving updated parts the week of April 14th. We apologize for the delay, but the original part planned for the fix was found to not resolve the recall concern.
We advise to please continue working with your dealership to determine when parts will become available and to ensure you are on their list. Unfortunately the dealership provided in your email does not match any in your surrounding area.
I will be sending your case to our special tracking team who will contact you once parts do become available.
Thank you again for your email. Should you require additional assistance, or have any new information to provide, please reply to this email message or call 1-866-RAM-INFO (1-866-726-4636).
Sincerely,
Joel

I have been waiting for a repair on my truck since the recall. I travel pulling a 5th wheel camper. the dealer tells me your are only sending them 1 tie rod every 3 wks which means that it could take a year or 2 to get my truck repaired. so if this breaks while i am traveling over the road how am i to get it repaired if you are only putting out 1 tie rod a month. and i pray that it doesn t cause a wreck. how are you going to resolve this issue. 5 months on a waiting list for a potential fatal event is not smart on your part and do I need to cancel my travel plans for the next 11/2 years at the rate you are going. I bought my truck new 2007 and am planning on buying a new one when the 2016 come out but it looks like a dodge is not the right way to go at this this point. i need an answer on this issue

Recall - N49: LEFT TIE ROD - Reoccurance or Related Problem

 EMAIL BRIEF DESCRIPTION CONTENT *****
Tie Rod Recall dated January 2014
 END EMAIL BRIEF DESCRIPTION CONTENT *****
Back in January of 2014 I received notice of a recall for my truck to replace both tie rod ends due to issues with them. I went down to Tom €™s Country Dodge in Hermiston, OR to schedule an appointment to get it fixed. I did some light reading on the issue and noticed the demand of the recall exceeded parts availability. I understand that and have waited to get it fixed since then. On April 25th the tie rod end broke backing out of a driveway. I called Tom €™s Country Dodge and they dispatched a tow truck. Upon investigation they confirmed my suspicion that the tie rod indeed was broke. They provided me a rental truck free of charge on April 25th-April 30th. They are waiting on the new parts to fix my truck but in the meantime got me back on the road until it comes in (any day now) I am thankful for their time and attention to this matter and am very pleased with the level of professionalism I have received thus far. I can €™t express enough my gratitude to this dealer. My concern is with Dodge. Within a week of this breaking I had just towed my RV trailer on a family vacation down to San Francisco (2,500 mile trip). If this would have broken on the road, it would have potentially been catastrophic. I bought this truck to tow trailers and now I am questioning the safety of my truck. I bought this truck based on input from people and extensive research. I am really questioning my decision on purchasing this truck. I bought the truck because I had a Ford diesel with a bad 6.0 liter motor. I have had a few minor issues with my truck (since purchasing new) but the warranty addressed them. I really liked my truck until the tie rod broke. I question its safety and reliability.
Please keep in mind I have only 43,000 miles on it.

Service drive mgr, Franki, contact AM to see if there is a special investigation CAIR open against this vehicle. There is not. Frankie confirmed that upon inspection, it was verified that all that this vehicle needs are two front ball joints that are worn and a steering dampner which was likely the cause of the owner experiencing loss of control. The dealer also verified that the control arms that are involved in the recall are fine and not causing any of the current concerns. Dealer will be asking the owner to pay for the worn ball joints and the steering dampner repair as they are straight up customer pay type repairs. sab20,AM.

Briefly summarize why the customer is contacting Chrysler: Customer called in because he was recently at the dealership to discuss recall N49. Customer stated that he lives in a small town with no dealerships so he has to travel to get to his dealership. Customer stated on Friday September 13th 2013 he had his tie rods replaced. Customer stated that he did try to go to his dealership but because it was 5:00 at night they did not have time to get him in. Customer stated that his tie rods snapped. Customer stated that he tried to make an appointment for Saturday but the dealership was booked up for 2 weeks. Customer stated that the dealership then tried to call 2 other dealerships to get the repairs done but no one had any room. Customer stated that the dealership set him to an IRF called Omaha Truck Stop to have the repairs done. Customer stated that the dealership told him there was no recalls and this IRF is trusted by the dealership. Customer stated that he was told by the dealership today that he can submit for reimbursement because it was an emergency and he had no other option. Customer wanted to make sure that he still could. Agent advised customer that he can try. Agent advised customer that because the repairs were done at an IRF his chances for reimbursement are slim. Agent advised customer that because it is an emergency situation he might be able too. Agent advised customer that the case will be sent to the reimbursement department with his story so that when they get the paper work they know why he is sending. Recall - N49: LEFT TIE ROD -	LEFT TIE ROD
Corporate - Survey By-Pass - No Repair - Default - Default

Briefly summarize why the customer is contacting Chrysler: Customer stated that he contacted his dealership about 10 minutes ago to find out if the part for the N49 is available. Customer stated that the dealership advised him that they are only order 1 part per week and they still do not have a part for his vehicle. Customer stated that this recall came out in November 2013 and here it is the end of May and there are still no parts.
Customer stated that he cannot do an alignment on his vehicle because the part is bad and his tires are wearing down and he would like to know who is going to be responsible for replacing the tires. Customer stated that right in the recall letter is states that if the part breaks it will cause a crash and he would like to know what Chrysler will do if his children were hurt or lost in a crash. He stated that you would think that Chrysler would try to get the parts out a lot faster then having to face a law suit. He sated that if something happens to his vehicle and/or his family members he will be filing a lawsuit.
Briefly summarize what the customer is expecting: Customer would like an explanation as to why Chrysler is not producing parts faster for the recall.
Agent advised customer that we are working very hard to get all the parts needed to repair the entire recalled vehicle. Agent advised that because of the numbers involved in the recall we had limited the dealerships to order 1 part every 7 days so that all dealerships have an equal chance to be able to repair a vehicle.
Customer understood. He stated that when his vehicle does get repaired that he will be contacting Chrysler for assistance with replacing the 2 front tires and what ever else is happening in the front end of the vehicle because of the recalled part.
Assign the CAIR to a Team Lead to have Survey Bypass - No Repair added.

Product - Drivability - Unknown - Other - Default	customer wanting towing reimbursed
Corporate - Survey By-Pass - No Documentation - Default - Default
Product - Suspension - Tie Rods / Drag Link - Broken - Unknown

Briefly summarize why the customer is contacting Chrysler:Customer calling about N49 recall. Customer stated that he has been waiting for sometime for the recall and this morning when pulling into his driveway the tie rod snapped on the vehicle. Customer wanted to see about getting the vehicle towed to the dealership for assistance. Agent called over to Lithia to find out if the customer is on the list and how quickly he can expect to get in. Agent also wanted to check on the towing for the customer to the dealership. Agent called and spoke with Jim the PM and he stated that the customer is not even on the list. Agent also called over to Dee Motor Company and left a message for the service manager about the recall. Agent was in the process of calling other dealerships when she lost the customer. Agent could not contact the customer back to let him know. Once agent hears from the dealership she will call the customer back and let him know. The customer is not on any list as he was advised and Jim at the Lithia dealership stated that he has over 400 people on the list waiting for parts. Customer not only has a recall issue but is looking for assistance getting the vehicle towed to the dealership.
Briefly summarize what the customer is expecting:to find out about getting the parts for the N49 recall because his vehicle broke down on Monday morning.
Customer calls seeking recall information. Advised the customer of incomplete recall recall N49Ù for this vehicle. Customer was advised to contact a Chrysler, Dodge, or Jeep dealer to schedule an appointment to complete recall repair.
*Next Agent*******
If the customer calls back advise him that the Lithia dealership is too busy with over 400 people on the list and we are waiting to hear from 2 other dealerships regarding the issue.
If Jim from dealership calls please find out if they can fit the customer in for the recall and if they would be willing to tow the vehicle to the dealership and perform the recall and put the towing under the recall.

Customer contacted Ram back because he got disconnected from previous agent. Writer contacted Dee Motor Company again and spoke to SA Mike who stated that they do not have parts for this recall and are having a hard time getting them. Writer contacted Lithia again and spoke to SA Ross who did state that they would make the customer a priority when it gets towed. Writer did ask if they could participate in the cost of the tow. SA Ross did speak to the SM about it, but unfortunately they would not be able to. Writer did look into it on her end, but again the tow would not be covered. Writer informed customer that Lithia would make him a priority to get a part for the N49 recall but that the cost of the tow would be his. Customer understood. Customer states that he will take care of that and contact Lithia to let them know that he will be coming. Writer did also inform the customer that Lithia does not have the parts in at this moment and there is no ETA of quickly they can get the part, but they will try hard to get one for him to get back on the road. Customer has called back again because she has been told that they will be responsible for the towing fee to the nearest DLR. Customer states that the nearest DLR is 60 miles away. Customer does not feel that they should be responsible for the tow because a faulty part, which they cannot get, broke. Customer stated that their family business is seasonal and they cannot work because the tie rod broke in their driveway. Customer states that if they had been on the highway when this happened their lives would have been at risk. Customer stated that they called the DLR regarding this recall as soon as they received their recall notice and the DLR told them they would receive a phone call once the parts were in. See lines 14-16. Customer states that if they have to pay for the tow and cannot get their vehicle fixed, that they will be calling the local news.

Product - Wheels and Tires - Tires - Other - Front	Customer states the tire is worn due to the N49 recall.
Recall - L38: WINDSHIELD WASHER FLUID RESERVOIR - Advise Owner/Incomplete Recall	advised customer of the recall.

Briefly summarize why the customer is contacting Chrysler: Customer called stating that he took his vehicle in January to the DLR and yesterday he went there and they said that the parts are being held by Chrysler. Customer then stated that he has an appointment on Tuesday to come in for the recalls to be completed but now his tire is worn down due to this recall N49. Agent advised customer that once he has the vehicle at the DLR on Tuesday and the SA is able to look at the tire and determine if the wear is due to the recall or not then he can call CAC and let us know that the diagnosis has been completed.
Briefly summarize what the customer is expecting: Customer is expecting the tire to be replaced since he feels that the N49 recall caused it to wear.

Customer called back in as he was delivering a trailer to Lynchburg and now the wear on his tires is too low to drive his vehicle any further. Customer states he had his vehicle in to the dealership 68551 to have the tie rod end recall completed. Customer stated the dealership stated that the wear on the tires was not from the recall but customer does need to have his ball joints replaced. Customer states the wear is from the ball joints and Chrysler should be responsible for the tires. Customer to take vehicle to dealership 60213 to SA Barbara.

Customer states that the tire blew and he lost the center cap. Customer states he just had the recall N49 completed at Moore Chrysler 68551. Customer states that he had to go to a new DLR and was told it is the previous DLR that caused the excessive wear. Customer has not spoken with the previous DLR at this time. SM Barbara from Billy Craft 60213 states when the tie rod was installed it did not fit the tow as an alignment was not completed. SM Barbara states that this is a workmanship issue from previous DLR 68551. SM Barbara states that the ball joints are fine and the wear would be on the inside of the tire not the outer side if it was bad ball joints. Agent spoke with SM Pam and was advised that the tire was worn but that his wear is being caused by the Ball Joints. SM Pam at Moore 68551 states that she does not know why the customer would have driven with the tire being worn previously. SM Pam states the customer does have an appointment to come back for the replacements.

Agent advised customer of a follow up call from a CM within 1 business day. Agent provided cair number.

Writer contacted dealer 68551 at 304-235-8040. Service manager Pam. Writer needs to know what date the customer is coming to the dealership. What is the dealer going to be doing? Pam states the customer has no appointment set, the dealer will be doing a ball joints replacement and recalls, Also the RRT s will be completed and the parts are ordered and at the dealer. The tire was already worn out before the customer had recall completed. Repair is 1 day or less.
Writer contacted customer at [redacted]. Writer asked if the customer can make an appointment. The customer is going to set the appointment as soon as he gets back home. The customer wants to know who is going to pay for the damage that was cause when the truck was not aligned when the recall was completed. The customer states the dealer where he is at right now Billy Craft 60213 states that the ball joints are with in the specs. The customer states that the Pam the SM at Moore Chrysler 68551 told the customer that the early wear was due to the ball joints. The customer asked the SM about the early wear and was told that the problem was for the ball joints and not the recall tie rod end repair. The customer now has 2 new tires on his truck at this time that he has paid for. The customer states that he has a video of how far out of alignment the truck was. The tires wore down to the steel belt on one and the other blew out with in 4 days of the recall being done. The customer is hesitant to go back to Dealer 68551. The customer feels that the dealer was negligent in not doing the alignment. The customer expects his center cap $128.00 to be replaced and the $578.00 that he has paid out of pocket cost for the tires. The customer does not want to this to be a long drawn out process or the customer will turn this over to his attorney. This is the customer s first Dodge truck and he loves the truck. The customer just wants this resolved. The customer has a house in VA and would prefer to work with Billy Craft Dealer code: 60213. The service manager is Barbara and the customer will contact her and give her the information on how to reach writer to get the documents to the writer. The customer will be back in VA for the additional repairs in July.

Writer contacted dealer 60213 at 434-845-3456. Service manager: Barbara. The customer did not take the used tires, the cord was completely through the left hand side, the right was completely shredded and this was due to the other dealer did not do the alignment. The tires were worn and had 30,000 miles on them. Writer provided email address for RO on what the dealer has repaired. Barbara will get the RO emailed to writer today.

Writer contacted customer and inquired about invoice and issues with vehicle. Customer stated that the right tie rod broke on the veh which punctured the tire which are the repairs detailed in the first two invoices. Writer informed the customer that the N62 Recall explicitly states that the left tie rod is the item being recalled and not the right. Customer was confused as to why Chrysler would make a vehicle with such issues with the tie rods. Writer explained that was the reason the safety recall was put on the vehicle. Customer stated that the left tie rod broke about a month later (detailed in invoice 3&4). Writer stated that the IRF will be contacted regarding repairs and writer will callback with decision. Customer stated that she would not be reachable until she returned from Canada on the 17th, and provided en email address as well as contact info for when they return. Briefly summarize why the customer is contacting Chrysler: Customer s daughter Ashley called states the vehicle s left tie rod end broke this morning as her husband was on his way to a job. Customer states she is sure it is the tie rod as the previous recall L16 had been addressed in November and the same thing happened then. Agent advised yes, we do need this to be done at the Dlr in order for it to be covered. Customer states the last time this happened the Dlr was able to cover the tow cost as they put it in with the repair bill, and the customer is going to try and have this done again. Customer states the closest Dlr to where the customer has broken down is Hall Chrysler Dodge Jeep Ram 3152 Virginia Beach Blvd, Virginia Beach, VA 23452. 757-498-2200. Customer is going to call them to inquire on this. Customer also states that her husband had a trailer full of tools and materials for a job, and as such had to end up renting a large truck for this concern. As this is a repeat concern, the part is on a restricted status and the customer is seeking reimbursement for a tow/rental charges, agent is escalating to a CM for these items to be addressed.

Briefly summarize why the customer is contacting Chrysler: Customer is contacting Chrysler regarding the N49 recall. Customer stated that they were in contact with their dealership regarding the recall and was advised that it could take several months before it could be completed. Briefly summarize what the customer is expecting: Customer would like to have the recall completed sooner. Agent apologized for the delay and advised that customer that dealerships started receiving limited quantities of the parts as of 04/14/2014. Agent advised that an initial quantity of parts was sent to dealers based on assigned VINs. Agent advised that once a dealer submits a claim for a completed N49 recall repair, a new order for another part will be released as per AC ID 24054. Agent also advised that the dealership would have to inspect the vehicle to see if the recall is applicable to their vehicle and asked if the dealership had performed the inspection. Customer stated that they were not sure but most likely did since they were at the dealership yesterday for an oil change. Agent then contacted dealer 45650 and spoke with Jerry at parts. Jerry stated that the recall automatically applies to the vehicle according to the year, make, and model of the vehicle. Jerry stated that they could only get one part at a time once a recall repair is completed they could submit another order. Jerry stated that the customer is currently 54th on their list. Jerry also stated that they could complete a recall repair in 2 weeks. Agent then relayed the information to the customer. Customer understood and asked what they need to do in the event that the tie rod breaks. Agent advised that if they would like they could have it repaired and we could look into reimbursement but as for now we would need to wait until the part is available. Customer understood.

Briefly summarize why the customer is contacting Chrysler: Customer called in stated that they have had the part break on their vehicle and that they are now looking to have the vehicle towed from the dealership it is currently at to the dealership that has the part on the vehicle.
Briefly summarize what the customer is expecting: to be reimbursed for the cost of towing from one dealership to another.
Agent advised the customer that as per the information in the warranty booklet Chrysler is not obligated to pay for the towing cost in relation to a recall on the vehicle.
Agent advised the customer that he can submit for reimbursement if he would like to but that there is no guarantee that we would reimburse him for that cost.
Customer understood.
(As per lines 32-38) Customer is not at the DLR, but is looking at how to proceed with the situation because of the unique factors of the fact that it is a recall part that has broken and the fact that the recall part itself is not available.

Writer contacted the dealership SA Robbie, as SM Jacob was unavailable, who informed that the customer does have an appointment for tomorrow 6/11/14 and informed that they were going to look into installing an aftermarket part into the vehicle and have the customer pay for it and have CAC reimburse for the aftermarket part. Writer inquired if it would be possible for the dealership to pay for the aftermarket part and have the writer send a direct check to the dealership as this is a recall situation and would like to avoid having the customer pay for anything. SA Robbie informed that the last time they did a form of this the dealership did not get paid with a direct check. SA Robbie informed writer that the customer seemed okay with paying for the aftermarket part just as long as the customer was reimbursed. Writer would still like to inquire to SM Jacob to inquire if SM Jacob would be okay with a direct check for the aftermarket part. Writer provided ext. 66337 for a return call.
Writer contacted the customer and inquired about the appointment with Downie 45192. Customer informed that the customer does have an appointment with another dealership and informed that the vehicle was picked up by Sorg Dodge as they have a N49 recall part available. Customer then inquired if the customer can be considered into having the towing reimbursed. Writer informed that the towing can be considered and will need documentations on what the customer paid. Customer understood and provided email address at [redacted] for mailing and fax information. Writer will do this and informed that writer will contact Downie for the customer and cancel the appointment set up for tomorrow and will contact Sorg Dodge for further information of the vehicle. Customer understood and is satisfied with this.
CONTACT UPDATE: Per lines 80-91
Writer contacted Downie 45192 Assistant Service Manager Lee who informed that the customer has another appointment for the N49 recall and informed that the customer would like to cancel the appointment for tomorrow. Assistant Service Manager Lee informed that they will cancel the appointment.
Writer contacted dealership Sorg Dodge 57769 and confirmed that the vehicle is at the dealership and informed that they do have the N49 part for the vehicle and provided mileage at 152607.

Writer contacted the customer and informed that SM Keith is willing to put new tires on the vehicle, however will need to figure out how to have the tires covered. Customer overall seemed frustrated and inquired why the writer cannot reimburse the dealership as the writer would have reimbursed the customer. Writer informed that could be a possibility, however informed that the Chrysler Representative has been involved and advised SM Keith to take this avenue and cannot override this decision and informed that if this comes down to it then the writer will provide a reimbursement. Customer informed that it doesn t make sense as to why Chrysler just wont approve to have the new tires put on the vehicle and just have it taken care of. Customer inquired when SM Keith will have this figured out. Writer informed that SM Keith has been diligently working on the specifics and informed that writer cannot say when this will be worked out, however can say SM Keith has been working very hard to get it taken care of. Writer advised a follow up tomorrow 6/18/14 for further information. Customer impatiently accepted the follow up date.
please disregard lines 135-150
Customer contacted the writer on 6/17/14 inquiring if the writer received the documents. Writer informed that the documents have been received and informed that the writer will be able to fully reimburse the customer for the amount of $136.42. Customer was overall satisfied with this. Customer understood.

Briefly summarize why the customer is contacting Chrysler: Customer called states yesterday as the Dlr was closed, he had the tie rod break and the customer states he had the vehicle towed to tony and sons IRF. Customer states he noticed the recall and wanted to know if it applied to the vehicle. Agent updated the owner information and advised the recall was placed on his vehicle. Agent then called the IRF and spoke with Cody. Agent asked him to do a visual inspection to see if the vehicle had the 2 u bolts to indicate that the steering linkage has been previously replaced, and he advised they are present. Agent then called Dlr s around the customer/IRF to see if anyone has the parts in and who is able to accomodate the large vehicle. Agent located 43514 and spoke with SM Rick. He advised that they will have a part later in the week, and he would be able to tow the vehicle there, but wasn t able to accomodate his concern immediately. The customer indicated he needs the truck back for a job tomorrow, as the tie rod broke. SM Rick is going to hold the part for him (the steering linkage) for when he comes in, and the customer is going to have the IRF repair the tie rod today. Customer wanted to submit for reimbursement as he states he has paid $90 for the tow yesterday, as well as the IRF s bill from today. Agent advised we can submit for reimbursement and a case manager will be in touch once the documents are received.
